

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. B. F. Mulkey and children returned Wednesday night from a visit to relatives in Monmouth.

Benton Bowers, an Ashland capitalist and enthusiastic good roads advocate, was in Medford Wednesday on business.

G. W. H. Albert, of Butte Falls, was in Medford Thursday.

H. M. Briggs of Roseville, Cal., arrived in Medford Wednesday.

Mrs. W. S. Bennett is in Grants Pass for a few days' visit to friends.

Mrs. F. M. Wilson returned Thursday to her home in Glendale after a visit in Medford with her son, C. A. Wilson, and family.

Mrs. Porter J. Neff will leave today for a couple of weeks' visit to friends in San Francisco.

S. A. Nowell, ladies' tailor, 4th floor M. F. & H. Co. bldg.

Mrs. Elizabeth Robinson, who is to be librarian when the new Carnegie library is opened, arrived in Medford Tuesday from Seattle. Mrs. Robinson is very much pleased with Medford and the library prospects. The new library will be opened about January 15.

Carlin & Taylor (John H. Carlin, Glenn O. Taylor), attorneys-at-law, over Jackson County Bank building, Medford.

Mrs. J. B. Holmes and daughter, Miss Gladys, of Central Point, were in Medford Wednesday, guests of Mrs. H. Hartwell.

Mrs. Will Howard, of Eugene, arrived in Medford Wednesday and is the guest for a few days of Mrs. M. M. Taylor, in Jacksonville.

Fresh milk at DeVoe's. 257

W. F. Biddle left Medford Wednesday evening for Corvallis, where he will take the short course in horticulture at the agricultural college.

Attorney Porter J. Neff left Medford Wednesday for Salem, where on Thursday he argued the road bonding issue before the supreme court.

Rheumatism, in all forms; like to see the case I can't reach. Speedy results. Dr. E. Brooks, D. C. 247 South Riverside. 84-R. 245

E. B. Petzell of Glendale was in Medford Wednesday on business.

See R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man, over Jackson County bank.

A. S. Rosebaum, L. A. Gregory and C. Walker were in Ashland Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Dale were in Ashland Wednesday.

Emily T. Standford, examiner for the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, piano, harmony, musical history, 428 West Fourth street. Telephone 7211. 266

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Malloy returned to Portland Wednesday after a visit with Medford friends.

Mrs. A. Craven left for her home in Portland Wednesday evening after having visited friends in Medford.

F. M. Wilson, cigars, tobacco, confectionery, next to Nimb, on Main. 263*

Just an even 100 couples attended the old folk dance Tuesday night at the Natatorium. The large hall was used; the music was furnished by Eames' full orchestra, and refreshments of ice and punch were served. The next party will be given on January 15th.

S. B. Graham, room 3 over post-office, has art calendars to give away.

Mrs. H. H. Corliss of Phoenix was in Medford Wednesday.

Attorney H. A. Canaday was in Phoenix Wednesday on legal business.

The Loyal Temperance legion will meet next Friday at 4 p. m. in the basement of the M. E. church. All children from 6 to 16 are invited to come.

There will be no skating Monday afternoon or evening at the rink. 244*

E. M. Collins, cashier of the Bank of Jacksonville, was in Medford Wednesday on business.

There are still a few of those cluster street lights which are not burning.

Phone your orders in to Eads Bros. Transfer Co. Office phones: Bell 2152; Home 350-K.

Mrs. S. M. Woods visited Ashland friends Thursday.

Mrs. I. Dodge of Paris, Mich., who has been in Medford for several days visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Merrick, left Thursday for Los Angeles.

Mrs. Olive Hayes, of Newport, Wash., arrived in Medford Thursday for a visit to her sister, Miss Ida Keilh.

E. T. Huth and children returned to Medford Thursday from Mt. Vernon, Wash. Mr. Huth was formerly engaged in the market business in Medford, but left here about a year ago to find a location which would be more alluring. He didn't find it, but he surely hunted for it—over the greater part of British Columbia and Washington. He expects to now remain in Medford and engage in business.

Miss Alabama Brenton has returned to Monmouth, Ore., after a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. E. Fasselman.

J. P. Dunagan, operating manager of the wireless telegraph station in Medford, has been transferred to Seattle, and left Wednesday for his new station.

Mrs. M. R. Dunham of this city is visiting Grants Pass friends.

Mrs. M. G. Gray of 115 South Mistletoe street, left Thursday for a two months visit to her old home in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Shultz, of Ukiah, Cal., arrived in Medford on Wednesday and may decide on locating here. Mr. Shultz is an electrician.

Dr. H. P. Hargrave left Wednesday for Los Angeles, where he will join Mrs. Hargrave and daughter, who left for that place last week. They expect to be absent a couple of months.

ADMIRAL EVANS DEAD.

(Continued From Page One)

ols and also a large contingent from West Point military academy will attend the funeral.

Admiral Evans' death was sudden. When he arose yesterday he announced to members of his family that he felt in better health and spirits than he had enjoyed for some time. He said he felt no ill effects from the old wounds received in the civil war or from the recurrent attacks of rheumatism from which he had suffered for years.

After partaking of a hearty luncheon Admiral Evans went to his library. He was stricken there about 2 p. m. Members of his family immediately summoned Dr. S. S. Adams, who found him in great pain. Responding, apparently, to treatment, the admiral fell into a restless sleep and his family believed all immediate danger was passed. He awakened, however, shortly after 4 o'clock and, raising himself on his elbow with great difficulty, announced that he was choking.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

"I am unable to get my breath," he said. Then he sank back and, fully conscious to the last, died at 4:45 o'clock.

With him at the end were his wife, his daughter, Mrs. H. I. Sewall, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frank T. Evans, wife of the admiral's only son, a lieutenant commander in the navy, attached to the torpedo boat destroyed Monahan. The only other member of the family who was not present was his daughter, Mrs. Marsh, wife of Captain Charles C. Marsh, commanding the cruiser North Carolina.

TURK LEADER IS REPORTED SLAIN

Chefket Pasha, Commander of the Turkish Constitutional Forces, or Young Turks, is Said to Be Victim of Assassination.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—Chefket Pasha, leader of the Young Turks and commander of the Turkish constitutional forces, has been assassinated, according to dispatches received here today. All telegraphic communication with Constantinople is interrupted and details of the alleged assassination and official verification are not obtainable. The same dispatch stated that the Adrianople arm corps had commenced a march to Constantinople.

Stormy scenes in the chamber of deputies are said to have followed a meeting of the new cabinet named by Sold Pasha. Friction resulted when the grand vizier announced that it was the intention of the minister to proceed with the policy directed at a modification of the constitution. Peace was partially restored when the grand vizier announced that a debate on the constitutional bill would be held this afternoon.

Although dispatches from Tripoli quiet conditions there, it was learned today that Italy is preparing to send more troops to Cyrenaea.

PHOENIX ELECTION ON NEXT TUESDAY

Phoenix will have its city election next Tuesday, January 9. The names of those who have qualified and whose names will appear on the official ballot are:

For mayor, A. H. Fisher, Recorder, F. E. Furry, Marshal, Ira Dunlap and John Wright.

Councilmen, First ward, G. T. Thrasher and Lloyd Calver. Councilmen, Second ward, W. J. Beardsley, I. F. Pratt, B. S. Standcliffe.

Councilmen, Third ward, Ed Wilde, A. H. Houston, Henry Shaffer.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY GRAND JURY REOPENS PROBE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 4.—The Los Angeles county grand jury today reopened its probe of the dynamiting cases, and three witnesses were ordered to hold themselves in readiness to go before the inquisitorial body. These were Leonard S. Holer, a night watchman employed in the Higgins building, where the McNamara defense maintained offices; Miss Ethel Kerueghian of San Francisco, a stenographer employed by Clarence Darrow, and I. K. Russell, private secretary to Job Harriman. It was stated that Russell would be the first witness.

Hastings for health.

RUSSIAN POLICE SEEK AMERICANS

One of a Party of Four Kills Four Policemen and Wounds Three Others in Making Escape—One of American Party is a Woman.

CHOSFSKA, Russia, Jan. 4.—Four Americans, one of whom killed four policemen and wounded four others—three probably fatally—are today being sought by the police of this district. One of the fugitives is a woman.

A policeman knocked at the Americans' door. It was opened and he fell dead with five bullets through the head. The officer called to investigate a report that the Americans had no passports. Reinforcements were summoned. One of the Americans stepped out, holding up his hands and saying "I surrender." An officer approached and fell with a bullet through his heart.

The American took the revolver and cartridges from his belt and said: "Thanks, that's all I wanted," and returned to the house. In a few minutes he reappeared, a gun in each hand, calmly walked through the crowd and sought refuge in a garden. In a subsequent fight he killed two more policemen.

GLORIOUS HAIR

For Every Woman Who Wants It. Any woman who neglects her hair cannot expect to have as lovely hair as the woman who doesn't.

Wash the hair once a week, use PARISIAN SAGE daily—keep your hair brush clean and in a few days you will give to your hair a beautiful lustre that you will be proud of.

PARISIAN SAGE is a most reliable hair tonic; so reliable that Chas. Strang guarantees it to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

It should be used as a dressing by every member of the family because it keeps the scalp clean, prevents hair from turning gray and baldness. Large bottle 50 cents. You will have no use for ordinary preparations after once giving delightful PARISIAN SAGE a trial.

TUSCAN SPRINGS

Having no equal on earth in variety of mineral waters and curing diseases that medicines will not reach. If you are in need of health, come now. We are open all the year and can give the best of care and attention now as well as in summer. Stage daily from Red Bluff to the springs. Further particulars address E. B. WALBRIDGE, TUSCAN SPRINGS, CAL.

Draperies

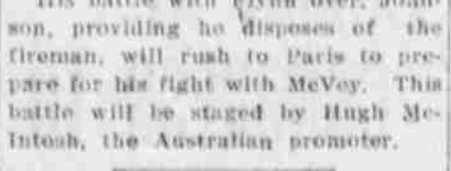

We carry a very complete line of draperies, lace curtains, fixtures, etc., and do all classes of upholstering. A special man to look after this work exclusively and will give as good service as is possible to get in even the largest cities. Weeks & McGowan Co

BLACK JACK READY TO START TRAINING

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 4.—Declaring that all obstacles to his proposed battles with Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, and Sam McVey had been wiped away, Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, after an idleness of nearly two years, announced today that he would start training at once for the Flynn bout. The battle between the "big smoke" and Flynn will be staged at Windward, Nev. The champion is to receive $20,000 as his cut and one-third interest in the moving pictures.

His battle with Flynn over, Johnson, providing he disposes of the fireman, will rush to Paris to prepare for his fight with McVey. This battle will be staged by Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter.

NOTE: Will the party who took two wagons from I. B. McDaniel's residence on Taft avenue return same at once and nothing will be done, but if not returned immediate action will be taken. VERNE VAN DYKE.

any longer trying to read without glasses. Go this very day to Dr. Rickert and have your eyesight properly corrected. Many wise people in these parts claim he is the best in that line. Office over Keutner's, Medford.

Game Boards

Also full line of Games all seasons

Medford Book Store

Girl Breaks Arm. Miss Alice Hookersmith, while skating at the Phoenix rink Wednesday evening, had the misfortune to fall and fracture her right arm. She was given prompt attention and is now on the road to recovery. Not many unadvertised business opportunities will be considered by people who have money to invest in this city this week. Hastings for health.

Do You Need Drain Tile? WE MANUFACTURE IT The Best That Can Be Made, Before Ordering See Us. Rogue River Pottery Co. Plant at Tolo, 209 Garnett-Corey Bldg., Medford

A Full Line of Peerless Lamps All guaranteed. Now is the time to get your house wired. Good light adds to the comfort of winter months. Southern Oregon Electric Co North Grape Street.

...First... National Bank —of— MEDFORD, OREGON CAPITAL STOCK $100,000.00 Surplus and Undivided Profits $58,000.00 United States and Postal Savings Depository We solicit your business, which will receive our careful attention. F. K. Deuel, President M. L. Alford, Cashier Orris Crawford, Assistant Cashier

We have for sale some ten-acre tracts across the road from the State Experiment Station recently located between Phoenix and Talent. The soil is suitable for fruit, alfalfa or garden. Well water in quantity sufficient for irrigation can be had at 20 to 25 feet (we have a well on an adjoining tract which supplies 200 gallons per minute). The price is $300 to $350 per acre, and we can make very easy terms. W. T. YORK & CO. Mail Tribune Block

SKATING RINK Under New Management It is the place for mothers, fathers, brothers, and sisters to enjoy themselves. Races every Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, also band concert. Spectators, 10c; skaters, 25c. All other days spectators free. Lady skaters free at all times. Lady skaters free Wednesday nights with band concert. Lady beginners free from 10 a. m. to 12 m. every day. Rink open afternoons and evenings. Children 15c Saturday afternoons. PROF. J. LAUNDY.

SALE THIS WEEK Beginning Tuesday, January 2, 1912, AT COST Genuine Navajo and Chimayo Rugs, Pillow Tops and Table Covers Calendars Holiday Stationery Dolls Craftsman Leather Goods Pictures Leather Hand Bags Games Brass and Copper Goods Indian Baskets Desk Sets ALL AT COST All regular 75c reprint Fiction, 50c. THE MERRIVOLD SHOP 134 West Main St.

Weeks & McGowan Co. UNDERTAKERS Day Phone 2274 Night Phones, F. W. Weeks 2071. A. E. Orr, 3692. LADY ASSISTANT