

DR. LYMAN GETS A SENTENCE OF YEAR AND HALF

Los Angeles Get Rich Quick Promoter Sentenced to McNeill's Island for Breaking Federal Custody at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 22.—Eighteen months in the federal prison at McNeill's Island was dealt out here today by United States District Judge DeHaven as punishment to Dr. J. Grant Lyman, the Los Angeles get-rich-quick promoter, for breaking federal custody when he escaped from Providence hospital, Oakland.

C. M. Courtwright, the guard whom Lyman induced to connive at his escape, was sentenced to six months in the Alameda county jail.

MISS WIGGS WAS DELIGHTFUL SHOW

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" was certainly an artistic if not a financial success. Although the cast was one made up of amateurs yet every part was played so well that one could scarcely realize that the play was not in the hands of a professional company.

Mrs. G. T. Wilson gave a very subtle and artistic portrayal of the kind hearted optimistic and always hopeful Mrs. Wiggs.

Alice Hezan Rice in writing the story always kept the moral lesson to the forefront rather than striving for dramatic climaxes.

The novel is a series of character sketches and to make the drama more would be to destroy the quiet pastoral beauty of the plot. This style is trying and in face most ungrateful to the actor. There is not a scene in the entire three acts where there is an opportunity for dramatic intensity—it is simply a sweet wholesome story with a moral that makes one form better resolutions. Mrs. Wilson was true to the character from first to last. Mrs. Robbins as Mrs. Schultz was the principal fun maker of the evening. She has histrionic ability that might be put to professional use if the lady so desired.

Miss Marlon Shannon in her portrayal of Mrs. Eichom was the exact opposite of the gentle Mrs. Wiggs. She played the snappy, meddling, faultfinder to perfection. And Miss Hazy, droll and sorrowful from first to last, was splendidly acted by Mrs. R. A. Johnson.

As to the children in the cast a good idea of their acting might be gained from a remark in the audience, "They're the best bunch of kids I ever saw on the stage."

Lovey Mary, we all agree with little Tommy, "She's our Lovey Mary," and we don't blame Billy for falling in love with you. Bob, were played by Mamie Deuel and D. H. Colvig and they made a handsome pair of lovers.

It was a surprise to see with what ease and grace Miss Deuel sustained her character from first to last. The little lady has talent.

As to the boys, they all acted and looked like real actors. Louis Bennett made a very good Daniel Wiggs, especially in the last scene with Mrs. Wiggs, which was very effective.

Hoover, with his red vest and checked pants, looked like a real sharper. No one would ever have guessed that he belonged to the Baptist church.

Emerson Merrick as Billy Wiggs and Jake Ware as the sheriff surely deserved their share of honor. They went through their parts without a hitch.

PLAN SPLENDID XMAS CONCERT

The choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church are planning to give a Christmas concert of musical merit on Sunday evening, December 24.

The selections for this occasion are of an unusually high order from a critical standpoint, as well as from the viewpoint of one who merely loves sweet melody.

All the special numbers will be rendered by persons especially qualified for that particular class of music. There is no money consideration connected with this musical treat. It

Tonight the entertainment will be repeated and any one who buys a ticket may feel assured that they are not only giving a little small change to the poor but are receiving full value for their money in the way of entertainment. ED. ANDREWS.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did. Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.
