

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Superintendent J. W. Pace of the county poor farm sends in the following vote of the inmates of the farm for presidential choice: Taft 3, Harmon 1, Champ Clark 4.

Peerless Baking Co., 135 W. Main street, corner Grape and Main, delivers fresh bread every morning to your home. 249*

Bread, pies, cakes, loaves, and ice creams at the Peerless Bakery. Prompt delivery. Both phones. 249*

The next social night for the Pythian Sisters will be on the evening of January 17, in Castle hall. The entertainment committee for that night is Mr. and Mrs. John Perl, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge, Mrs. W. H. Canon, Mrs. Lillian Ray, Mrs. Cleon Elfert Dodge, Frank Lindley and Ernest McKee. All members are invited to attend.

S. A. Nowell, ladies' tailor, 4th floor M. E. & H. Co. bldg.

J. W. Kirkpatrick and his mother, who are in Medford from Urbana, Ohio, are old-time acquaintances of J. P. Butler of this city. They are here expecting to locate.

W. G. Steel, who is general superintendent of the California end of the electric company, is here on business connected with the company.

Carkin & Taylor (John H. Carkin, Glenn O. Taylor), attorneys-at-law, over Jackson County Bank building, Medford.

F. G. Knighton of Eagle Point was in Medford on business Monday.

Mrs. Neia R. Maxwell of Edgewood, Cal., was in Medford Sunday and Monday on business. She returned home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hallcroft, of Delta, Colo., who have been in Medford visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Caldwell, returned Monday to their home.

Fresh milk at DeVoe's. 257

See R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man, over Jackson County bank.

Mrs. W. M. Colvig and her daughter, Mrs. R. G. Gale, left Monday night for a two weeks' visit to friends in Portland.

Emily T. Standeford, examiner for the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, piano, harmony, musical history, 428 West Fourth street. Telephone 7211. 266

H. L. Wilson was in Central Point Tuesday on business.

Phone your orders in to Eads Bros. Transfer Co. Office phones: Bell 3152; Home 350-K.

Weeks & McGowan Co.
UNDERTAKERS
Day Phone 2271
Night Phones, F. W. Weeks 2071.
A. E. Orr, 3092.
LADY ASSISTANT

Mrs. Anna Brocoda returned Monday to her home in Hornbrook, Cal., after a few days' stay in Medford.

Attorney H. A. Canaday of this city was in Phoenix Monday night. Mr. Canaday besides being a good attorney is no novice in a musical way. He has a splendid bass voice and thoroughly understands music. He has discovered that there are a number of good voices in Phoenix and he is working faithfully and well in training these voices for concert work and within a short time he hopes to have them so well trained that they can give a creditable public concert. Home made bread at De Voe's. 257*

Frank Sample and children, who have been visiting Medford friends since before the holidays, left last night for their home in Salem.

Mrs. A. E. Cunningham, of Everett, Wash., who has been in Medford since in August visiting her son, A. B. Cunningham, and family and her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Allenderfer, and family, returned to her home Monday. She was accompanied as far as Grants Pass by Mrs. A. B. Cunningham.

Sam Summerlin has opened a lunch counter in the Office cafe, where he serves daily clam chowder, Mexican chili con carne, hot roasts, salads and various other good things to eat. 251*

Miss May Turner returned Monday night from a business and pleasure visit of a week or more to San Francisco.

Mrs. R. W. Thompson returned Monday night from a visit to friends in Los Angeles.

Dr. J. E. Shearer, physician, Office 419-420 Garnett-Corey building.

Mrs. A. L. Loomis left Monday night for a couple of weeks' visit with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Wm. Hanley of Burns, Ore., is in Medford visiting her mother, Mrs. Cameron, and her sisters, Mrs. Lee Jacobs and Miss Bernice Cameron.

Dr. J. E. Shearer, physician, Office 419-420 Garnett-Corey building.

Attorney Porter J. Neff and C. B. Gay were in Central Point Tuesday on business.

James Campbell was in Woodville Tuesday attending a meeting of the officers and directors of the State bank of Woodville.

Call at the Office cafe for a hot or cold lunch to take home. 251*

J. A. McIntosh, the architect, left Medford Tuesday morning for Glendale and Roseburg, in which places he has work in his line to look after.

J. C. Pendleton of Table Rock was in the city Monday on business.

If you like good Mexican chili, call on Sam Summerlin at the Office cafe. 251*

Louis Brown, of the Talent Mercantile company, was in Medford Monday night attending the merchants' banquet.

S. B. Graham, room 3 over post-office, has art calendars to give away.

J. B. Platt, day clerk at the Hotel Moore, who has been laid up for several days with blood poisoning, is able to be about again. A slight abrasion of the skin on the knuckle joint of one of his fingers was the cause of many painful moments. His arm was badly swollen and inflamed from wrist to shoulder, and all from the smallest imaginable skin break.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKennitt and daughter, Miss Myrtle, and son, Clifford, of Duluth, Minn., left on train No. 20 Tuesday morning after a few days' stay in Medford.

Mrs. Isabelle S. Paul of Chicago, one of the foremost experts in beauty culture, arrived in Medford this morning. She will speak at St. Marks' hall this evening to the ladies of Medford. There is no admission fee.

Mesdames Miksche, McAndrews and Murphy will give a tea Wednesday afternoon to members of the Altar society of the Catholic church.

W. Gerig, manager of the Pacific & Eastern, returned from Portland Tuesday morning. He tells that that city is in pitiful condition as a result of the recent storm. There are from four to eight inches of snow and slush everywhere and business is practically at a standstill.

On Friday evening the members of the Altar society of the Catholic church will give a card social in Parish hall.

H. J. Tickner was in Ashland Tuesday on business.

Dr. J. F. Reddy returned Monday night from a month's visit to San Francisco and Los Angeles. He says he has just been looting, but those who know him best know he is incapable of doing that. A conclusion which might be drawn would be that he has been doing missionary work in the interest of a railroad into the Blue Ledge mining district. In discussing this subject the doctor becomes very enthusiastic and can prove beyond any seeming reason for doubt that the copper ore alone of that district will furnish ample tonnage to make the construction and maintenance of a railroad a profitable investment for time without end.

Judge F. M. Stewart, of Eagle Point, was in Medford Tuesday on business.

C. F. Reickstein left on No. 20 Tuesday morning for Wolf Creek and other points down the line. Mr. Reickstein is in the wood business in Medford and since early last fall he has received and sold 102 carloads of fire wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mitchell of Ashland were in Medford Tuesday on business.

D. D. Robbins and Fred Stewart, of Rapid City, S. D., are in Medford looking the city over with a view to locating.

W. Williams left Tuesday morning on No. 30 for a couple of weeks' stay in Eugene.

J. E. and Dee Roberts were in Tolo Tuesday on business.

Mrs. R. H. Norton of Grants Pass, who has been in Medford since before the holidays, visiting her daughters, Mrs. W. E. Boyd and Mrs. A. L. Vroman, returned to her home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sullivan, of Chicago, and Mrs. Smith, of Saginaw, Mich., left Tuesday for Los Angeles, after a short stay in Medford looking over the city.

J. P. Tiklob left Tuesday morning for Sacramento.

E. B. Waterman and family left Tuesday morning for Chico, Cal., near which place Mr. Waterman recently purchased an alfalfa ranch.

Mrs. M. W. Wagner returned to Medford Tuesday morning from a visit to relatives in Cody, Wyo. Mrs. K. K. Kubli, of Portland, arrived in Medford Tuesday morning and will visit relatives and friends in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Mary Field, of Omaha, Neb., is in Medford looking the city over with a view to locating.

The general committee of the Men's Religion Forward movement will meet in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal church, on North Bartlett street, tonight, Tuesday, at 8 o'clock.

There are still some of those new cluster street lights which do not burn at night. The park lights are also still out of commission.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box. 25c.

On the day that your store is the best advertised store in town—life ought to have a very rosy look to you!

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
FOR SALE—Cottage, close in, cheap, easy terms. Inquire Stuart Knipp at Medford Business college. 255

Sale of La Grecque Muslin Underwear
Combined With Our January Clearance Sale

This is our first showing and sale of the famous Le Grecque Muslin Underwear. We will not harp on price but on perfect fit, beautiful materials and laces and perfect workmanship. Women that are critical about their undergarments should see this line. The showing embraces Corset Covers, Gowns, Drawers, Combination Corset Cover and Skirt, Princess Slips, and Combination Corset Cover and Drawers

La Grecque Tailored Underwear

To introduce this well known line of La Grecque Tailored Undermuslins here we have marked the whole line at about 25 per cent less than usual selling price.

85c Corset Covers	69c	$2.25 Gowns	$1.79
$1.50 Corset Covers	$1.19	$3.00 Gowns	$2.35
$1.75 Corset Covers	$1.45	$3.25 Gowns	$2.65
		$3.75 Gowns	$2.95

Princess Slips at $3.74, $3.95, $4.69, $4.95, $5.35, $5.89, $6.95, $8.95.
Combination Corset Covers and Drawers, $1.69, $2.45, $2.95, $3.45, $3.95, $4.95.

SACRIFICE SALE

DIAMONDS at COST	WATCHES at COST	RINGS at COST	UMBRELLAS at COST
CUT GLASS at COST	TOILET SETS at COST	Sterling Novelties at COST	WATCH CHAINS at COST

In fact everything in my complete line—Diamonds, Watches and Jewellery at Manufacturers Prices. The sale may last a week, it may last longer. Remember, our store consists of nothing but the highest class merchandise. WE DO WHAT WE ADVERTISE

J. W. DIAMOND

JEWELER