EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

R. C. Lawton and E. Hard have completed the job of moving two houses for Fred Palouze, on his farm about three miles above town and are now working on Mrs. Lawton's house on Eagle Heights. Mr. Hard has decided to have the Daily Mail-Tribune sent to him so that he can keep posted on the current events of the day.

George W. Allen, one of the carpenters who worked on the buildings here last summer has come out and has taken charge of the work of building the big brick store building for Nichols & Nichols during the absence of Mr. Spiker who has the contract for the building. Mr. Spiker is at this writing engaged on a cottage building in Medford that he has a contract to build.

A. T. Pool one of the rangers, has just come in from the Trail creek country in company with George West. Mr. West went on to Medford to his home while Mr. Pool stopped at the Sunnyside.

Sunday morning your correspondent drove to the Antioch school house to attend church, where he met Rev. M. C. Davis, and after a few minutes consultation it was decided I was to preach, which I did to a good and attentive congregation after Sunday school. The Sunday school there is well attended and the superintendent, Mr. E. H. Thombrey, proved to be the right man in the right place as he is a fine singer and knows just how to interest the young folks. After preaching we went to Agate where Rev. Davis preached to a congregation of about forty or more; then to Table Rock. He preached again at night, spending the night with the family of Mr. W. T. Deford. They are both regular Oregonians, having been born in this state and know just how to entertain strangers and make them feel at home. The next day we went to Sams valley, where Rev. Davis had an appointment to preach at the residence of Mr. Holtz. There was a nice little interested audience, and at the close of the services Mr. Cooper, a citizen of Moonville, kindly offered the use of his hall for a meeting place which offer was gratefully accepted and the next time, the Monday after the first Sunday in April, Rev. Davis will hold services in the hall. Leaving there Monday morning we took across the valley to Eagle Point via the Dodge-French bridge. During my rounds I was always on the lookout for items of interest for the readers of the Mail Tribune.

I noticed as I was jogging along that there had been quite a large tract of land on the desert that has been plowed and set to fruit; also a large tract that was in the course of preparation for fruit; also along the route that I travelled that there had been a large amount of land put to fruit since my last trip over there. I also noticed that there is considerable substantial improvement in the line of building and especially in the line of fencing and the general appearance of things would indicate that the farmers in that section were on the progressive order.

When I reached home I found Mr. J. F. Cole and George W. Gelwicks, who were at the Sunnyside gathering data to write the Centennial History of Oregon and taking subscriptions for the new work. They were meeting with good success in their undertaking. I also found J. W. Meyers, the fruit tree inspector who was looking out for the microbes, etc., in his line. Also Mike Sidley, who was here looking after the interests of the Catholic church in this section. I also learned that there were three young men who came out Sunday morning to exhibit their ability to ride outlaw horses and I understand that one of the young men got his face somewhat cut in the performance while trying to hold one of the horses. Just as the rider attempted to get into the saddle the horse gave a lunge and dragged him and Dr. Holt said he was either kicked or fell on something sharp so as to cut his lip and chin, so that he was unconscious for some minutes. Some say that the man that tried to ride was thrown off and some say that he did not get into the saddle and jumped off, but at any rate he did not ride any more as his ankle was badly hurt. This ended the sport for that day.

"Burglars fear babies. Kids yell and guns don't scare them," said Burke.

Oh, How I Itched!

What long nerve-racking days of constant torture—what sleepless nights of terrible agony—itch—itch—itch, constant itch, until it seemed that I must tear off my very skin—then—Instant relief—my skin cooled, soothed and healed! The very first drops of D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema stopped that awful itch instantly; yes, the very moment D.D.D. touched the burning skin the torture ceased. A 25c bottle proves it. D.D.D. has been known for years as the only absolutely reliable eczema remedy. For it washes away the disease germs and leaves the skin as clear and healthy as that of a child. All other druglets have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute. But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent. "Twas not my nectar made thy strength divine, But 'twas thy strength which made my nectar thine. (Schiller.)

We are at times forced as it seemingly is, to deviate from the ordinary in our advertising but we have said before that we were doing something NEW, and we are leaving that question for you to decide. We are trying at all times to tell you some ONE thing at least in this space that will benefit, and we hope improve YOU, this is some effort, but we are meeting with more success than we had anticipated. We are getting results.

It may be of interest to you to know that we were the first graduate physicians and surgeons, licensed by examination to practice medicine and surgery in this state, who advertised our qualifications in the daily papers, not advertising any cures, not advertising anything pertaining to mysticism, but advertising FACTS, and making an effort to educate the public in our specialty through ordinary commercial channels and attempting to show them the benefits they will obtain by doing business with us. We appreciated the fact that this was all NEW, but we argued that all business men who were making a success of their business, no matter what line, were using the press to obtain this result, then why should we not do the same? OUR results in this have been more than gratifying, because the PUBLIC realize that we are working for their benefit as well as our own and why should we be controlled by any organization relative to our individual methods and prices? We have sought to establish ourselves permanently as BUSINESS MEN. We do exactly as we advertise all the time. We work on the theory that work done well is the best advertisement and we had rather have many well pleased at a small FEE and the WORK satisfactory than a few at a higher price.
