"SPIRIT POWER" AT MEDFORD THEATER SUNDAY NIGHT

At the Medford theater Sunday night, December 31, Dr. Eddy, who has recently returned from a five years' tour of Australia, India, China and Japan, will give a seance for the purpose of demonstrating spirit power in the light. The following are among the many manifestations given: Eddy's open light seance, as presented by him before the leading scientific societies of England, Germany and France. Dr. Eddy was by them subjected to the most crucial test conditions. There is not one member among them but acknowledge that in the presence of Dr. Eddy there is a wonderful power and intelligence outside the body that can assume a human form and annihilate distance, but what that power is there is a diversity of opinion. A table rises and floats in mid-air. Slate writing, spirit pictures, flowers are brought to the audience by invisible hands; materializations of forms and faces, etc.

TELEGRAPHIC TABLOIDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Humane Officer Henneay thought he was going on a wild goose chase when he was sent to investigate a story that a number of ducks were stuck in the mud. He found it no hoax. Pasty oil caught the birds.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Some "bug" on rare jewelry robbed Jewel Clefayt, steamship agent, of an ancient sapphire and diamond pin given him by a Russian admiral. The thief left $1000 untouched.

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—"Gee, there goes a criminal with $5000 on his head," said a fellow countryman of Michael Dulch, a new arrival from Austria. They collared the supposed fugitive, who paid each $1000 in worthless bills for freedom. Then Dulch deposited $180 in real money as evidence of good faith. He's broke but wiser, today.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—H. T. Scott, president of the Pacific Telephone & Telephone company, sent a couple of boxes of cigars to his friend "Bill" Right, at the St. Francis hotel. Bellhops took them to the wrong Right, whose friends smoked them.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—W. Y. Bourne is suing R. L. Lewis for $500 claimed as fees for effecting a reconciliation between Lewis and his estranged wife. Both husband and wife gave him the laugh.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Bound, gagged, groaning, Anthony Backus was found on his front porch of his rooming house after $300 of A. Stroth's money had vanished. Detectives hit the trail. Backus went to jail. The money is found.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—Ish's double, the human enigma discovered at the detention hospital yesterday, proves to be no greater mystery than a Japanese who was so dirty that his own people kicked him out. He broke silence at sight of a bath.

BOULDER, Col.—William Smith, Syracuse, N. Y., returned here after a two weeks' hunting trip and says he killed a 250-pound bear with his fists and a pair of brass knuckles. Smith doesn't smoke.

SAN JOSE, Cal.—Priests of St. Joseph's church have turned detectives. They are searching for J. L. Johns, of Baker, Ore. There is a railroad ticket home awaiting him at the Southern Pacific office.

Patrolman Exonerated.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28.—Patrolman Charles Hewston today stands exonerated of any criminal responsibility for the death of F. J. Kelly, a Missoula, Mont., man, whom he shot and killed in a pistol duel. The coroner's jury declared that the officer was acting "in the discharge of his duty."

The duel was fought because each believed the other to be a highwayman. Hewston was seriously wounded, but is recovering.
