

TO ERECT MANY NEW BUNGALOWS

H. E. Gates Plans to Build House on Each One of His Thirteen Lots—Will Make Rose Avenue a Show Place.

H. E. Gates, who recently purchased a number of lots on Rose avenue, between Main and Fourth streets, has a new bungalow on one of the lots nearly completed. This is a six-room building with sleeping porch and is modern in every particular. Mr. Gates owns 13 lots on Rose avenue and upon each of these he will erect a bungalow during the coming spring and summer. All of these bungalows will be neat and pretty to look upon and the grounds surrounding each house will be graded and seeded to lawn and suitable shrubbery. It is Mr. Gates' intention to make of Rose avenue a "show place" for the city, such as is now North Orange street. He will start his second bungalow about the first of February.

SEATTLE MAN BUYS INTEREST IN 1500 ACRES

C. J. Johnson of Seattle, who was in Medford a week ago, has purchased a quarter interest in 1500 acres of land near Medford, owned by John Arnell of this city, and his associates in Seattle.

The land is situated east of Roxy Ann and six or eight miles east of Medford. The purchase price of $25,000, which Mr. Johnson paid for a quarter interest, includes a couple of pieces of land near Talent.

A new company has been incorporated and the name given is the "Rogue River Valley Orchard Tracts." The officers of the new company will be C. J. Johnson, president; P. O. Cotton, secretary and treasurer, while the directors are C. J. Johnson, P. O. Cotton, P. J. Anderson, John Arnell and Hugo Slettengeen.

The company expects to improve the property they now own and will also buy other land in the valley.

SPECIAL MUSIC SUNDAY AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The special musical numbers to be rendered by the choir of the Baptist church tomorrow will include Dudley Buck's anthem, "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace," "No Shadows Yonder" from Gaul's Holy City, the quartette "I'm a Pilgrim" by Marston, and the soprano solo "O, Dry Those Tears" will be sung by Miss Grace Bratney. Great congregational singing in this church. To restore music to its proper and important place in true worship is the desire of the Baptist congregation.
