

ROOSEVELT OPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, March 21.—In the first speech of his campaign for the presidential nomination, Colonel Roosevelt last night contrasted his position and that taken by President Taft. Colonel Roosevelt's speech was delivered before a crowd which filled Carnegie hall. So many persons wished to hear him that an overflow meeting was held in a small hall within the same building. The street front of the building contained a throng of persons unable to gain admission to either hall. Colonel Roosevelt was received with marked enthusiasm.

Replying to President Taft's Boston address, Colonel Roosevelt said the position held by President Taft was one held since the beginning of our government by many reputable and honorable men. It is that popular government is to be feared, and when it must be accepted it should be hedged with every species of restriction and check so to make the power of the people limited and ineffective as possible. In effect, he said this view is that the constitution is a straightjacket and the people an unruly patient. A view not alone, he considered, false, but mischievous.

Alluding to President Taft's statement that "every class" should have a "voice" in the government, he declared that to be a serious misconception of the American political conditions. The real trouble is, he asserted, that some classes have too much voice.

Referring to the president's assertion that recall of the judiciary would give a "powerful effect to the momentary impulse of the majority of the electorate and prepare the way for the grossest tyranny," Roosevelt says he would like to know the exact distinction between what Taft calls "fitful impulse of the temporary majority," when applied to a question such as Roosevelt raises and any other questions.

"Remember, under my proposal to review the rule or decision by popular vote, it would take at least two years from the time of the election of the legislature which passed the act." In conclusion Roosevelt asserted with emphasis that he stood on his Columbus speech.

Colonel Roosevelt in substance said he believes the right and ability of the people to rule and has scant patience with the talk of the tyranny of the majority. He declared we of today are suffering the tyranny of the minorities. Roosevelt said it was a small minority who are "grabbing the coal deposits, water-powers and harbor fronts, who fatten on the sale of adulterated food and drugs, and who stand behind the trusts and monopolies," and asserted that for twenty years vested interests had ruled as if they "had a first mortgage on the whole United States, while the rights of all the people were merely unsecured debt."

The speaker asserted that no one says it is best to conduct all legislation by the direct vote of the people, but he thinks when legislatures refuse to act an initiative and referendum is needed to carry out the will of the people.

Of the recall of officials, he said the only criticism heard is to make them timid, but he declared it better to do that or it will stop these officials from currying favor with the interests. The colonel, after asserting the direct primary, accompanied by a stringent corrupt practices act, will break up corrupt partnerships between corporations and politicians, turned to the subject of the recall of judges and of decisions.

He asserted he never advocated the recall of judges in all the states and all communities. He maintained, however, wherever special interests have entrenched themselves behind the courts the democracy has a right to approach the sanctuary of the judiciary. He would, he said, more willingly trust the whole people to judge in such instances than a special tribunal.

ST. JOHNS VISITORS HIGHLY PLEASED WITH MEDFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Test of St. Johns, Ore., visited in Medford Wednesday with their friends, the Potter and Gould families, at Fairdale orchards. Mr. and Mrs. Test were on their way home from Long Beach, Cal., where they have passed the winter.

It being their first visit to Medford they were astonished to find a real live city; after hearing as they so often had in Portland, that Medford and the Rogue river valley were dead ones.

Mr. Test, who is manager of the Portland Woolen Mills at St. Johns, looked at Medford and the valley from a business man's standpoint, and said he could not understand how anyone should want to leave Oregon, especially this section of the state, for anything to be found in California.

LOCAL AGENTS BANQUET CHIEF

J. H. Cochran gave a banquet at the Hotel Medford last night in honor of Alma D. Katz, manager of The Mutual Life Insurance company of New York. Those present were Alma D. Katz, Portland; J. H. Cochran, T. C. Wicks, R. C. Reame and J. F. Hutchason. The banquet was held at 6 o'clock and took the nature of a special mark of honor to Mr. Katz who was in Medford for the purpose of inspecting the new offices, rooms 202 and 205 First National Bank building. Mr. Katz expressed himself as well pleased with the offices and especially well pleased with the business Medford has given the company during the past nine years, a short mention of which is as follows:

For something like nine years Mr. J. H. Cochran has lived in Medford, coming here from Oakland, Ore., to open up this territory for the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. For almost the entire time his office has been in the Palm building and his friends as well as patrons know that the old office was anything but a desirable place to either loaf or work in. With a small, undesirable office, but with untiring energy, backed by the oldest and strongest life insurance company in the United States, Mr. Cochran has written an average of something like $250,000 of life insurance during each of the nine years he has been in Medford. This is a wonderful record for any man and a great record for Medford and southern Oregon. It shows, not so much, the untiring, square dealing, of the man as well as the company which he has represented, but shows the most conclusive evidence of the prosperity and progressiveness of the people of this section of the state. It shows, too, the fact that Medford and vicinity is made up for the most part of people who have been around the world a bit and that a great many of the people living here are up to the standard of the east along financial lines for it is a well known fact that the percentage of life policies in the east is as ten to one per each thousand inhabitants there being ten policies in the east to where there is one in the west. But the west is fast coming to the realization of the need of Life Insurance and the manifold advantages it affords to every man who takes out a policy. The people who are buying insurance are also coming to learn that there is a vast difference in the cost of insurance and last year the Medford office placed something like $500,000. If a man comes to the office, or will take the time to understand the contract written by the Mutual Life of New York as explained by one of the local representatives, he will, if he is honest with himself and really wishes to get the best policy ever written and wishes to get insurance at actual cost, he is sure to take a policy with the Mutual Life.

Mr. Cochran stood first in the state of Oregon in the production of new business for 1911 and ninth in the world.

J. F. Hutchason stood third in the state and 32d in the world in the production of new business for 1911.

Mr. Wicks was formerly with the Northwestern for some seven years and is a capable writer as is Mr. Reame.

If you are thinking of Life Insurance, any one of the above named representatives will be glad to give you the facts and believe that they can show you that the Mutual is the company for you to select.

Baldheads

More Women Are Bald Than Men, Says Authority.

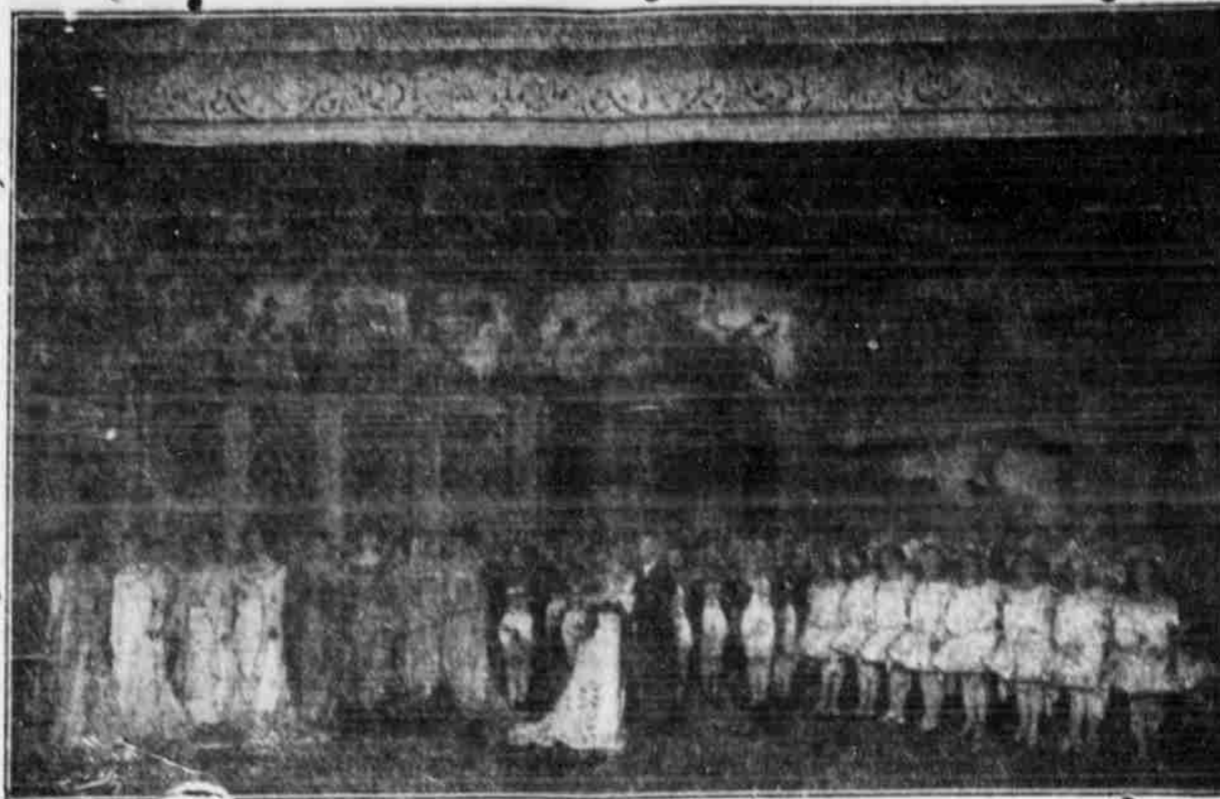

This is a startling statement, but it's true according to an article published in a standard magazine this year.

One thing is certain PARISIAN SAGE will surely prevent baldness by stopping the hair from falling, but it won't grow hair after the head is bald.

Ladies, look after your hair, destroy the dandruff germs with PARISIAN SAGE and dandruff will disappear. It stops scalp itch over night and is guaranteed to be the most refreshing, refined and agreeable hair dressing that can be obtained. Sold by Chas. Strang and druggists all over America for 50 cents.

"My hair was falling out, and I was troubled with itching scalp. I received no benefit until I tried PARISIAN SAGE."—Mrs. George Thunder, R. F. D. 5, Marshall, Mich.

THE "NEWLYWEDS" WILL BE SEEN AT THE MEDFORD FRIDAY NIGHT.

An event of the season's amusement offerings looked here at the Medford theater for Friday, March 22, and which has already aroused the interest of local theatergoers who are admirers of the better sort of musical comedy, will be found in the bright song comedy, "The Newlyweds and Their Baby."

This clever musical play with its 60 1-2 people delighted all New York and Chicago for months and months and it is safe to say that many theatergoers in this city who saw and enjoyed the performance in either of these cities, will be among those present next Friday.

The performance, it is promised will be of the liveliest sort, with fun as the keynote. The doings of Napoleon, the irresistible child of the doings Mr. and Mrs. Newlywed, furnish lots of amusement. The part of the baby will be taken by James E. Rosen, a very clever lilliputian actor, forty-two inches high; while the food parents are impersonated by Leo Hayes and Margaret Braun. D. L. Don, one of the best German comedians on the American stage, who will be remembered for his excellent work in "The Red Mill," "The Strollers" and many other Broadway successes, is the laughing hit of the play as A. Nichol, the husky waiter. In the big cast there are many well known players including Beatrice Flint, Eulalie Young, W. A. Orlando, Ralph C. Bevan and a handsome chorus presenting many singing and dancing novelties.

REBELS READY TO FIGHT TROOPS

EL PASO, Texas, March 21.—More than 500 rebels, commanded by General Ynez Salazar today are mobilizing at Jimenez to resist a threatened attack of 1200 federalists who are approaching from the south. At an early hour today the federalists were reported within sight of Jimenez and a clash may come before night.

Juarez and other cities in northern Chihuahua face a food famine as a result of the United States government prohibiting the importation of foodstuffs into Mexico. The customs officers in El Paso are taking greater precautions to prevent violations of this law than they did during the Madero revolution.

J. D. BARKDULL OUT FOR HOUSE

J. E. Barkdull, a well known real estate man of this city, who is probably better known to his friends as "Mose," has announced his candidacy for representative from Jackson county upon the democratic ticket.

Mr. Barkdull has long been identified with Jackson county politics. He is a progressive business man and has handled some of the largest real estate deals in the valley. Universally liked, his candidacy will no doubt strike a responsive chord throughout the valley.

PROGRESSIVE AGGRESSIVE

The East and the West

The "raising" power in a package of yeast, is not thought of in bread that is best. But bread does not raise good, in winter, back EAST, Although 'twill most raise without yeast, in the WEST.

As a pert illustration we'll take man or beast. When seemingly they're at their best, They all work much harder back in the EAST, Than WE do out here in the WEST.

Back there they're working all times for the least, And the service is rated the best, They save mostly all that they make in the EAST, While the spending's the great stunt out in the WEST.

An error though made if duly confessed is better than a thought that's deceased, So why not surprise by NEW METHODS out WEST, And by these NEW METHODS beat out the EAST.

We are trying to give the most of the best, And the most and the Best for the Least, While 'tis new to the most of the best in the WEST, This method does work with success in the EAST.

We asked your support, but never had guessed, That efforts like OURS when released, Could bring us so many new friends in the WEST, While we follow out what we're taught in the EAST.

Advertising like this is sure quite a feast, But to US this change is sort of a rest, For we work all the time like they do in the EAST, And we're bringing NEW METHODS out here in the west.

Please do not forget our name and also do not forget where we live, and last but not least do not forget what we do, and then do not forget that WE ARE THE BEST and these last few words is what makes the other fellows mad, but we call your attention to the FACT that no one contradicts US, because they know WE ARE THE BEST. It's the truth all the time, then think of the experience we have had in the years of general practice before we SPECIALIZED. Our experience is at your service and remember this one FACT, CONSULTATION always FREE. Drs. Saunders & Green, Garnett-Corey Building Practice limited to EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT, Medford, Oregon

COUNTY SURVEYOR

I am asking for the Republican nomination, and if I am elected I will make the office mean something. All county work requiring engineering skill should be done by the County Surveyor, and maps and other data filed for future reference. Having made the surveys for the adjudicating of Little Butte creek water rights and a topographic map of a large portion of the Rogue River valley, besides other surveys, I am able to give first-hand information.
