

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

P. K. Nally and his wife returned to Dudley Friday, after a short business visit in Medford.

A. C. Hough of Grants Pass, the attorney, was in our city yesterday.

H. R. Peart and J. W. Jacobs of Central Point carried a short time in Medford Thursday.

Mr. McKinney, manager of the Producers Fruit company, who had an operation performed upon his left eye, will soon be about.

Assessor Grievie and George Hall of Prospect had business in Medford one day this week.

H. C. Honney is back from his ranch on Butte creek.

Clothes cleaned and pressed. Ye Nifty 236*

J. W. Parker, representative of the Realty Associates of Portland, who started for Los Angeles recently, was called back by business when he reached Sacramento.

H. Wittington left Thursday evening for Salem on professional business, and will also visit his former home in Portland.

Miss Normlie, experienced dressmaker, by the day or piece. Telephone 253 Jacksonville. 245

Mr. and Mrs. F. Haeckert of North Jacksonville were Medford visitors Friday.

Mrs. Maud Kubli of Applegate was in Medford and Jacksonville Friday.

A. L. Gall has succeeded Frank Kisor as manager of the Kisor orchard, located at Jacksonville.

Frank Elliott was down from Ashland a few days ago.

Whipping cream. Rogue River Creamery.

Dr. E. H. Porter made a professional trip to Jacksonville. He was accompanied to the county seat by L. E. Wakeman.

Charles O. King arrived from Portland Thursday with a big Packard automobile. He will assist V. A. Gorst to take care of the passenger traffic between Medford and Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown of Sterling were among the Christmas shoppers during the week.

S. A. Nowell, ladies' tailor, 4th floor M. P. & H. Co. bldg.

J. W. Ling has been receiving a visit from an old friend, Postmaster Bennett of Harrisburg, who is returning from a visit in California. They were in Jacksonville Thursday.

George A. Dunlop of Josephine county is in this section, visiting his brothers, Van and Owen Dunlop. All were in Medford Friday.

Buy Christmas goods at McDowell's.

A. M. Helms has been in our city this week. He is settling his affairs preparatory to removing to Fresno county, Cal., where he bought a fine fruit and alfalfa farm.

Senator Von der Hellen and his sons, Harry and George, spent a few hours in Medford Friday.

Daily deliveries milk, cream, butter, buttermilk. Rogue River Creamery.

James Wright, former sheriff of Douglas county, is in Medford visiting his son, Fred Wright.

Henry Hansen and James R. Smith of Roxy were recent business visitors in Medford.

P. D. Gilbert, who represented a wholesale grocery firm in Southern Oregon for a number of years, was elected mayor of Albany lately.

Carkin & Taylor (John H. Carkin, Glenn O. Taylor), attorneys-at-law, over Jackson County Bank building, Medford.

T. H. Walston of Sterling made a business trip to Medford Friday.

N. Jerry and Jesse Duncan, the miners who are developing an excellent property in Willow Springs district, were in Medford recently.

Phil Hamill, the horticulturist, was among his Medford friends one day this week.

All kinds of toys at McDowell's.

F. J. Alexander, who represents a firm of Chicago tailors, has been transacting business in Jacksonville. Circuit court has adjourned until after the holidays.

Mrs. Charles Nickoll of Fairview visited in Medford one day this week.

George Dietrich is over from Sterling district, where he has mining interests.

Married—At Jacksonville, December 20, by Rev. Charles H. Johnston, Clyde Shaw and Miss Isabel Collins.

Fancy late pears for Xmas shipments. D'Anjous, Bose and Comice, in whole or half boxes. Fancy pack. Producers' Fruit Co.

H. D. Mills and D. G. Karnes of Butte Falls are transacting business in Medford.

Robert B. Roame is at Grants Pass and Woodville in the interest of the Mutual Life Insurance company.

Steam and electric engines at McDowell's.

Sheriff Jones was in Medford on several occasions, transacting official business.

Medford was well represented on the petit jury in the circuit court. Trials will be resumed when court reconvenes.

Fresh ranch eggs at the Fish Market. 244*

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Offenbacher of Applegate have returned from Berkeley, Cal., where they consulted Dr. J. L. Bohannon, the cancer specialist, in behalf of Mrs. O.

Fresh milk at DeVoe's. 257

Robert Bond, the miner, who has been operating in Southern Oregon during the past several years, has returned to Pendleton, his former home.

Simon McKee of Smith River, Cal., who is a pioneer of Jackson county, is making this section a visit.

The largest line of toys in Medford at McDowell's.

Lee Barry of Portland, manager of a fire insurance company, is visiting in Medford, accompanied by his wife, who has relatives living here.

John A. Baxter, formerly of Gold Hill, who is located at Portland, was in Medford Thursday, accompanied by parties who are inspecting certain lime deposits.

See R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man, over Jackson County bank.

Constable J. J. Winningham was down from Butte Falls a few days since.

W. Turnbough of Sterling has been in Medford several times lately.

R. E. Smith, foreman of JackMorrell's fruit farm, located between Gold Hill and Louis valley, was a recent Medford visitor.

Ed Moore and Asbury Beall of Central Point made us a short visit Friday.

Miss Opal Daily and Miss Cordelia Goff, students at the Oregon Agricultural college, are in Medford visiting their parents.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. P. Holt of Eagle Point left last night for a visit to relatives in Berkeley, Cal. Mrs. Holt expects to be absent for a couple of months, but the doctor will return in a few days.

L. E. Peck and son Albert, of Cripple Creek, Colo., were in Medford yesterday. These are mining men and may interest themselves in the mines of southern Oregon.

Miss Rita Andrews, who is teaching school in the Griffin creek district, left last night for a holiday visit to relatives in Corvallis.

C. F. Garrison took train No. 16 last night for Gresham, Ore.

Mrs. B. F. Mulkey and children left Friday night for Monmouth, Ore., where they will spend the holidays with relatives.

Jesse McCoy of Klamath Falls is in Medford visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Solles.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hall and Mrs. Jewell, sister of Mrs. Hall, left on train No. 20 this morning for a visit to relatives in Glendale.

Wesley Judy of Griffin creek is visiting friends in Corvallis.

Mrs. Frank Caldwell of Gold Hill was visiting Medford friends yesterday.

Mrs. Geo. E. Davis and Mrs. Chas. Braun left last night for Portland.

Elias Brown of Wall Lake, Iowa, arrived in Medford yesterday.

Harry DeVoe, a forest ranger in the Portland district, returned to his home this morning after a visit with Medford relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wyatt of this city are in Sams valley spending the holidays with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Waters left this morning for a few days' visit to relatives in Cottage Grove, Ore.

Prof. Briggs of Dunsmuir, Cal., who has been in Medford visiting friends, left this morning for Cottage Grove.

Miss Nellie Aibee, who is teaching school in district No. 29 east of Medford, left this morning for a holiday visit to relatives in Salem.

E. S. Wolfer and family of Eagle Point, left this morning for a visit to Mr. Wolfer's parents in Hubbard, Ore.

O. G. Murray of the engineering department of the Pacific & Eastern is going to spend Christmas in Jacksonville.

Miss Frances McIntosh, who has been visiting for two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, went to Grants Pass yesterday. After a short visit there with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Paddock, she will return to her home in Indiana. While here Miss McIntosh has been the guest of honor at parties given by Mrs. Francis Buffum, Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Oscar Alenderfer. Also on Thursday afternoon Mrs. Cunningham gave a 6 o'clock dinner.

Miss Nellie McNeill, who is teaching school in Monmouth, Ore., arrived in the city this morning and will spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. W. M. Tuttle, and other relatives.

The committee appointed by the commercial club to take up the matter and arrange for the Southern Oregon Mining congress to be held in Medford next month, will meet in the office of Attorney Newman tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, in the Jackson County bank building.

M. H. Whitacre of Bishop, Cal., who has been in Medford several days receiving medical treatment from Dr. Stephenson, returned to his home last night much improved in health.

D. G. Karnes of Butte Falls was in Medford yesterday on business.

H. R. Straight left last night for a visit to friends in San Jose.

Mrs. H. F. Rowe of Portland arrived in Medford yesterday and will visit in this city with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Samuels.

Mrs. Nellie Wing and daughter, Miss Fern, left yesterday to spend Christmas with her sister in Oakland, Cal.

George Kunzman left yesterday for Worthington, Minn., where he expects to reside.

Prof. Leonard Carpenter, an instructor in the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis, is in Medford and will spend the holidays with his brother at the Veritas orchards, east of Medford, which orchard the brothers own jointly.

Mrs. C. I. Hutchison and daughter, Miss Fern, returned from Portland yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Decatur Davis and children of Jacksonville are spending the holidays with Ashland friends.

Mrs. P. M. Shaddock and son arrived in Medford today and will spend the holidays with Mr. Shaddock's brother, W. H. Meeker, and other relatives.

Mrs. T. W. Clugade will spend

Christmas with her mother in Central Point.

Mrs. George Dervey and children of Woodville are spending the holidays with relatives in Talent.

Attorney and Mrs. H. L. DeArmond left this morning to spend Christmas with relatives in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lord, of Seattle, arrived in Medford yesterday.

H. U. McClannahan returned to Medford a couple of days ago from Willows, Cal., where he has been employed for several months with a firm of large ditch contractors. The contractors, he says, have put in 21 miles of drainage ditch varying in depth from six to ten feet. Mr. McClannahan will visit in Medford with his son-in-law, Dr. J. E. Shearer, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rouy returned this morning to Albany after a visit of a couple of days in Medford. They came here after their little daughter, whom they had previously bound out to a family in Medford. They secured the child.

Mrs. Claud Riddle, trimmer in the Ahren millinery store, has been quite seriously ill for a couple of weeks past, but is now considerably improved.

J. Hesse Henselman of Portland arrived in the city this morning from Portland and will spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henselman.

Mrs. H. Crouch and children left this morning for Grass Valley, Cal.

Miss Grace Wolf arrived in Medford this morning and will spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Allie Wolf, on Griffin creek.

Miss Maude O'Brien arrived in Medford Thursday from Portland, and this morning, in company with her mother, Mrs. S. C. O'Brien, left for San Francisco, where they will spend holiday week.

Mrs. J. F. Hale left this morning for Richmond, Cal., having received a telegram announcing the fact that her mother had been stricken with paralysis and was dangerously ill.

Henry Lerch, who was arrested yesterday upon a complaint sworn to by A. E. Reames charging him with receiving stolen goods, gave a bond last night in the sum of $250 to appear for hearing in Judge Glenn O. Taylor's court on Tuesday, December 26, at 1:30 o'clock.

Justin Eifert of Roseburg is home for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Eifert.

J. E. Bodge of Klamath Falls is here to spend the holidays with his family.

Mrs. M. E. Yockey and Miss Helen will leave Sunday for Roseburg to spend Christmas with Mrs. Yockey's son.

been so great the Southern Pacific company will run a special train for this party, leaving Medford at 3:30 p. m. December 29th.

This train will have baggage car, standard sleepers, diner and observation car for the use of the excursionists. Tickets are now on sale at the local ticket office. Make your reservations early so additional sleepers can be secured.

TO GIVE AWAY
To the man or woman who owns or rents a dwelling, who owns a business of any kind, an illustrated picture calendar of the Continental of New York; also calendars nicely gotten up for "special" distribution. S. B. Graham, the fire insurance man, room 3, over postoffice, Medford. 236

To the People of Medford and Southern Oregon

We wish a Merry Christmas and to express our appreciation for their patronage and friendship which has been responsible for the most prosperous year since our establishment.

Daniels For Duds
(The Quality Store)

Season's Greetings

The Jackson County Bank now nearing a quarter of a century of successful business wishes one and all a

MERRY CHRISTMAS

The bank is thankful for the generous patronage it has received. It will endeavor to merit a continuance of the same.

Capital $100,000.00. Surplus, $65,000.00.

Big enough to care for you—Not too big to appreciate you.
W. I. Vawter, President. G. R. Lindley, Vice President.
C. W. McDonald, Cashier.

Weeks & McGowan Co.
UNDERTAKERS
Day Phone 2271
Night Phones, F. W. Weeks 2071.
A. E. Orr, 3092.
LADY ASSISTANT

John A. Perl
Undertaker and Embalmer
Successor to the undertaking department of Medford Furniture Co.
Office 28 South Bartlett Street
Telephones: Day, Bell 471; night residence, Bell 473, Home 179-L.
Calls answered night or day.
AMBULANCE SERVICE

Hearty Christmas Greetings
To One and All
Rogue River Electric Co.