HOW COLVIG BOOSTS OREGON. (Continued From Page Two.)

Oregon particularly, we can furnish them the names of many people from the Dakotas, and I venture the assertion that not one of the many wishes to return to either of those great states. Yet, they have a love in their hearts for the old home, and in this city their Dakota club here and they have their acquaintance is renewed and old times talked of. But they are wonderfully pleased with their homes here, and it seems to me that any one who is intelligent may ascertain with little trouble the facts regarding this country, and will also find that the Central Labor Council of Portland, Oregon, has not stated the truth in its communication, and that the statements sent out are purposely and wilfully false.

We send you by separate enclosure copies of our literature, which you will understand in all instances presents the fair side of the picture. Our real estate men are just like real estate men in any other country. They came here from Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and the Dakotas, mostly, and they are the same kind of men here that they were there; they are trying to sell land, and the intelligent man knows how to judge when dealing with gentlemen engaged in this line of business. Not that I would cast any reflection upon them, because I can truthfully say that in this city our real estate men are among the best citizens of Oregon.

Praises Entire Valley. If any further information is needed, this club will be glad to furnish it to you. The Commercial club is not engaged in selling land, and is composed of the best class of our citizens. We also enclose you herewith Facts and Figures, relative to the growth, etc., of our city. There are other beautiful little cities in Rogue river valley, such as Ashland, Central Point, Jacksonville, Eagle Point, Gold Hill, Woodville. What I have said in this communication will accordingly apply to any of these places and also to Grants Pass, the county seat of Josephine county, lying just north of here.

I have the honor to be, Yours very truly, WM. M. COLVIG, President and Manager.

Painless Dentistry Old People's Home Fails Innates Thrown on Charity. A "home for old people" recently became bankrupt in Detroit, and many inmates who had paid into it every dollar they had in the world, expecting to be assured of a comfortable old age, were thrown on charity. We say that every institution of this nature ought to be under supervision of the state so such things could not happen. It is the duty of the young and strong to safeguard the welfare of the old and feeble. Their health and vigor, for example, should be kept up as much as possible. Nothing is so good for this purpose as Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil. Miss A. H. Halston of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., says: "As a tonic, I think Vinol is excellent and especially for an old person. A condition of general debility which had lasted for months yielded promptly to Vinol and this gives me the fullest confidence in it." DR.
