By This Move Company Is Believed to Have Checkmated Efforts of European Rivals for Trade in the Orient.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Standard Oil company is declared to be the financial resource of the Chinese revolutionists, and high officials of the rebel party assert that when Dr. Sun Yat Sen's presidency is a fact he will sign over to the trust entire control of the oil resources of China.

By this move the Standard Oil company is believed to have checkmated efforts of its European rivals.

It is understood that agents of the Standard held a long conference with Dr. Sun Yat Sen before he left the United States for China and that he has all the funds necessary to complete the downfall of the Manchus.

NOW COULD THIS HAVE BEEN COLVIG'S FRIEND?

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 29.—Flirting with Private James Crawford, Sixth company, Coast artillery, a dashing girl bandit today lured him to her room, secured his own revolver, held him up with it and forced him to turn over all his valuables to her. Police are searching for her. The girl was aided in her work by two huldons, which prevented Crawford from attacking her.

PLAN FIGHT FOR WALSH ESTATE

Children of Banker Who Died Shortly After His Parole Will Probably Contest Will—Estate Is Left to Widow.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—There is a strong possibility today that the five children of John R. Walsh, the banker, who died shortly after his parole by President Taft from Leavenworth penitentiary, will contest his will.

When the will, which leaves the entire estate of $800,000 to the widow, was presented for probate before Commissioner J. W. Rainey, William T. Abbott, vice president of the Central Trust company and only surviving witness to the will, said that he believed Walsh was not of sound mind when the instrument was drawn. Abbott said that Walsh had a mania regarding his son, John W. Walsh, believing that he was not doing right.

Duke Home Again.

MONTREAL, Que., Jan. 29.—Welcomed by a crowd of thousands upon his return from his visit to Washington and New York, the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada, the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia, their daughter, arrived Saturday and after a brief stop continued on to Ottawa.

Our Correspondents

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett. Mrs. Grover Cook and her two children of Butte Falls spent the night with us last Tuesday.

W. E. Hammel, one of our progressive farmers of Reese creek, came out to enjoy the dance Tuesday night and was a guest at the Sunny Side.

Mr. Swihart, the Derby merchant, came out Monday, went to Medford and Tuesday afternoon came as far as Eagle Point and spent the night with us, taking the train the next day for home. He reports business lively in his section, considering the season of the year.

Mrs. Howlett started last Wednesday for Klamath Falls to visit our daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoyt. She expects to remain in Klamath Falls for about two weeks and on her return trip stop off and visit friends in California and Ashland, Ore.

The friends of Austin Green and wife are glad to greet them among us once more. Mr. Green has been confined to his bed, in and out of the hospital in Medford, for about six weeks and now he has gone on crutches as one of his legs is paralyzed so that he cannot walk without them. They were accompanied to the home of his grandfather, J. J. Fryer, by a sister of Mrs. Green, Miss Mabel Malby.

Mr. Ager, one of the county school superintendents, came out Thursday, procured a saddle horse at the Sunny Side stable and went on up to Brownsboro to visit the school there and the one just above known as the Lone Charley school. He don't seem to stop for rain, mud or shine.

Some time ago a move was started to secure the tract of land lying between the county road and the creek between Orving's store and the wagon bridge by the Ladies' Improvement club of Eagle Point, and word has been received by the secretary of the club that the tract of land will be donated to the town of Eagle Point by the owner, Mr. Hamilton, for a town park if the town will have it surveyed and deed made out, and also Mr. Hamilton proposes to let the Baptist church have the lot that one-half of the church stands on for $50, and the cash will soon be raised for the purpose.

EDEN PRECINCT ITEMS

Several parties are planning to raise tomatoes for the Talent cannery.

Fred Rapp of Talent is spending the winter in Los Angeles.

Emitt Beeson of Talent was in Medford last Wednesday on business.

F. E. Jacobs and wife and Mrs. Joshua Patterson of North Talent were trading in Medford last Friday.

Mrs. W. S. Stancliff was a guest at the pleasant home of Mrs. A. S. Furry last Friday.

Mrs. G. C. McClain of Phoenix left last week for Chico, Cal., where she will visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Harvey, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Huston returned to their home in Phoenix the last of the week, having been taking care of J. E. Roberts' place during their absence.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

B. R. Rolt left Friday morning for his home at Dixon, Cal. George L. Neal spent Friday in Ashland.

D. E. Jones of Butte Falls spent a few days here this week, returning home Saturday.

Mrs. T. J. O'Hara and Miss Viola Smith spent Friday in Grants Pass. W. E. Jones, D. E. Jones and Mr. Gleason, Sr., were Friday Phoenix visitors from here.

H. E. Trivoglio made a business trip north the latter part of the week. James Walker, of Fort Jones, Cal., was visiting the family of W. D. Lewis and other friends Friday en route home from the north.

Master Everett Faber very pleasantly entertained the members of his Sunday school class at his home Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth Beebe entertained the C. S. C. at her home east of Central Point on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Beebe, as on other occasions, was a charming hostess and all had a delightful time.

Mrs. Heffling and son spent the week end with Medford relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Myers and J. N. Smith spent Saturday in Grants Pass.

Our city recorder, J. W. Jacobs, made a business trip to Medford on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Herring, Miss Herring, Miss Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Grim, Mrs. D. C. Grim, Mrs. W. E. Price, Mrs. Stone, Miss Edith Stone, Miss Marshall, Miss Caldwell, Mrs. McNassar, Miss McNassar, Miss Ella Hay, J. F. Hay, Miss Huller, M. Marshall, W. T. Stidham, H. A. Latta, W. A. Cowley, Mr. Hamilton and E. D. Briscoe were among the Saturday visitors from here to Medford.

Merrill Kindle left Saturday morning for Fort Jones, Cal., where he will spend a few days visiting with friends.
