

THREE TWINS A PLEASING SHOW

Miss Hutcheson Makes a Decided Hit As Kate Armitage—Frank Wade Finds Many Old Friends in This City.

A large house turned out to see the "Three Twins" last night, because they knew the performance would be a good one. "Three Twins" has been here before, with pretty costumes, pretty girls, good actors and an interesting plot.

Last night's cast was somewhat different from the one first seen here and, in some respect, much better. The part of Kate Armitage was played by Gertrude Hutcheson, who is much stronger in the part than the lady appearing here in the former cast. Miss Hutcheson is among the best light opera singers on the American stage today. In the part of the "Merry Widow" in the opera of that name she was considered by eastern critics in many respects the best singer and actress that had undertaken the part. "Three Twins" doesn't give Miss Hutcheson an opportunity. The play was originally intended for comedians and the part of Kate Armitage was only a supporting character. Miss Hutcheson, however, makes the part stand out. She has an excellent voice and sings with the skill of an artist.

Emily Burke carried off the honors as a comedienne. Her incessant weeping was indeed very funny.

The Yama Yama girl was a hit and was encored several times. Mr. Frank Wade, the manager of the company, has many friends in Medford. He and his wife were entertained at the home of Mr. Frank Burgess. Mr. Wade is always connected with a good company and his name as manager is a sufficient guarantee.

Died.

Mrs. Herman G. Meyers of Brownboro, aged 47, died Tuesday night of dropsy. The funeral will be held from the Meyer home at 10 o'clock Friday morning. Mrs. Meyer had been ill for some time. Beside her husband, who is living, Mrs. Meyer leaves two sons, Herman and Eddie, aged 24 and 22 respectively. Weeks & McGowan will have charge of the services.

HAS BEEN CHAMPION A LONG TIME, ATTELL APPEARS AS FAST AS EVER

"ABE" ATTELL IN THE RING

Champions come and champions go, but there is one who seems destined to go on forever. He is none other than "Abe" Attell, the crafty featherweight champion, who has held the title so long that the oldest citizens does not remember when he was not champion. "Abe" appears to be just as fast now as ever and finds little difficulty in disposing of all the aspirants who seek his title.
