EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett. Mrs. M. L. Daily started for Portland last Thursday to visit her mother. She expects to be gone two weeks. Her sister, Miss Hattie Weiss, is helping in the Model variety store and the telephone office during her absence, and this morning Mr. Daily asked me to say to the readers of The Mail Tribune that he had an assortment of men's working gloves at the Model Variety store.—Adv.

Since I last wrote I have learned that Prof. P. Daily entertained his Bible class of 27 in Sunday school on Sunday evening, the 25th ult., at his home.

Heath & Diamond recently purchased the products of one-eighth of an acre of onions from Ralph Tucker of Brownsboro, amounting to the neat little sum of about $100, and they are some of the finest specimens of onions I have seen for a long time, but the general reader knows that the Butte creek country is noted for the production of onions.

D. S. Clark of Medford spent the night with us last Friday. He is a real estate dealer and still boasts Medford and Rogue river valley. He has great hopes for the future of the county.

Mrs. R. C. Lawton and her mother Mrs. V. Rowe, have returned from Oklahama, where Mrs. Lawton has been visiting her sister and grandmother and supervising the publication of a new book she has been putting out and will soon have in the market.

Steve Smith has returned from eastern Oregon and is now visiting his brothers here.

James Ringer has been doing some painting for Dr. W. W. P. Holt on outside buildings.

Von der Hellen Brothers have had a store room put up back of their store.

Mr. St. James of Medford was out last week putting the roof on a new house that Wm. Von der Hellen is building on Hamilton avenue.

H. A. Sprague, our lumber merchant, is having a new house put up for a family residence near Hamilton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Brown of the firm of George Brown & Sons took dinner at the Sunny Side Sunday. Also George W. Wamsley and daughter, Miss Mable, and Mr. Mike Sidley of Lost creek took dinner with us.

Miss Mae Lawrence of Gold Hill came in on the Pacific & Eastern on Sunday afternoon on her way to McCloud school district, but learned here that they were not to have any school there just now, so returned Monday morning to her home.

George West and wife came to the Sunny Side Sunday night. He was on his way to the government re-
