

TAKES SEVEN MEN TO SUBDUE THIEF

Armed With Long Yen Shi Needle Harry Johnson Stabs Four in an Effort to Escape From Jail at Portland.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 16.—Armed with a long yen shi needle, a steel implement used by opium smokers, Harry Johnson, alias Frank Hedern, a ragsman, well known to the police on the Pacific coast, stabbed Captain of Detectives Batty, Detectives Malone and Royal and a prisoner named Frank Parker this forenoon while attempting to escape from the city jail. It took seven men to subdue Johnson.

Batty was stabbed in the chest. The steel penetrated two inches, narrowly missing the heart. Parker was seriously wounded in the abdomen and Malone and Royal were each stabbed in the hand.

Johnson attempted to make a break when the prisoners arrested overnight were being lined up shortly after 9 o'clock for police inspection.

He stabbed Parker, who tried to stop him when he ran for the open door, and attacked Malone, who was standing guard. The others were stabbed while trying to handcuff the prisoner.

Johnson is doing a 90 day term for robbery. He is wanted at Salem also for some silk robbery.

FOSTER MOTHER OFF FOR DAUGHTER

Heiress Who Left Home to Be Near Her Sweetheart Will Be Returned to Chicago in the Near Future in Custody of Foster-Mother.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 16.—Mrs. Herman Buehler, foster mother of the 16-year-old heiress who was located in New York yesterday and found to have left her home here because of an infatuation for a waiter, started today for New York to bring Violet back to her home here. The Illinois Humane society began today an investigation into the case.

Mrs. William Holzappel, Violet's mother, deserted by her husband 13 years ago, turned the child over to Mrs. Buehler, who took her without legal adoption. Since then Mrs. Holzappel has been uninterested in her child and is still apathetic regarding Violet's welfare, indicating apparently little interest in the case. The foster mother, however, is overjoyed at the girl's recovery.

"I want Violet back," she said before leaving for New York. "I have done everything a mother could for her, being careful of her surroundings, perhaps too careful, and giving her the best of everything. I tried to make her happy, and I believe she will be glad to return."

SURVEYORS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Jan. 16.—Suffering from the rigors incident to three hours' imprisonment beneath tons of snow hurled upon them by an avalanche near Mount San Bernardino, James Adler, Percy Hayward and George Sumner, government surveyors, were brought here today by Harold Cummings, a member of their party, who effected their release.

The men were caught in the blind end of a small canyon by the slide, the sloping wall of the orifice forming a natural bridge that kept the full volume of snow from engulfing them. Cummings, who was working on the rim of the canyon, tunneled beneath the mass and guided them to safety, carrying the body of Adler, who was unconscious. Adler will recover.

"THE SCARLET THREAD" IS PASTOR'S THEME

The subject for Rev. Eldridge's discussion at the Monday evening services at the M. E. church was taken from the second chapter of the book of Joshua. Subject, "The Scarlet Thread." When the children of Israel besieged Jericho, Rahab hung a scarlet thread from the window and the two soldiers whom she had helped when they were hunted for their lives saw the thread and she and her house were saved.

The scarlet thread runs all through the Bible, beginning in Genesis, where it says, "The seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head." In Christ all have it completed, for his blood was shed for us.

Rahab had been a woman of unsavory character, and often the people who are deep in sin and know it are the first to accept the scarlet blood of Christ; they feel their need and are ready to make the effort for something better and thereby accept the atonement made for them. Rahab believed in the God of Israel, and that in him was salvation and nowhere else. The scarlet thread was the sign agreed upon between her and God's soldiers and she hung the thread in the window where everyone could see it. Jesus wants us to come out openly before the world and confess him, and he will give us a blessing and make our lives helpful to others.

The subject for tonight will be "Eve and the Devil." Mr. Chidester, the choir leader, is furnishing, with the help of his choir members, some excellent music for these meetings. An invitation is extended to all to attend.

SOCIALIST-UNION PARTY IS FAVORED

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 16.—Three cheers for Job Harriman, Alexander Irvine and political solidarity of the trade union movement with the socialist party were given by the delegates to the state building trades convention here today at the call of the general president, P. H. McCarthy of San Francisco.

The demonstration rivaled that of yesterday, when Secretary O. A. Trevino read his report urging some action through the state body. Harriman and Irvine, in powerful speeches, had called upon the workers to close their ranks on the political field and dismiss all leaders who stood in the way of class solidarity at the polls. President E. L. Reguin of the striking Harriman shopmen is here asking financial aid for the strikers.
