LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 11.—State Senator Leslie Hewitt, Henry S. Cahn, Rev. Reynolds Blight of the Los Angeles Fellowship and the Rev. Baker P. Lee of Christ Episcopal church, having been instrumental in causing Governor Johnson to relieve several murderers condemned to death, launched today a movement here to invoke a referendum on the question of abolishing capital punishment in California. The Rev. Blight declared that hanging was a relic of barbarism and that the voters of the state would cleanse California of the blot if given an opportunity.

JEFF DAVIS MAKES BITTER ATTACK ON KINGS OF FINANCE

Manager Edwards Advised That Colored Boy Wants to Come Here and Train for Go With Johnson—May Entertain Merchants With Bouts.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—Ited hot denunciation of gamblers in cotton, wheat and corn was voiced today in the senate by Jeff Davis, senator from Arkansas. He said in part: "I want to see the gamblers of New York driven out of the stock exchange with the cat-o-nine-tails of the law. Just as Christ drove the money changers from the temple, the growing sentiment is that the government has ceased to fulfill the wishes of the fathers and has become a tool of oppressors, an agent of the money kings and money grabbers. The cost of living is so high that gaunt hunger and poverty stalk hand in hand in the very shadow of the capitol, and the bread line reached almost to the door of the senate chamber. But what care the tariff barons?"

Senator Davis named 51 millionaires, declaring that they, with 4000 other millionaires own 80 per cent of the wealth of the nation, which he estimated to be a trifle more than $100,000,000,000. John D. Rockefeller, with $600,000,000, he placed at the head of the list; Andrew Carnegie, with $300,000,000, and W. W. Astor, with the same amount, being next; then J. P. Morgan and his $150,000,000, and William Rockefeller and William K. Vanderbilt, $100,000,000 each, were next in line. "Can it be contended?" Davis asked, "that Rockefeller made his $600,000,000 honestly or that any of the others made their millions honestly? I say no!"

WICHITA, Kan.—Wilfred and Vivian Wilson, twin brothers, were married to Martha and Mary Shafer, twin sisters. At the wedding hour, two boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilson, parents of the bridegrooms.

CHICAGO.—A chorus girl was the only woman in Chicago slender enough to exhibit gowns at the ladies' tailors' show. All regular Chicago models, the modistes say, were too plump for the stovepipe costume in vogue.

ST. LOUIS.—The National Association of Master Plumbers adopted a resolution declaring the plumbing trade as honest as the ministry. There was not a dissenting vote.

VENICE, Cal.—While two policemen danced with rage, Virgil Tantlinger killed three ducks with a boom-erang without violating an ordinance regarding "shooting ducks within the city limits."

SAN FRANCISCO.—"Want to earn half a dollar?" a stranger asked John Franklin, who did. "Carry that sack of sugar down the street for me." Pursuing grocery clerks had him arrested. Stranger missing.

NEW YORK.—Suffragettes here wanted to know whether the "bunny hug" and its terpsichorean brethren were fit dances for the upper ten. Mrs. Marie Townsend danced 'em as they are. The lads' done.

WASHINGTON.—Leap year's a great institution. It should be declared year. Girls are too slow, declares Mrs. Christian Boney Hemmick. Just married to a 26-year-old clubman. The "blushing bride" is 60.

NEW YORK.—Her husband looking on, Mrs. George F. Wetmore, society woman, had a rough and tumble fight with Rev. G. H. Butler in the vestibule of St. Mary's Episcopal church, Yonkers. "She can take care of herself," said Wetmore. And she did.

TO BRING POOR PEOPLE TO LOS ANGELES COLONY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 11.—From bleak St. Helena Island, Alfred Mosley, commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George and a wealthy English philanthropist, who is here today, will bring to a selected Arcadia in California an entire colony of poverty stricken people. He is today seeking a proper site for establishment of the colony. There are 3000 inhabitants on the island. Immigration officials here have already been consulted.

WILLIAMS MAY BE SEEN HERE YET

Manager Edwards Advised That Colored Boy Wants to Come Here and Train for Go With Johnson—May Entertain Merchants With Bouts.

Manager Frankie Edwards received word Thursday to the effect that Rufus Williams' injury was not as bad as was at first supposed and that he will be in first class condition to go the limit with Jack Johnson within a short time. Williams has agreed to come to Medford at once and start active training in order to prove that his condition is good.

Edwards, at the request of several of the leading merchants of the city is trying to arrange the match to take place during the convention of the Merchants' association, which will be held in Medford January 17, 18 and 19. Johnson is doing light road work and keeping in condition in order to be on edge for a severe go. Medford business men are doing all they can to furnish varied entertainment for the visitors to the convention and this bout will be a feature, if arranged. In addition to the Williams-Johnson go, there will be a few good preliminaries, one of which will be between Jimmy Schmidt and Eddie Williams, who are eager for another chance at each other and if their work Tuesday night is any criterion of their coming go, it will be a hummer. Manager Edwards will know for a certainty tomorrow whether he will stage the Williams-Johnson go and will make the announcement as soon as possible.

WOMAN DIES RATHER THAN BE UNFAITHFUL

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Because of her determination to be true to her friend, whose husband, Sylvester Adams, pursued her with his attentions, Edith Smith, a teacher at Wheaton, Ill., is the victim of a double tragedy today. She died rather than submit to Adams' proposals.

Adams went to the Wheaton school, waited until Miss Smith's pupils were gone, and then demanded that she elope with him. She refused. Adams fired a bullet through her temple, killing her. Then he committed suicide. A note was found in Adams' pocket, written by Miss Smith, begging him, for the sake of his wife—her girlhood friend—to be a man.

TWO INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED AGAINST CLERK

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11.—Two indictments against Temple W. Alexander, the O-W & R. N. clerk, charging forgery, were returned by the grand jury this afternoon to the circuit court. Arrest warrants were issued for his arrest. One indictment charges he received $988, and the other charges he obtained $604 upon forged vouchers. Alexander was employed as a clerk in the purchasing department.

SEATTLE MAY SECURE MUNICIPAL BANK

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—Seattle may soon be the only city in the west to possess a municipal bank. The council has passed a resolution authorizing Mayor Dilling to appoint a commission to investigate the establishment of such a bank.

Ship Is Total Loss.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—United States patrol launch Gard is lying on the jagged rocks off Charles Island, near here, today a total loss. While backing a strong tide in a narrow channel the government vessel was carried upon the rocks head-on. The incoming tide has filled her completely and Captain J. N. Woolford has abandoned all hope of getting her off the rocks. The crew of 10 men took to small boats and reached shore safely.

Trips on Hose; Will Die.

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 11.—While the fire department was running a hose into a burning building here last night, an unknown man tripped and fell over the hose, striking the back of his head on the pavement. He sustained a concussion of the brain and may die.

Shoots His Sweetheart.

ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Jan. 11.—Shooting his 16-year-old school girl sweetheart, Hazel Cooper, daughter of a wealthy sheep owner, Edward Clark, 19, then turned the gun upon himself and is in a hospital here today with a bullet in his lung. The girl was shot through the heart and died instantly. Clark accused her of showing partiality to other boys. The tragedy occurred in the home of Miss Cooper's sister, where Clark lived.

19 WHITESLAVERS ARE CONVICTED

After Secret Trial Lasting Two Weeks French Government Succeeds in Breaking Up Powerful Ring—Young Girls Were Victims.

PARIS, Jan. 11.—Nineteen prominent Parisians implicated in a wholesale "white slave" trade in which children of 10 years and upward were the victims were convicted today after a secret trial which lasted more than a fortnight, and in which the evidence was so revolting that the judge who ordered secret hearings declared it "would have corrupted Solomon or Gomorrah." Prominent among the prisoners is Victor Flachon, who was a friend of former Premier Briand and who was powerful politically. He has been sentenced to one year in prison. Flachon's mistress, who led in awful orgies with the children at Flachon's chateaux and villas, was sentenced to two years.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

Mr. Estell of Woodville was here Wednesday afternoon looking up some stolen clothing, but failed to find any stolen to it.

Noah Smith made a business trip to Grants Pass Wednesday.

Mrs. Lizzie Beall, who has resided at Ashland for the past three years, has returned to Central Point.

The Epworth league of the M. E. church held a social at the home of W. E. Kahler, Tuesday evening. Although the evening was disagreeable, quite a number were there and they all report having spent a delightful evening.

The chorus work under the direction of Rev. Aldrich is making great progress and the citizens of Central Point are anxiously awaiting a musical treat.

J. W. Neal of Wenatchee, Wash., is visiting at the home of E. T. Neal at Seven Oaks.

Mr. Alverson of Grants Pass visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker the first of the week.

TABLE ROCK ITEMS.

Everything is rather quiet at Table Rock at present.

Prof. G. W. Milam of the Ashland schools was looking over his property in Sams Valley one day last week.

Mrs. J. H. Lydard has returned from California.

Mrs. R. C. Washburn will visit Honolulu before returning home.

Eleven men and boys, and eleven dogs, went on the war path over in Sams valley last Sunday and captured two coyotes. They are going after coyotes out on the desert soon. They anticipate some rare sport as they will have fair sailing.

A few days ago Mr. and Mrs. Davy of Modoc went away from home leaving four small children, the oldest 10 or 12 years of age. In the absence of their parents the children discovered that their house was on fire. After removing the younger children to a place of safety the two oldest succeeded in extinguishing the fire. A hole was burned in the ceiling and one bed was entirely destroyed.

Your correspondent heard a few days ago that a valuable diamond had been picked up out on the desert, so he decided to investigate the report by calling on the finder. The report was true. The estimated value of the diamond was $700.

There are two things that everybody at Table Rock wants: a public market in Medford, and Bob La Pollette for president. If there is a Taft man at Table Rock he cannot be found.

NAT GOODWIN PUT SELF IN "HOCK" FOR EDNA

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 11.—Nat Goodwin has put himself in hock to pay off Edna Goodrich, his fourth—and, he says, his last—wife. Matrimonial Nat has today on file in the county recorder's office a mortgage on his San Francisco property, which includes an apartment house, on which he borrowed $28,000. Mayor T. H. Dudley of Santa Monica negotiated the loan. Miss Goodrich gets $55,000, $15,000 of which was paid last month, $30,000 to be paid this month and the balance before April 16.

UNCLE SAM IS TO FIGHT IN 1915, SAYS MATTHEWS

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—War for the United States in 1915. President Brander Matthews of Columbia university today makes this prediction, despite the fact that Uncle Sam is holding "peace dinners" and passing the "pipe of peace" around the world. "Our nation is likely to act the part of bully," Matthews declared. "Our big and fast increasing population and wealth will cause this."

WOUND IN TONGUE CAUSE OF DEATH

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 11.—Louis Gagner, 4 years old, after bleeding 12 days from a wound in his tongue caused when he pulled it from a piece of cold iron, is dead. The child was what is known to physicians as a hemophilic, his blood lacking the property of clotting when exposed to the air.

$500 REWARD.

The undersigned will pay a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who attempted to burn the West Side Livery Stable, on December 27th, 1911, by setting fire to the same. 354* L. C. CHARLEY, Owner.

REAMES KNOWS WHY HE'S BROKE

Eminent Attorney of City Says His Share is Locked Up in That Ice-bound Vault in New York—May Turn Socialist.

"At last I know why I'm broke," stated A. E. Reames, eminent lawyer and clubman, over his luncheon at the University club today. "Those Wall street buccanneries have it all locked up in those icebound vaults of the Equitable Life building in New York City. I see $2,000,000,000 is located there, and now I know where my share is. "Ereupon Mr. Reames ordered two kinds of pie.

Values that are uncommonly offered in this city's stores should be uncommonly well advertised.
