Medford, Ore., Nov. 7, 1911.—This is to certify that about November my daughter was taken with a severe attack of rheumatism which rendered her left arm useless, in fact it was so near paralyzed that she was not able to move her fingers, but knowing of some of Dr. Chow Young's marvelous cures of long standing cases of rheumatism, we decided to consult him, in which I am pleased to say made no mistake, as his remedies acted as he claimed they would and after the third treatment the rheumatic pain entirely left her and she has not had any symptoms of rheumatism since; besides her general health is much improved and I do not hesitate in saying I believe those afflicted with rheumatism or paralysis will do well to consult Dr. Chow Young, whose house is corner of Tenth and Front streets, Medford, Oregon. BEST SHOW THE ISIS HAS HAD FOR WEEKS

The Isis Theater is showing the best line of entertainment Manager Gordon has been able to secure for some time. The most fastidious searchers after theatrical pleasure will find no cause for regret at the Isis for every minute of the present bill is running over with merriment and skill. The feature act is that of Miss Elsie Munding in her beautiful musical illusion act. Her opening is a church scene with Miss Munding as organist playing and singing "The Song I Heard One Sunday Morning," seemingly for her own amusement. Miss Munding's next appearance in change of wardrobe is a scene at the entrance of the old church singing a number of classical selections. Her sweet voice and modest stage appearance bring forth great applause. Another high class act is that of Doranto, Chinese comedy musical act. Doranto plays sweet music on all kinds of Chinese musical instruments, his Chinese love songs are a hit with both old and young. Doranto in his impersonations keeps his audience in a roar for from 10 to 15 minutes, leaving them hallowing for more.

The Isis has managed to secure a four piece orchestra that is worth the admission alone, all being first class musicians.

MORRIS MAKES POOR SHOWING

Dan Malarkey Relentless in His Cross Examination of Former Cashier of Oregon Trust and Savings Bank.

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 30.—W. Cooper Morris, confessed embezzler and formerly cashier of the wrecked Oregon Savings and Trust bank, completed his direct testimony for the state in the Wilde trial this forenoon and cross examination which is proceeding this afternoon was begun shortly before noon adjournment.

While on the stand he evidently labored under severe nervous strain and as Dan Malarkey, chief counsel for the defense, mercilessly probed into the banker's past and shot questions to shame him, Morris cringed and made a poor show of bravado.

On direct examination Morris reviewed the sale of $500,000 of Omaha telephone bonds to the bank at par. The bonds were selling at 80, he said. Wilde and he divided $30,000 and sent $10,000 to Frank Stowe and F. F. Graves, of the Union Telephone Construction company, as their share of the profits in the Wilde agency.

"As Wilde was supposed to receive all the commission," said Morris, "we talked the matter over and finally he gave me $5000 in cash and purchased $40,000 worth of Tacoma telephone bonds for me which I later disposed of by selling some of them to the bank."

On cross examination Malarkey attempted to bring out points that would injure the credibility of the witness. He reviewed some of Morris' early financial operations in Washington state but had not succeeded in gaining any admissions of value when lunch recess was taken.

WARRANT OUT FOR ALLEGED ELOPERS

A. W. McPherson, living on a farm in the Griffin creek country, has caused a warrant of arrest to issue from Justice of the Peace Taylor's court charging that his wife, Lola M. McPherson, had left his home and was now in the company of A. B. Rice, the present whereabouts of either not at this time being known.

Mrs. McPherson left her home on January 24, accompanied by their two children, ostensibly to visit her uncle in Ashland. Rice, who had been employed by McPherson on the farm, left the farm Monday, coming to Medford, and on Wednesday left for Ashland on the motor. Mrs. McPherson left Medford a couple of hours later for the south, on No. 15.

Sunday following Mr. McPherson went to Ashland to see his wife and habes, and there for the first time learned that his wife had not been to her relatives' in Ashland at all. As Rice did not return to Medford it is more than probable that he met Mrs. McPherson in Ashland and that the two and the children are now together in California.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF MURDER OUT ON BONDS

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Released on $45,000 bonds Mrs. Rene Morrow, charged with the murder of her aged inventor-husband, today declared that this unusual procedure of the court was the first victory for the defense. After directing acceptance of the bail Judge Cooper descended from the bench and shook hands with the defendant.

"The fact that I have been permitted release on bail, under a charge of murder, is unusual, and it is the first victory for me. I have nothing to fear in a trial. Judge Cooper realized how flimsy is the nature of the charges against me when he announced that I would be admitted to bail. I am certain the whole matter will collapse before the case reaches trial."

CAR IS PUT OVER DIFFICULT ROAD

J. W. Keys, With Five in the Car. Drives Chalmers Detroit "36" to Summit of Nob Hill, Making Way Up West Slope.

Loading his new Chalmers Detroit "36" with four passengers beside himself, J. W. Keys, agent for the car, on Monday afternoon braved the mud in East Medford and sent his car up the face of Nob Hill to a point just north of the residence of Dr. Clancy at the top of the hill. The car took the hill in a masterly manner, demonstrating the power of the new model.

While the hill was very soft owing to recent rains the power of the engine was great enough to contend with it and the ascent was easily made. The grade was estimated to range between 30 and 35 per cent. A large number of interested parties viewed the test of the car.

MILLIONAIRE MOORE IS LAID AT REST

SAN MATEO, Cal., Jan. 30.—The last chapter of the tragic biography of John J. Moore, millionaire coal dealer, shot and killed by Sam Timothy, a chauffeur whom he accused, of intimacy with his wife, was finished today when the remains were taken by automobile to Cypress Lawn cemetery. The body will be cremated tomorrow.

TABLE ROCK ITEMS.

Farmers are getting ready for their spring seeding. It is said that the land works better than in years before.

S. C. Collins lost a valuable cow a few days ago from eating poison hemlock, commonly called wild parsnip.

C. O. Diekey is going to try the poultry business as a side line. He has made substantial preparations, pens and corrals.

Oliver Penland of Eagle Point has leased the Finky ranch and will occupy it in a few days.

We ate muskmelons at Table Rock till after Christmas, and Tom Pankey of Sams Valley has ripe strawberries growing in the open air at the present time. Come again, Eagle Point.

There is a general feeling among the people of the north side of the river that the north side is entitled to a commissioner, and a movement is on foot to try and combine the whole north side in favor of a certain "citizen" whose record is said to be blameless.

SOCIALISTS CAN ALSO NAME DELEGATES

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 30.—That the socialist party is entitled to elect to the national convention the full number of delegates apportioned by the national commission, provided the number does not exceed ten, and that these delegates are entitled to traveling expenses from the state not exceeding $200 to each delegate, is the substance of an opinion handed down today by Attorney General Crawford.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles. Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint."

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Carter-Vesco Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

NEGRO HANGED BY FURIOUS MOB

Man Who Assailed White Girl Is Lynched Before Troops Called Upon by Sheriff Could Rescue Him.

CORDELE, Ga., Jan. 30.—Albert Hamilton, negro assailant of a white girl, was lynched to a tree by a mob here today before troops, called upon by the sheriff, could rescue him. The jail was stormed and Hamilton dragged into the street, where he was hanged.

FAMILY IS NOT IN WANT OF FOOD

Over the telephone Tuesday morning William Bennett, whose family, together with himself, is quarantined at his home on Benson street, denied the report that his family had been suffering for want of food owing to a rigid quarantine. He says it is true that he threatened to break quarantine in order to obtain drugs, but not to secure food. Dr. R. W. Stearns, city health officer, is treating the family, members of which are suffering from scarlet fever.

PORTLAND HAS $55,000 FIRE

PORTLAND, Jan. 30.—An early morning blaze in the basement of the five-story Merchants Savings and Trust company building today destroyed a music shop, a candy store and jewelry store, causing a loss estimated at $55,000, which is fully covered by insurance. Officers above the second floor in many cases were damaged by smoke and water.

The fire started in the basement of the music store. Its origin has not been ascertained.
