

CROWDS FLOCK TO HEAR PARSONS

Evangelist Parsons Tells of Three Ways of Rejecting the Gospel—Violently, Scornfully and Politely—Thousands in Latter Class.

The evangelistic meetings at the Presbyterian church are still continuing to be full of interest and are being well attended. These services are to close this week. An invitation is extended to all to attend these meetings. These people want you to attend; they want you to get right with God; they want you to lead the Christian life. There is nothing unfair about this, because of the fact that such a life makes any man a better citizen, a better man to his family and when a man has been molded spiritually into all of these no harm has been done him, but good has been done the man himself in that his soul has been saved.

Dr. Parsons used last night the following topic for his sermon: Polite Rejections of the Gospel.

"There are three ways of rejecting the gospel—violently, scornfully and politely. In my own experience I have never encountered the first, but few of the second and literally thousands of the third in the form of trivial excuses.

"These excuses the Master dealt with in the parable, are fair samples. None of them have grown more wise or plausible as the years have been added to them.

"It is useless to argue them any more than the Master did. He showed their results in a word picture. If I were to answer every excuse I ever heard some of you would make another way out while I was at it. Just as a coyote digs another exit when you try to drown him out. So, what is the use?"

"But here are some facts about excuses that turn aside the gospel appeal: They seem to you to justify your rejection of Christ; they seem polite; they seem plausible, but there is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

"The great outstanding fact is that they are rejections. The law of politeness is made to do duty for submission. In reality they fail as a justification because God don't O. K. them. They are a piece of ingratitude because they treat lightly all of God's preparation for man's salvation. They are usually an insult to God because in their last analysis they reflect back on his wisdom, reasonableness or kindness.

"They are a smooth, diplomatic persistency in sin and its guilt and usually are at bottom presumption. You think God will stand it.

"In their subjective effects they forestall repentance, blind the intellect, harden the emotions and stifle the conscience, and rob you of golden opportunities through procrastination.

"In their origin Bunyan pictured a fiend whispering blasphemies into the ear of Christian, and if you could see through the veil most likely this is what you would see when an excuse leaps lightly to your lips to parry the gospel appeal."

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

Since my last T. Harvey has sold his property on Main street in our town to Mr. N. Welory, father-in-law of Grant Matthews, consideration $1400. There are two acres in the tract with a water right, as well as a good dwelling house and outbuildings.

Mrs. V. Rowe has decided to locate among us, having purchased a lot on the corner of North Main and Hamilton avenue, and expects to build in the near future.

E. B. Edwards, who has been stopping above Brownsboro this winter and been engaged building a stone building in Brownsboro for Messrs. Morey & Hoffer, spent the night with us Monday on his way to Ashland.

Engene Scrabie is building a new house in Eagle Heights. Eagle Heights is situated on the hill just above and southeast of Eagle Point.

Von der Hellen Brothers have finally located their old store building on a lot just opposite the town hall.

Wm. Von der Hellen has had his yard, on the old Ulrick place, plowed and leveled and is having a neat wire fence put around it. He is also having the old barn that stands on the place torn down to make room for neat family residences.

G. W. Wamsley is re-roofing the Catholic church.

The members of the Baptist church have raised the money, $50, to pay for the extra lot the church building stands on.

Mrs. Joseph Moonan wishes me to say to the readers of The Mail Tribune that she is opening a fine assortment of millinery goods and that she Freeman T. Newport, who has been afflicted with a felon on his thumb, has so far recovered the use of his hand as to be able to go to work again. He is finishing up a building for the Pacific & Eastern Railroad company near the depot. He has taken a room at the Sunnyside.

Mike Sidley Jr. and Ivan Turrel of Lake Creek spent the night at the Sunnyside Tuesday night.

Grover Cook and family of the Ranch Erie country, east of Butte Falls, came out last Tuesday and spent the night with us. They were on their way to Medford.

The J. O. O. F. has arranged to organize a lodge here and has leased the upper story of the bank building for a lodge room for three years. Workmen are arranging the rooms for that purpose. They expect to organize about the first of March.

John Newstrom of Lake Creek came out Monday on the Lake Creek stage, went to Medford, returning Tuesday evening, spent the night with us and Wednesday took the stage for home.

W. W. Willis and daughter, Miss Inez, came out from their home, at Persist, Monday, spent the night here and Tuesday morning went on to Medford. Miss Inez was on her way to Ashland.

Our J. P. Hon. John Watkins is rounding all the voters he can to register.

We Changed Our Mind

We now believe it is an art. WHY? We watched our own youngsters address. Ever try it? It is truly an educational sport, and an art too. Speaking of art though— Our modern methods in the treatment of such conditions as Cataract, Eye Strain and the like, together with our extremely low prices, coupled with the fact of our superior qualifications and most complete equipment makes of our Specialty a really true Art.

Medicine and Surgery is an art—not because it is mysterious nor due to the fact of the apparent dignity the very words imply nor because of the sublime knowledge or theory or mystification of the Practitioner, but by those who are the best qualified, with the greatest experience, whose true honesty with the patient is above reproach, whose every practice is one of Simplicity, Accuracy and Grace, with these we say Practice is an ART. Qualification and Experience are the greatest teachers of life. The long hair or pretentious beard do not indicate abnormal knowledge, for it is a well known fact that certain kinds of hay will yield very heavy crops on the lightest and most arid soil provided, however, its sustenance is dependent upon certain conditions of the air—consequently looks do not indicate knowledge nor will a man's dress demonstrate his ability—BUT his work does count.

We do not come before the public on our looks, there surely can be no one who will challenge this statement, but as to our work. Come and see us; we can furnish you the best of references from those for whom we have worked and we will gladly do so, but in no case will we do so until we have the consent of the patient in question. Ours is an advertising campaign of not alone what we can do but what we are doing each day. Our prices make us many friends who are very glad to help us and in that way help others.

Rex Spray Companies Special Attention to Users of Lime and Sulphur Spray

Notices have been sent out broadcast by a competitive firm, claiming a spray of 15 per cent, nearly one-sixth stronger than any other spray and recommending such spray to be more diluted than 1 to 11 because stronger than REX.

The following is an easy test by which any grower can ascertain for himself as to whether such representations are correct or not.

The spray sent out by The Rex Companies will weigh 10.9 pounds per gallon. When diluted 1 to 11 the mixture will weigh 8.56 pounds per gallon.

Any spray represented as being stronger which will not meet the above requirements is sold under false representations, and the person so offering same is subject to prosecution by the State and Federal authorities.

REX LIME & SULPHUR SOLUTION is guaranteed at above strength. If made any stronger there is danger of crystallization, especially if the spray is left out in cold weather.

REX is just what it represents itself to be, and should be used according to directions to get best results.

REX SPRAYS are made in all parts of the United States and Canada. We have had years of experience and know whereof we speak. For cash or time terms, see
