

ATTELL TO BET HIS LAST CENT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—With only $10,000 of the $350,000 he has earned in his 14 years in the ring still in his possession, Abe Attell declared that he was willing to bet the lamp that he will win in his next bout with Johnny Kilbane.

"It is my last $10,000, but I am so confident that I am willing to take a chance to go stone broke," he said. "I have had my say about our first meeting and fight followers know my feelings about it. I am through talking of the Washington's Birthday affair and hereafter when Kilbane is the subject, my talk will have bearing only on a return match with him. If the decision had not been rendered against me in Los Angeles I had planned to retire permanently from the ring about July 4, but now that the title has been passed to another I will stick to the game several months longer than I had intended to."

"If Kilbane will not fight until September then I must wait, but I would be better pleased if he would agree to meet me in May or as soon after his theatrical engagements are over as possible."

STIMSON DECLARES FOR TAFT FOR PRESIDENT

CHICAGO, March 6.—Henry L. Stimson of New York, secretary of war, and the Roosevelt candidate for governor of New York in 1910, last night declared himself for President Taft, and said that while he remained the sincere friends of Mr. Roosevelt, he could not support him for the presidential nomination.

Mr. Stimson entered President Taft's cabinet last year, after consultation with Mr. Roosevelt, and with the distinct understanding with the president that he would be bound in no way to take part in the political activities of the administration. In a speech before the Taft club of Illinois last night he declared his belief that President Taft's administration represented the highest expression of progressive republican policy.

Flash Election Result to Sea.

SEATTLE, Wn., March 6.—From the University of Washington wireless station tonight wireless bulletins announcing the result of today's municipal election will be flashed to steamers all along the coast, not only vessels at sea, but all ships in port tonight will receive the bulletins.

MASS TROOPS ALONG BORDER

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—Plans for the mobilization of the United States army along the Mexican border have been completed, according to high officials of the government here this afternoon and the movement of the troops to the south is expected soon after the return here tomorrow from Chicago of Secretary of War Stimson. This action is to be taken on account of the alarming conditions in Mexico and because of statements attributed to Senor Calero, Mexican foreign minister, that if intervention by the United States seems imminent, all American residents in Mexico will be held as hostages.

Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City will be asked regarding the authenticity of the statement.

MISSIONARY SLAIN IN CHINESE MUTINY

PEKIN, March 6.—The Rev. Mr. Day was murdered by mutinous Chinese soldiers at Chin Chow, according to advices received here today. No details were given.

Missionary Day was connected with the Church of England mission. His home address is unknown. M. S. Hughes, another missionary, accompanied him. At last reports Hughes was barricaded in the town hall at Chin Chow. Ten British soldiers have been sent to the rescue.

SOO LINE PASSENGER TRAIN IS WRECKED

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 6.—Soo line passenger train number fourteen which left here at 10:45 yesterday evening, en route to St. Paul, was partly wrecked about 7:30 this morning near Three Valleys, approximately 300 miles east of Vancouver, resulting in the death of Fireman Duckworth of Kamloops, and the wrecking of the two mogals pulling the long string of passenger cars.

Although details from the scene of the wreck are meagre it is understood that a collision took place between the forward engine and a "pusher" which blocked the line.

SHOE TRUST TO BE PROSECUTED

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 6.—Attorney General Wickershaw today ordered United States District Attorney French of Boston to come here and prepare to take criminal action against officials of the United Shoe and Machinery company, the shoe trust.

The government will appeal from Judge Putnam's decision in which he ruled that the trust officials could only be held on the first count of the indictment charging combination in restraint of trade and dismissing the count charging conspiracy to monopolize.

The indicted officials of the shoe trust who will be prosecuted on all possible counts are Sidney Winslow, George Brown, William Barbour, Elmer Hall and Edwin Hurd.

$50,000 BET ON SEATTLE ELECTION

SEATTLE, Wash., March 6.—It is estimated that over $50,000 was lost on the election here yesterday, much of it at the rate of 10 to 1 and 5 to 1 on Gill. Following the primary election Gill men freely offered even money that he would win by 5000 and 10 to 1 that he would win. Odds gradually dropped to even money until yesterday, when odds were given on Gill again.

PROSECUTION CLOSES IN BEEF TRUST CASES

CHICAGO, March 6.—With the prosecution's case practically closed, the end of the trial of the Chicago packers charged by the government with combining in restraint of trade was in sight this afternoon. Federal Attorney Wilkerson announced that the government, having to present only documentary evidence, would rest this afternoon or tomorrow.

Following the government's close, it is expected the defense will make a motion to dismiss the case on the grounds of insufficient evidence. It is believed United States Judge Carpenter will over-rule the motion.

THREE TICKETS IN THE FIELD

PORTLAND, Or., March 6.—Petitions that will place the names of La Follette, Taft and Roosevelt on the Oregon presidential preference primary ballot will be filed with the secretary of state at Salem some time this week, according to authoritative statements from the various political headquarters today.

Thomas McCusker, state campaign manager for La Follette, gave out a telegram from the Wisconsin senator in which La Follette said he would soon be on the firing line himself. The message follows:

"We are glad to hear your good report and assurances as to Oregon. Like encouragement comes from other states. Senator Gronna goes to North Dakota to speak and says he will carry the state. Other speakers will make aggressive campaigns in progressive territory. I shall, myself, soon be on the firing line."

The triangular campaign is warming up and the various campaign committees are flooding the state with political literature.

The presidential primaries will be held April 19.

Guayaquil Commander Killed

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, March 6.—News of the assassination of General Julio Andrade, the military commander of Guayaquil, by some of his soldiers at Quito last night reached here today. Details of the affair have not been received.

Hay Makes Appointment

OLYMPIA, March 6.—Governor Hay today appointed Harry E. Wilson of Seattle, an attorney, to take the place on the public service commission made vacant by the resignation of J. C. Lawrence on January 1. Wilson has accepted.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 6.

The National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' association, one of the strongest trade organizations in the United States, met for its annual convention in this city today. Five hundred delegates representing nearly all parts of the country, are in attendance. F. R. Babcock of Pittsburg is the president of the association and the presiding officer of the convention.

HEIRESS MUST SCRUB FLOORS

LONDON, March 6.—The police courts today were crowded with the hearings of the 200 suffragettes arrested. All those convicted were given sentences at hard labor, and detectives are seeking other leaders, against whom informations have been filed.

A United Press correspondent today tried to see Miss Alice Morgan Wright, an Albany (N. Y.) heiress, who was sentenced to two months in Holloway prison, but the authorities held her incommunicado.

Miss Wright graduated from Smith college in 1904 and is now a famous sculptor. She will be compelled to scrub floors, clean windows, wash and iron clothing and make sacks. She came to London Monday to take part in the window smashing and later told the proprietor of her hotel that she expected to be arrested.

MAN IS KILLED BY FALLING PROJECTILE

PORTLAND, March 6.—Struck by a piece of stone cornice which fell from the top of the Lipman-Wolfe building under construction, N. J. Roche, a bricklayer was instantly killed this afternoon. The stone, which fell 160 feet, struck him squarely on the top of the skull. It passed through his head and buried itself in his chest.

ROOSEVELT SERVES AS JUROR AT $3 A DAY

MINEOLA, N. Y., March 6.—Theodore Roosevelt today for the first time in his life served as a juror and began to earn his $3 a day. He put in his time in the grand jury room reading a book. As the court was occupied with a continuous case it was not thought likely that Roosevelt would sit in a case today, but he was not excused.

Mystery Case Mistrial.

ST. LOUIS, March 6.—The third hearing of the Kimmel identity mystery and the insurance contest ended in a mistrial today when the jury which was out seventy-three hours was discharged by Federal Judge Amidon. Through most of the balloting it stood nine to three for the plaintiff.
