

ORIENTAL BALL MADE COPS GASP

Cleopatra and All of Solomon's Wives Would Have Blushed Had They Witnessed the Doings of Frisco's Smart Set.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 27.—Of 'la-la-la-la'! Also "For the love of Mike!" Cleopatra and Solomon's thousand poutaloned wives would have blushed clear through their veils had they seen what all San Francisco's smart set is trying to recuperate from today—Mrs. Templeton Crocker's Oriental ball at the St. Francis hotel.

It was the most spectacular and dashing terpsichorean extravaganza—a la risqué—seen outside of a shah of Persia's harem. It was staged in the ballroom of the fashionable hotel, which was transformed into an Alhambra garden of truly barbaric splendor.

And most of 'em wore transparent chiffons. The men were also gorgeously robed. Mrs. Crocker herself wore a

FLOOD DAMAGES AMENT FISHWAY

Chief Deputy Fish Warden Sandry Is Having Hard Time Keeping Ladder in Working Order During High Water Season.

Chief Deputy Fish Warden Sam L. Sandry is having a hard time keeping the temporary fish ladder in working order at the Ament dam, due to the high water in the river at present. Much driftwood is brought down stream which continually interferes with the ladder.

Sandry is keeping it close watch on the fishway. Manager Sanders, who is in charge of the dam, has agreed to construct a cement fishway early in the spring.

TAKE INTEREST IN MINING MEET

Josephine County Will Be Adequately Represented at the Congress of Mining Men to Be Held in This City Soon.

According to the Rogue River Courier, Grants Pass residents are taking a great deal of interest in the mining congress to be held in this city next Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3. The Courier urges a large attendance from Josephine county and a generous display of ores from the properties of the county and from Curry and other counties.

Attorney O. S. Blanchard, president of the mining bureau of the Commercial club, informed the Courier that the sack of rich free gold quartz now in charge of the court and stored in the vaults of the First National bank, would be on exhibit at the congress. Also, stated Mr. Blanchard, exhibits from the Oriole, Alameda, Jewett, Afterthought (Bailey's property) and other properties would be on hand. W. B. Sherman will also take a fine assortment of the ore from various properties now exhibition at his office.

heretofore appointed by an order of the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Jackson county, in a cause therein, and now pending, entitled Edgar Hafer, plaintiff, versus Medford & Crater Lake Railroad company, an Oregon corporation, A. A. Davis, B. F. Adkins, R. H. Whitehead, J. M. Keene and W. I. Vawter, defendants, has filed in said court his final report, showing that said receivership is ready for final settlement.

Notice is hereby given that heretofore, in said court and cause, an order was duly made and entered setting said final report for hearing, in open court, at Jacksonville, Oregon, on January 30, 1912, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., and requiring ten days' notice thereof to be given. And all persons interested in the said estate and in the matters contained in said final report, and in the distribution of the money belonging to said receivership, will please take notice that said time will come on for final hearing the matter of passing upon said final report, and of the receiver's fees, expenses and disbursements, and of the fees and disbursements of his attorney, and the matter of the general distribution of the funds, and that all persons having objections to said report are hereby required to file the same with the clerk of said court prior to said time.

Notice is hereby given that at said time and place, the court will determine the manner of distributing said fund, and to whom the same shall be paid.

Dated this 17th day of January, 1912. J. F. REDDY, As Receiver of the Medford & Crater Lake Railroad Company, an Oregon corporation, which receivership is pending in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County.
