

And Jeff Got 'Em at a 5 and 10 Cent Store at That

Our Correspondents

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe are visiting San Francisco relatives and friends this week.

C. B. Gay and wife of Medford and Louis J. Gay and wife of Seattle met at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gay of this city, and spent a very enjoyable Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Day and children of Grants Pass spent Christmas with Mrs. Day's parents here, and Mrs. W. Scott and Mr. Day returned home Monday. Mrs. Day will remain here for a short stay.

Mr. Schrader of Oklahoma stopped off here this week for a visit with his old-time friend, C. E. Lange. Mr. Schrader goes from here to Southern California, but he is so favorably impressed with the Rogue River valley that perhaps it is only a question of time until he will be one of its residents.

Quite a number of our young folks attended the mask ball at Gold Hill Christmas evening.

The Christmas programs rendered by members of the Christian and Presbyterian churches, Monday evening, were heartily appreciated by the great audience of both houses. All did their parts to perfection and much credit is due to the trainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Spink of Medford spent Tuesday in Central Point.

The band concert given by the Rogue River band Friday evening proved to be a great success, and the band boys are to be congratulated on having such an excellent instructor as Mr. Fisher. The selection by Messrs. Riley and Kline was much enjoyed and the violin solo by Prof. Kline, "The Old Kentucky Home," was beautiful and greatly enjoyed by the audience present.

Charles B. Gay made his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gay, a short visit. Mrs. Randall and daughter, Miss Bessie, spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Whipple, at Woodville.

Mrs. Elliott of Rock Point is spending the holidays with her daughter and other relatives here.

JACKSONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. A. Schmitt have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. B. E. Haney, of Medford.

Miss Harriet Dolson, who has been teaching school at Talent, will become a teacher in the Jacksonville school after the holidays. She is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kenney.

C. C. Pursel and Fred Coppel of Applegate transacted business in Jacksonville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Demmer were in Medford Thursday, trading with merchants.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barnum have returned from San Francisco, where they spent their honeymoon, and conveying the congratulations of many friends.

Mrs. Walter Kontner of Medford is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kenney.

Clyde Shaw and Miss Isabel Collins were united in matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents on the evening of December 20, by Rev. Charles H. Johnston. The groom is a popular business man of Jacksonville and his fair bride an accomplished young woman who taught in the Medford schools last year.

Miss Maud Newbury, who is attending St. Mary's academy at Medford, is at home for the holidays.

Robert Main of Applegate has been attending the teachers' examination. William Arthur, the village blacksmith at Rush, was in Jacksonville Wednesday, en route to Medford.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett. Our merchants have shown their taste for the beautiful by decorating their store windows and thereby attracting the attention of those passing by.

Mr. Natwick's teams, which have been working on county roads the past season, have been brought in and are being fed at the Sunnyside stable. Mr. Natwick and Ed Dutton are engaged in moving the old Von der Hellen store building.

In a former letter mention was made of the fact that there is about $50,000 worth of property in the school district that was not assessed last year. Chancey Florey, office deputy assessor, wrote to his father, our postmaster and school clerk, to apprise him that he had looked over the assessment roll and could find no omission of that character on the books, but Chancey did not take into account about 25 new buildings which have gone up this past season and which were not assessable last spring, besides the large stocks of goods that have been brought here by the merchants, and other improvements, such as woodsheds, small barns, new fencing, etc., so I feel that I am safe in the conclusion that there is in the school district at least $50,000 worth of property if not more which will be assessed next year and on which we can vote a special school tax.

Mrs. Charles Pruett was patronizing our merchants last Thursday.

R. H. Merritt, a solicitor for The Mail Tribune, came out to our town last Wednesday to collect delinquents on the Mail Tribune list, but about the first man he approached, J. H. Jackson, told him that Howlett was in the field ahead of him, so he called on your correspondent and quietly left the field.

A deal is on whereby valuable property is likely to change hands in our little town, but I am not at liberty to give particulars at present.
