INTERESTING MEETINGS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The younger set of Medford society were given a complete surprise by two of their most popular members yesterday when the marriage of Miss Caroline Hortense Smith to John Frederick Bergesch, Jr., became known.

The ceremony took place Thursday at high noon at the home of the bride's mother on Tenth street, the Rev. Dr. Grigsby of the Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few near friends and relatives were present, the list of guests being Dr. Grigsby, Mr. Harry Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. A. Redfield, Dr. and Mrs. Ridell and Miss Madge Ridell.

A dainty wedding luncheon was charmingly trimmed in pink carnations and softly shaded candles; the centerpiece being a quaint wicker basket filled with the pink blossoms and tied with dainty streamers of tulle.

The bride is an only daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Smith who, with her daughter, has won an enviable place among Medford folk during their residence here; and the groom, though a former New York man, is now a well established rancher in the Applegate country.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergesch will go at once to their ranch home, the Lazy Bee.

At the attractive home of Mrs. Daniels on Siskiyou Heights Mesdames Daniels and Purdin were hostesses at a delightful bridge luncheon Thursday. Christmas decorations were used and luncheon was served by candle light. The hostesses carried out the red and green scheme of decoration in their gowns, Mrs. Daniels wearing red and Mrs. Purdin green.

A delicious four course luncheon was served, after which bridge was played. Mrs. Dunlop won first prize, a handsome cut-glass perfume bottle; Miss Banks second, a fern. The draw prize, a bunch of red carnations, was won by Mrs. Gray.

Mesdames Budge and Holmes and Miss Banks assisted the hostesses during the afternoon.

The invited guests were: Mesdames Budge, Holmes, Casey, Root, E. B. Davis, Kidd, Rau, Luke, English, Riddle, Porter, O'Brien, Newbury, Kentner, Vawter, Mundy, Nye, C. I. Hutchinson, Miles, Harmon, Wakeman, Dunlop, Madame Dunlop, Gray, Woodford, Perkins, La Claire, Charles Brown, W. H. Brown, Merriek, Andrews, Barneburg, E. E. Harley, Walters and Misses Bank, Haskins and Spedlor.

A most delightful dinner, followed by an evening of bridge, was given by the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club at Hotel Medford Friday evening. Violets were used for table decorations. Dinner was served in the main dining room and the card tables were set in the balcony on the mezzanine floor. The club members are Misses Bertha English, Madge Ridell, Bess Kentner, Ida Lee Kentner, Hazel Davis, Sara Perlay, Mildred Ware and Mrs. Rothelmal, and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Redfield, Messrs. Rothelmal, Bardwell, Kiddle, Tamy, Lee, Root, Reed, Tamy and Lindsay.

One of the many events of the week was the Christmas party given at the ranch home of Mrs. Albert Hopkins on the Jacksonville-Central Point road, Friday evening for her son and daughter. The house was decorated in Christmas greens and a dainty supper was served. Among those present were the Misses Goffe, Rollins, Manning, Riley, Tisdale, Tracy and McClatchie, and Messrs. Rollins, Root, Manning, Wilson, Tisdale, Roenisch and Hopkins.

Miss Bertha Ditworth and Mr. Gay Cobleigh were married Wednesday, December 27, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Ditworth. Rev. E. O. Eldridge of the Methodist Episcopal church performed the ceremony. The newly married couple left for Ashland, where they will stay for several days, returning later to Phoenix, where they will live.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Van Dyke and daughter, Miss Helen, of Ashland, were the Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Van Dyke.

Mrs. F. McCabe, who has been visiting her son, H. J. McCabe, left Thursday for her home in San Francisco.
