Sickness Checks Cupid.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 20.—Serious illness of the bridegroom has stopped the honeymoon trip of a prominent Seattle couple. Five weeks ago Jack Ecker of this city was married to the daughter of a prominent lawyer at Columbus, Ohio, and the couple started on their way west. When they reached Los Angeles, Ecker was stricken with typhoid fever and is now lying dangerously ill at the Clara Barton hospital. He holds a high position with the General Electric company here.

BANK WRECKER MAY

GET $2000 MORE
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 20.—J. Dalzell Brown, convict wrecker of the California Safe Deposit and Trust company, is to receive $2000 by court decree today, unless the Depositors' association of the loded company takes steps to apply it on the account of the plunder which he carried off before the bank closed its doors on October 30, 1907. The money is Brown's share of $6000 allowed Albert Mayer, L. W. Hellman, Jr. and J. Dalzell Brown for 12 years' service as surviving trustees of the Grangers' Bank of California by Judge J. J. Van Nostrand today. Brown is at present living in Los Angeles.

Police After Fighters.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 20.—Police here are worried over a 10 round bout which is scheduled for New Year's day between Mike Sheridan and Chuck Larson. The authorities have failed to locate the arena in which the contest is to be staged, and the promoters claim they will cheat the law in holding the contest.

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 20.—Jack Welsh is announced today as referee
