I wish to thank my neighbors for their kindness and hospitality to myself and family, following the fire which destroyed our home. MRS. E. A. BARNEY AND CHILDREN.

GRAND LODGE MEN WILL VISIT MEDFORD

Friday evening, March 30th the grand lodge officers will pay an official visit to the local lodge Knights of Pythias. There will be exemption of third rank work and refreshments and Pythianism in Medford will be at a premium for a while. On Monday evening, April 1, first Talisman lodge of this city will probably have no meeting as so many of the members will visit the Ashland lodge on that date, the occasion being the annual district convention. At 2 p. m. of that day the district convention will convene and attend to routine matters and in the evening Granite lodge of Ashland, assisted by members of other lodges of the district will confer the rank of Esquire. The grand lodge officers will attend these ceremonies also and Ashland is preparing for a very good time for all who attend. As the train schedule is so poor for the Medford boys to go and come, most of them will probably go in autos.

Killed by Train.

PASADENA, Cal., March 22.—Edward A. Rusak, 35, well-to-do merchant of Pasadena was struck by a Santa Fe train today as he was driving down town in his automobile, the machine being carried a block on the pilot of the locomotive and then dashed to bits, killing Rusak instantly.

AT THE LIBRARY.

During the past week fifty books of popular fiction have been added to the shelves.

The Young People's library, of twenty volumes, is a new acquisition at the library. These books are carefully edited with the purpose of being ideal books for children.

Mothers will be interested in a set of pamphlets in the Home Culture series, added this week to the library. These are often used in study clubs.

Those interested in the city beautiful movement will find inspiration in the current number of the Fine Arts Journal which has an illustrated article on the plans for Chicago Beautiful. These plans are of a magnitude to attract attention of the entire country.
