SUES FOR HORSE AND IS SUCCESSFUL

Judge Taylor's court room was packed to its capacity Tuesday afternoon when a property replevin case was being heard. Mrs. Jas. Riggle had brought suit against E. C. Roberts to recover possession of a horse which she claimed to own.

The animal in question was supposed to have been shipped to Willows, Cal., several weeks ago in a carload of other horses, but the evidence showed that it, with its mate, had been unloaded at Ashland and put to work doing teaming between Medford and Ashland, and was later sold to Rogers. The judge decided that the horse belonged to Mrs. Riggle.
