Alice Lloyd, the famous English singing comedienne, who has been seen in this country exclusively as a vaudeville headliner, will make her first appearance in Medford as a musical comedy star, at the Medford theatre, Thursday, March 14th in "Little Miss Fix-It," the tuncful and very much out of the ordinary comedy described by Alan Dale as "a laugh or a song hit every minute," and which played an all summer run in Chicago following a four months' engagement at the Globe theatre, New York. Werba & Luescher engaged Miss Lloyd for the title role of the play, thinking her the best suited for the character of any woman on our stage. The many admirers of this delightful actress will be glad to know that, during the action of the play, she will sing all of her latest song hits, among them "Have You Ever Loved Any Other Little Girl," "Cupid," "The Hobbie Promise," "Splash Me," etc. She will also be prominent in the big sensational dance number, "The Newport Turkey Trot," which has been taken up recently by the fashionable smart-set of New York and its favorite seaside resort, and which is said to be quite the most fascinating of the now numerous terpsichorean oddities.
