

SCULPTOR PUTNAM VISITING MEDFORD

Californian Who Was Twice Operated Upon for Brain Tumor Recovering in Almost Miraculous Manner.

Arthur Putnam, the San Francisco sculptor who was stricken with paralysis last October and twice operated upon for brain tumor, since which time until recently he has hovered between life and death, surprised his relatives by arriving in Medford Tuesday evening, accompanied by his nurse, for a month's visit with his mother, Mrs. M. M. Putnam. After having been virtually given up by physicians, Mr. Putnam has rallied in a manner little less than miraculous, and though still suffering from the paralysis of his left side, is able to move his leg so that hopes are entertained that he will, partially at least, recover the use of his limbs.

The sculptor is confident that in time he will be able to resume his work. Just before he was stricken, he had been appointed in charge of the statuary and sculpture of the Panama 1915 exposition and was about to leave for Europe as representative of the fair commission.

RECEPTION GIVEN EPISCOPAL RECTOR

On Tuesday evening of this week the members of St. Mark's Episcopal church of this city gave a reception to their new rector, Rev. James Sherrin, and family. Over a hundred members of the church gathered in the Guild hall and spent a very pleasant evening.

W. M. Colvig, president of the Medford Commercial club, gave the address of welcome. Mr. Colvig has a happy faculty of being able to entertain any assembly which may be so fortunate as to have him as its speaker and he was in no wise wanting upon this occasion. Mr. Colvig is an encyclopedia of historic events peculiar in themselves to this valley and a few of them interspersed in his talks make interesting listening and are always appreciated. His address Tuesday evening was such an one and it, intermingled with his outbursts of pleasantries, gave the assembly something to think of and to laugh at.

Vocal solos were rendered during the evening by Mr. Fish and Mr. George Andrews, also a piano solo by Miss Hutchinson and a reading by Miss Dwight.

Rev. Sherrin responded to Mr. Colvig's address of welcome in a manner very pleasing and capable and the members of that church organization cannot but congratulate themselves that they have so scholarly and gifted a gentleman for a rector.

A banquet was served after the program, during which, aside from

EAGLE POINT WANTS BIG GO

Live Wire of Valley Town Wire Office for the Johnson-Flynn Go—Say They Want to "Get on the Map."

In order to "get on the map" the town of Eagle Point, county of Jackson, state of Oregon, has wired a bid for the Johnson-Flynn fight to be staged this summer—that is, the town didn't do it officially, but a number of the live wires of the city slipped it over.

"As far as the city officials are concerned, let them stage it," says Will Von der Hellen, mayor, "but of course they will have to square it with the state."

GREAT INTEREST IS TAKEN IN REVIVAL

The interest in the meetings of the Methodist Episcopal church is increasing. Last evening Rev. Wood of Vermont, an evangelist of the Quaker faith, spoke. Brother Wood gave a very interesting talk, taking as a text the fourth chapter of I. Timothy and tenth verse.

"God is the Savior of all men, especially those who believe," he said, in part. "I believe this passage parallel to John 3-16. The gospel is for everybody. First because he loved the world, then he loved everybody. Let us take this thought: He loved the world, he loved me. Jesus tasted death for every man. How can we take Christmas gifts from our friends if we cannot accept the first great Christmas gift of the Christ? We say that God can see everything, but a small boy in Sunday school found one thing that God cannot see when he said that God cannot see our sins when they are under the blood.

"Salvation is for all men, and all men may be saved if they will accept the Christ. God wants us to enjoy salvation, and salvation is for all men, especially those that believe. The Scripture says that all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. If I accept the offering—Jesus Christ giving himself for me—then salvation is mine.

"I was a moral, upright boy. I did not do all that some boys did, but I came to the place where I knew I was lost and needed a Savior. I do not know how many of you are Christians tonight, but let me beg of you that you so consecrate yourselves to him that you will be in earnest for the salvation of others. Whosoever will may accept this blessed salvation and I invite you to come tonight."

The subject by Rev. E. O. Eldridge tonight will be the one advertised for last night, "Eve and the Devil." Come and hear it.

the refreshing viands, the most prominent feature was the prevalence of good fellowship.

COLORED BOXERS ARE KNOCKED OUT

Mayor Canon Says in Future Bouts Must Be Between Bona Fide Members of the Natatorium Athletic Club.

There will be no more boxing matches in Medford between colored "near-pugilists." This was definitely learned at Tuesday night's session of the city council when that body, acting upon a request from Frankie Edwards, referred the entire matter to the mayor. Mayor Canon stated that no colored fighters would be allowed to meet within the corporate limits of the city. He intimated, however, that contests between bona fide members of the Natatorium Athletic club would be permitted.

FRISCO CONTINUES TO LEAD CONTEST

San Francisco continued in its lead in the trapshooting tourney of the American association Tuesday when the shoot was held in this city, by scoring 189 points. Portland was second with 183 and Spokane third with 172. A number of local shooters attended the meet and broke a fair number of birds. The teams shoot today at Roseburg and Thursday at Eugene.

STREETS AND SIDEWALKS ARE TO BE KEPT CLEAR

Two of the newly elected councilmen on Tuesday evening declared their intention of seeing that the streets and sidewalks of the city were kept in better condition. Attention was called to boxes on sidewalks and bill boards. The matter will be attended to by the street committee. Stray dogs came in for their share of attention and stray canines are to be rounded up and killed. An ordinance provides for a dog license.

WILLIAMS MAY OPPOSE HAWLEY

Forest Grove Man is Visiting Medford—May Enter the Lists for Republican Nomination for Congress.

W. A. Williams of Forest Grove, Ore., who is a prospective candidate for republican nomination for congress against Congressman Willis C. Hawley, is spending a few days in Medford. He states:

"While I have not as yet made an official announcement of my candidacy, I have received so many requests to make the race that I am strongly tempted to do so, especially as all other candidates, including Rodgers of Salem, Mulkey of Medford and others, have agreed to support me.

"If I run, my platform will be in support of the Oregon system of direct primaries and the election of United States senators by the people."
