MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS FOR FIRST TIME, SQUARE

LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 22.—For the first time since the beginning of the textile strike many weeks ago the strikers today were dealt fairly with by a municipal official. The decision came when the mayor of Lawrence ruled that neither militiamen nor policemen had any right to interfere with the sending to other cities of the strikers' children so long as the consent of parents had been obtained.

Several days ago Colonel Sweetzer, commanding the 2,000 or more soldiers sent here for the alleged purpose of preserving order, announced that no more children would be allowed to leave Lawrence. At the time the strikers declared that this order was given to Colonel Sweetzer by the textile owners. It was said it was an attempt by the owners to cause a collapse of the strike by starving out the strikers. Colonel Sweetzer's order followed the removal of several hundred children to New York and other cities, where they are being cared for by strike sympathizers.

Insane Patient Escapes.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 22.—Miss Grace Hughes, 34, an insane patient at the city hospital, climbed to the window ledge of her padded cell last night, squeezed her emaciated form through an eight inch space between the iron grating and the stone coping and, letting go, dashed 50 feet to the bottom of the air shaft. She died several hours later.
