EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett)

There was a small fire started in the residence of F. L. Heath a few days ago but was soon extinguished, doing but little damage. The friends of the children met at the church Monday night and took steps to have a Christmas tree entertainment on Saturday night, December 23, in Spiker's hall and from present indications they are going to have a rousing good time. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time with them. Mr. Peelor of Elmsee Rock and S. S. Akin of Prospect came out on the Prospect stage Tuesday night and after spending the night with us took the car for Medford. Mr. Hitchman, the insurance man was a guest among us last Friday looking up business. There was a family moved from Medford onto the old Sam Jackson place just below town Tuesday but I did not learn the name. I see that Heath & Diamond are doing quite a business as they have been adding to their stock a drug department. Mr. Vogal, the man who built the new hotel near the depot, has moved his family into the front part of the old Brown store. Clarence Pierce and Mrs. Nalley came out from Medford Friday and went up to look at a place in the hills north of here in company of Mr. owley, Sr.

Farmers of Table Rock have been taking advantage of the protracted fine weather and much plowing and seeding is done. The big dyke on the Modoc ranch is completed and the donkey engine and crew are engaged in clearing up some small patches preparatory to setting several thousand more pear trees. Grandma Vincent has gone to Medford for a week or so. Several Table Rock people visited Medford on bargain day. Mr. Grigsby of Modoc has been digging a well for Mr. Collins. Eva Hall's term of school at DeLinger Gap expired Friday and she is now teaching at Trail. Some of the prosperous people in this community will take advantage of the Los Angeles excursion to spend a while in the sunny southland. The Sunday school at Table Rock is growing in interest and attendance. It has an excellent corps of teachers and an efficient organist. Table Rock will have a Christmas tree. The exercises will be on Christmas evening. Rev. Mark C. Davis refused the offer at his last service here on the ground that he had sold a part interest in a mine which he had found and did not need the money. It was turned over to the missionary society. There is much farm produce in the hands of the farmers yet, including hay, grain, pork, potatoes, onions and poultry.
