

Our Correspondents

JACKSONVILLE

Prior Eaton is seriously ill with pneumonia at the residence of Mrs. Irene Eaton, although his condition has improved somewhat.

Mrs. A. H. Maegley of Portland has been visiting her former home and was the guest of her sister, Miss Estella Levy, wife in Jacksonville. She was on her way home from a visit in New York.

W. C. Kitto made a trip to Portland during the week.

Mrs. O. Harbang, Miss Amelia Britt and Estella Levy were Medford visitors the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Charles F. Dunford is seriously ill with consumption and is not expected to survive long.

Sid Nichols is closing out his stock of merchandise with the intention of removing to Canada.

Services have been held in the Catholic church every evening during the week by the priests, who are traveling over the coast in a chapel car.

The mercantile establishments of Jacksonville will be reduced by two, as Nunan-Taylor Co. and Sid Nichol are selling out. However, there seems to be a likelihood of another store being opened here soon.

L. A. Nell and Jack True, pioneer residents of the upper valley, were among those in Jacksonville during the week.

Miss Jorgenson is learning the millinery trade at Miss Paynter's establishment in Medford.

Taxpayers are thronging the courthouse and Sheriff Jones and his assistants are kept busy writing receipts.

The recent city election created considerable interest, but was not the occasion of any hot contests. About 145 votes were cast, which is a light poll. Hereafter the marshal and street commissioner will be appointed by the mayor instead of elected, the new charter making this change.

Mrs. Normile and Miss Mary Wett-over were among the many who went to Medford during the week.

The Parents' and Teachers' association of Jacksonville held a meeting at the high school assembly Friday afternoon, which was well attended. An interesting program was satisfactorily rendered.

Gagnon brothers of Medford have been here frequently on timber business.

Candidates for county offices are slow in announcing themselves, although it is only a few weeks until the primary election will be held.

G. B. Woodson was over from Rabbittville the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Householder of Kane's Creek were in Jacksonville Thursday for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dunn of Ashland were among their Jacksonville friends a few days ago.

Attorneys Phipps, Lawlor and McCabe of Medford, Hough of Grants Pass and Briggs of Ashland had business at the county seat this week.

Frank R. Nell, state forester, is down from Derby.

EDEN PRECINCT ITEMS.

Geo. Alford of Ferns Valley, was in Phoenix Wednesday.

Miss Lulia Roberts of North Talent was in Phoenix Wednesday.

C. T. Payne of Ferns Valley was in Ashland last Wednesday.

Alfalfa hay at C. Carey's twelve dollars per ton. Phone Farmers 816 F11.

We are sorry to announce the death of the little daughter of Ed Foss and wife of Talent, Wednesday, of spinal meningitis. Fears are entertained of an epidemic of the dread malady.

Mrs. Wm. Breezee of Talent visited the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. B. N. French of North Talent has had good success with her petition for parcels post, which everyone seems anxious to sign.

E. P. Hughes of Ashland, has several men at work setting out fruit trees on his tract of land in Ferns Valley lately.

C. Carey this week has planted seed in hotbeds sufficient to raise about fifty thousand tomato plants, besides as many celery, peppers, egg plant, cauliflower, ground cherry, sweet potato, early cabbage.

Miss June Earhart of Medford, came out to the Rader home Tuesday where she will be in attendance upon L. A. Rose, on account of an operation upon one of his limbs, besides being ill with diabetes. It will be several days before the results can be told on account of systematic cauditions.

Mrs. L. A. Rose and her daughter Mrs. C. Cate came up from Brownsville, Ore., Tuesday night on account of news that L. A. Rose was not expected to live, and that amputation of one of his limbs was necessary, which operation was performed Wednesday by Drs. Pickle, Morrison and Malmgren.

A very quiet wedding took place at the Christian parsonage in Phoenix Wednesday morning, when Rev. A. E. Hery of Phoenix joined in marriage Miss Josephine Calhoun and William Cottrell. The young people are both well and favorably known. We wish them a long and happy voyage through life. They left immediately for their new home, which the groom had prepared, in Sams Valley.

IT'S SO EASY TO END CATARRH

Go to Chas. Strang and say I want a HYOMEI outfit—take it home—open the box—pour a few drops of HYOMEI from the bottle into the little hard rubber inhaler—breathe it for five minutes and note the refreshing relief—breathe it four or five times a day for a few days and catarrh and all its disgusting symptoms will gradually disappear.

HYOMEI contains no opium, cocaine or other harmful drug and is sold on money back plan for catarrh, asthma, croup, colds, coughs and catarrhal deafness. Complete outfit $1.00—extra bottles if needed 50 cents at Chas Strang's and druggists everywhere. Simple instructions for use in every package—you can't fail to banish catarrh if you follow instructions.
