ODD FELLOWS FORM CONGRESS

About 40 delegates from Odd Fellow Lodges of Ashland, Grants Pass, Medford, Gold Hill, Central Point, Talent, Woodville and Eagle Point lodge met in I. O. O. F. hall this city, Saturday night, and formed a permanent organization to be known as the I. O. O. F. Congress of Jackson and Josephine counties for the purpose of advancing the good and welfare of Odd Fellowship.

The meeting was called to order by Past Grand A. N. Hildebrand who was chosen as temporary chairman who appointed the following members as a committee on constitution and by-laws: W. P. Wetherill of Gold Hill, chairman; John R. Norris, Jacksonville, B. A. Williams, Grants Pass, George Lowd, Woodville, Lee Watkins, Central Point, G. A. Gardner, Talent, E. E. Phipps, Ashland, J. L. Demmer, Medford, B. H. Bryant, Eagle Point, when a recess was declared to give the committee time to draft by laws and report to this meeting.

The committee reported a constitution and by-laws which were adopted, after which a permanent organization was formed and the following officers elected: President, A. N. Hildebrand, of Medford; vice president, Louis Ulrich, of Jacksonville; secretary, E. E. Phipps, of Ashland; treasurer, T. Y. Dean, of Grants Pass.

The president appointed the following officers: Sargent-at-arms, Lee Watkins, of Central Point, inner guard, J. G. Jarvis, of Woodville; outer guard, B. H. Bryant, of Eagle Point, after which they were duly installed for the term of one year. The president then appointed all standing committees, as required by the constitution, for the ensuing year.

This congress is to meet semi-annually within its jurisdiction, time and place to be chosen when assembled by a two-thirds vote and it is expected that a great deal of good for Odd Fellowship will be accomplished.

Ashland was unanimously chosen for the next meeting place and the time was set for April 26th, which is the 92nd anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America.

During the evening it developed that Medford lodge was out for the grand lodge session to be held in May, 1913, and the several delegates from the different lodges pledged themselves and the lodges which they represent to instruct all of their representatives to work for Medford and vote for Medford at the grand lodge session to be held at Pendleton in May of this year.

SAYS NEW ROAD IS A CERTAINTY

(Oregon Journal) J. Arnold Doyle, railroad promoter, who promises to build an electric road from Eugene to Roseburg, is in Portland, accompanied by H. M. Perrin, vice president of the company.

"We will be in Portland probably one week," said Doyle yesterday afternoon, "and before we leave we may have some definite information as to when actual construction work will begin. I can assure you that the contract will be let, and that a firm well known in Oregon and Washington will handle it.

"We have completed preliminary surveys from Eugene to Roseburg. The survey from Roseburg to Grants Pass is permanent, as is the line from Medford to Ashland. We will very soon have fixed up the right of way from Grants Pass to Medford. Our men have been in the field surveying and gathering data since last September, and we have never once given up the idea of pushing the line through. Our visit here now is in connection with some final details of the work. From here we will go to Roseburg to pick up some other ends and get under way."

HER SICKLY CHILD

Is Now Strong and Healthy—Vinol Built Her Up

Every mother wants her little boy or girl to have a fair chance in the world. Make your children strong and healthy and they will grow up able to make their own way.

For ailing children there is nothing so good as Vinol, our delicious tonic, for it gives them a fine appetite, makes their blood rich and puts roses in their cheeks again.

"I have been giving Vinol to my little daughter," says Mrs. G. Eisenberger of Hackensack, N. J. "She was very delicate and I was worried about her. Vinol has built her up fine. She is strong and healthy now, with a good healthy color in her face which she never had before. It only took one bottle of Vinol to do this for her. She likes the taste of Vinol too."

We could tell you of many others right in this town—but give Vinol to your puny child and see how fast it improves. We give back your money if Vinol does not do all we claim. Medford Pharmacy, near postoffice.

AMUNDSEN.

THE hats of the world are off to Captain Roald Amundsen, of Norway, who has achieved the honor of first reaching the South Pole. He deserves both credit and congratulations. He has not only captured the blue ribbon, but he has added much to the knowledge of Antarctic topography and conditions.

Amundsen made his trip without the loss of a man. He was favored generally by good weather and made much of the journey on glaciers. He had had much experience and his expedition, planned with scientific exactness, was carried out with military precision. The greatest cold was about 50 degrees below zero on the Fahrenheit scale, and he encountered only two violent snow storms. His best day's run was sixty-five miles, the dogs traveling well without much suffering, though two-thirds of them gave out.

Captain Amundsen made the journey to the Pole in two months. The sun shined night and day enabled him to make continuous observations and thus to locate the Pole without difficulty.

There seems little doubt that Captain Scott experienced similar weather, and that he also reached the Pole, but there is no news from his expedition.

CONGRATULATIONS.

THE SPECTATOR of Portland, the best edited, altogether most excellent publication of its kind in the west, has just celebrated its fifth birthday. To the Spectator, The Mail Tribune takes this opportunity of extending not only its own felicitations and well wishes, but those of Medford and the Rogue River valley as well. The Spectator has proven time and again its friendship for southern Oregon by never overlooking an opportunity to sing its praises. Recently Editor Hume paid a wager won by Colonel George Harvey with a red apple of the Rogue—a remarkable fact considering that the Spectator is published at Portland, and Portland folk for the most part cannot see this far.

Here's a happy birthday, and many of them!

GRAND JURY IS IN SESSION

The grand jury assembled at Jacksonville Monday morning and at once turned their attention to several criminal cases in which District Attorney Mulkey seeks indictments. The first case called to the attention of the inquisitorial body was the case of the state vs. Power for forgery. Power was indicted.

Several prisoners are now in the county jail awaiting action by the grand jury.

Next Monday the March term of the court will open and a new grand jury chosen. It is probable that the present grand jury will not complete its work until the end of the week.

MRS. DELIA GOODE HAS RECORD TO BE PROUD OF

Mother of nine children, forty-seven grandchildren, great grandmother of eighty-one children and great-great grandmother of five children is the record of Mrs. Delia Goode of Salem, who celebrated her 85th birthday in Salem last Friday.

Mr. Goode of this city has maintained the family name in his family. He is the father of eight children and five grandchildren. This is in itself quite enviable, for it places Mr. Goode as the only son of Mrs. Goode who has brought the family name to grandchildren.

Mrs. W. E. Goode of this city has placed the following names as sons and daughters on the family tree: Arthur, Mrs. Bertha Anderson, Mrs. Mary Milligan, Mrs. Eva Young, Miss Maud Goode, Merle Goode and Vernon, who died about six years ago. From this substantial branch the five grandchildren have at this time been added. Their names are: Bertie Anderson, Arthur Goode, Genevieve and Ralph Goode, Harold Goode and Claude Milligan.

If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office, as soon as lawful authority of the voters can be secured, bond the county and begin the construction of a scientific system of permanent roads. One million and a half dollars is not too much for this purpose. But a dollar's value must be had for every dollar spent. I will oppose increasing the county's warrant indebtedness and will endeavor to reduce the
