

SCHOOL PLAY GREAT SUCCESS

Fully 500 Local People View Presentation of "The White Man's God" at Auditorium of the Local High School.

"The White Man's God," a play written and staged by L. S. Beveridge, a teacher in the Washington grammar school, was presented Monday evening in the high school auditorium before an audience of fully 500, and there were few, if any, who were not delighted with the evening's entertainment.

The play is a light one, but, considering the fact that it was put on by the pupils of a grammar school, it was creditably handled. In fact the work of some of the boys and girls would excel that of some of the professionals who are making the stage their business. The singing at intervals during the entertainment was also handled by the pupils of the Washington school and in this no little talent was displayed.

Mr. Beveridge, the author, is surely entitled to a great amount of credit, not only as author of the play but in staging it so acceptably. All of the pupils who had a part in the play did themselves proud, and in the motive which prompted the production of the play there is truly a spirit of sympathy which in the heart of any young persons it is good to cherish. The proceeds from the play are to be used in purchasing needed school books for those of the pupils not financially able to procure them.

REVIVAL SERVICES FULL OF INTEREST

Revival services at the Free Methodist church, corner Tenth and Ivy streets, began Sunday with good attendance and a deep interest was manifest from the first. They are conducted by Rev. S. R. Wheatlake of Urbana, Ill. He is a general evangelist laboring under the direction of the general conference of the Free Methodist church.

The attendance last night was large and very attentive. Conviction of Divine truth was on the people. The text, John 20:18, "Mary Magdalen came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord." The text was clearly analyzed and the importance of a personal interview with Jesus was pressed home on the minds of the attentive hearers. One seeker came to the altar and prayed for mercy, afterward testifying with joy that he felt that God had heard his prayer.

These meetings will continue two or three weeks, that all may hear these clear expositions of God's word and plan of salvation.

NEW OFFICIALS TO TAKE OFFICE TONIGHT

The newly elected city officials—Recorder Telfer, Treasurer Samuels, and Councilmen Summerville, Mitchell and Ireland—will assume their new duties this evening at a regular session of the city council. The most important matter during the evening will be the naming of new committees by the mayor.

POLICE CLOSE ON PASTOR'S TRAIL

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 16.—The arrest of the Rev. W. C. McFarland, aged 60, pastor of the United Brethren mission at Greenville, Tenn., and wanted here on charges of performing two criminal operations on Miss Elsie Coe, who has since died, is momentarily expected. The district attorney's office here received word today that the minister is in Cedar Creek, Tenn., and instructions for his arrest were wired there.

Miss Coe, who was McFarland's private secretary, died here January 5, following two illegal operations which she said were performed by the minister.

Cold Wave Passing.

BERT ANDERSON TAKES A BRIDE

Prominent Business Man of This City Weds Mrs. Eva Josephine Evans of Oakland, Cal.—Wedding Is a Quiet One.

Bert Anderson, of this city, was married in Portland Sunday, January 14, to Mrs. Eva Josephine Evans, of Oakland, Cal. The wedding took place in the First Methodist church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Benjamin Young. The Medford people present were Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Smith. Mr. Anderson is president of the Big Pines Lumber company of this city and has been identified with several other business enterprises here.

Mrs. Anderson is formerly from Vermont, having resided in Oakland but two years. In both her former home and in Oakland she has been prominent in all social affairs of the cities in which she resided.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will remain a few days in Portland, after which they will return to Medford and will reside in Mr. Anderson's handsome home on West Main street.

EVEN FLORIDA HAS FREEZING WEATHER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 16.—The entire eastern part of the country is in the clutch of a severe cold spell today, even Jacksonville, Fla., reporting freezing weather.

The coldest point in the country was Souf Ste. Marie, where 16 degrees below was registered. Key West, Fla., 60 above, was the warmest spot on the Atlantic coast.

HAVE NO TIME TO TALK OF PIPE DREAMS—TED

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—"There are depths of tomfoolery to which I cannot go. I certainly have no time to discuss a pipe dream of this character."

This was Colonel Roosevelt's only comment today when asked as to the truth of a story that the steel trust was backing him in an effort to secure the republican nomination for president. Beyond those few remarks the colonel refused to go.

Eight Killed by Explosion.

DEISBURG, Germany, Jan. 16.—Eight iron workers met instant death and 13 were seriously injured today by the bursting of a blast furnace near here. A great molten mass flowed out of the molds when the furnace burst, and it is feared that other victims are imbedded in the metal.

BAPTISTS TAKE RADICAL STEPS

Makes Baptism Optional and Virtually Opens the Doors of the Church to All Classes and Creeds of Belief.

LOS GATOS, Cal., Jan. 16.—Baptists here have adopted a "progressive resolution" making baptism optional and virtually opening the doors of the church to all classes and creeds.

About a year ago an attempt was made to read the pastor, Rev. Robert Whitaker, out of the church for his proclaimed aversion to religious dogma and his iconoclasm. Today's resolution is regarded as a victory for the radical pastor.
