McBRIDE SELLS STORE TO AN EASTERN MAN

I. F. Straubinger, a recent arrival in Medford from Toledo, Ohio, has purchased the McBride candy store and ice cream parlors. Mr. Straubinger is a gentleman of experience in this business and he is promising to maintain the previous good reputation which Mr. McBride has made for the place and, if possible, improve upon it. He will retain all the former employes of the place and will also retain the name, "McBride's"

AT THE THEATERS.

"The Virginian."

One of the characters in "The Virginian," the depiction of which is done in Owen Wister's clever vein, is not a human being, but is as interesting as any man or woman in the book. It is a hen—not a common hen, but one that is so firmly imbued with the importance of her mission on this earth that she spends her time in perpetual setting on any article which can be by the wildest stretch of fancy he thought to resemble an egg. She sits on a piece of rock, on potatoes, or doorknobs, on lumps of chalk, or glass eggs and on cobblestones. She is a hen of high purpose, and everyone who has read Owen Wister's novel knows that she is a real, live personage in whom their interest is always strong. "Emily" (for that is her name) is to figure prominently in the dramatization of "The Virginian," which the La Shelle company is to offer at the Medford theater January 11. Readers of the book would doubtless scold at futile any dramatization in which she was not a factor.

"Sis Hopkins."

An engagement which will prove of exceptional interest to theatergoers of Medford is that of Miss Rose Melville in "Sis Hopkins," that delightful play of country life which has been before the public for the past 12 years. The announcement that Miss Melville will be seen again as the Posey county girl comes as a surprise, for it was announced last season that at the end of the tour she would retire permanently from the stage. The fact that Miss Melville and her manager, Mr. J. R. Stirling, could not find an actress who possessed those artistic gifts which are so necessary for the presentation of such a character as "Sis Hopkins" made it imperative that Miss Melville make another tour. This will be her last appearance in any character on the stage. Medford theater, January 10.

Ask Your Neighbor

Hundreds of Medford Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Medford people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Medford reader, of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far away places. Read the following:

C. C. Krebs, 33 North Grove St., Medford, Oregon, says: "From personal experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, I feel justified in recommending them. I suffered from a dull ache in the small of my back for months. The kidney secretions were also unnatural and at times a retention existed. Upon learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I obtained a supply and began their use. The contents of two or three boxes entirely rid me of the trouble and improved my health. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon to give relief if taken as directed."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

RUSSIA TO AID NEW REPUBLIC

Active Intervention in Behalf of Chinese Rebels Forecast in Cables—Want Mongolia to Become Independent as Price of Support.

LONDON, Jan. 10.—Active intervention by Russia in behalf of the proclaimed republic of China is forecasted in Tien Tsin cables received here today, which, it is semi-officially admitted, are causing the foreign office no little uneasiness.

The Tien Tsin dispatches declare that rebel chiefs there have announced that Russia will actively assist the rebels, provided the new government agrees that Mongolia shall become independent. This move, with the czar as practical suzerain of Mongolia, would alarmingly enlarge the sphere of Russian influence in the Orient. It is believed that the British government is today in communication with Tokio to get a Japanese expression as to whether Russia's alleged plan shall be allowed to go through.

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed to Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardul.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well. One day, I decided to try some Cardul. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life."

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardul will do for sick women. A few doses of Cardul at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness. It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardul. Suppose you try it. It may be just the medicine you need.
