"PEPPERY JIM" SIGNS WITH THE BROWNS.

"JIMMY" AUSTIN

"Jimmy" Austin, the peppery third baseman of the St. Louis Browns, has signed up with Manager "Robby" Wallace, and has already reported in fine shape. Austin at one time wore the ivory of the New York Highlanders, and when he was traded it was a sad blow to the New York fans. As a fielder Austin stands as one of the best in the profession, but he occasionally shows weakness with the stick. However, he has always been a dangerous man in a pinch and the pit boss respects him.

MOTHERS TO PROTECT THEIR DAUGHTERS' FUTURE

CATLIN, Ill., March 25.—To protect the daughters through investigation of the standing and character of suitors, mothers of Catlin today have formed a Mothers' Protective association and plan to extend it to other cities. No information can be exchanged. Here is a list of questions prospective suitors must answer to qualify: Do you smoke cigarettes? Do you drink? Are you profane or vulgar? Are you a churchgoer? Do you patronize dancehalls? Are you considerate of your mother and sister. What are your business prospects?

WEEK'S PRICES ON STOCK MARKET

PORTLAND, March 25.—Below are market quotations in different classes of cattle, hogs and sheep. Notwithstanding the heavy run occasioned by the Fat Stock show, demand continues good for livestock of all kinds and shippers seem well satisfied with prices received. Choice steers, $6.50 and $6.00; medium steers, $5.00 and $5.25; choice cows, $5.00 and $5.25; choice veal, $8.50 and $8.75; good heavy calves, $6.00 and $6.50; bulls, $4.50 and $5.00; stags, $5.00 and $6.00; hogs, light, $6.90 and $7.00; hogs, heavy, $6.00 and $6.50; lambs, $6.00 and $6.25; yearlings, $5.50 and $6.00; wethers, $5.00 and $5.25; ewes, $4.50 and $4.75. The Live Stock show held at these yards the 18th, 19th and 20th of this month, under the auspices of the Pacific Northwest Livestock association, was a success in every particular.

VOICE MAY BRING REASON BACK TO MAN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 25.—In the sweet soprano voice of Miss May Flynn lies the only hope for the mind of Stephen S. Stephens, according to the belief expressed today by physicians at the county hospital, where Stephens is a patient and Miss Flynn a nurse. Stephens' mind, the doctors say, is a discordant jangle and although the usual remedies have failed utterly, he responds perceptibly to the musical voice of the little nurse. He will be given treatment six times daily throughout the next week.

JEALOUS QUARREL ENDS IN KILLING OF MAN

SALINAS, Cal., March 25.—As a result of a jealous quarrel on a ranch near Bradley in the southern end of Monterey county, Fred Alm is dead today and William E. Ward is in jail here charged with his murder. Jealousy over Mrs. Alm, wife of the dead man, is said to be the cause of the trouble. Both men are ranchers. Ward went to the Alm ranch armed with a rifle and engaged in an altercation with the owner, in which Alm was shot three times by his neighbor. Ward was severely stabbed in the back. Bystanders declare that the stabbing was done by Miss Edgington, the 14-year-old stepdaughter of Alm. Ward claims that Alm did the cutting. Ward was under medical care in Salinas jail today. It is stated the wound will not prove fatal. The rancher has a divorced wife and six children in Bradley.

WOOD FAMINE MAY COME, RESULT OF STRIKE

HOQUIAM, Wash., March 25.—A wood famine threatens this section of Washington today as the result of the sawmill tieup here. Unless some of the mills resume soon wood shortage will be felt keenly. More than 2500 strikers today tried to persuade men working at the Eureka Cedar Lumber and Shingle company to quit work. Guards prevented their conducting negotiations and the men left in an orderly manner.

Potatoes Are High

LOS ANGELES, March 25.—With potatoes already selling at $3.25 a hundred, southern California is confronted today with prospects of a further raise. The present price is the highest recorded in Los Angeles in years. A month ago potatoes sold for $1.85, which is about forty cents above normal. The tuber supply is short and produce dealers predict a $1 price.

TELEGRAPH TABLOIDS

PORTLAND, Ore.—"I'm going to kill myself," announced William Williams, "Harrak!" said Mrs. Mary Jeffrey. "Bill was so sore he hit her with a brick." PORTLAND, Ore.—Rev. W. G. Elliot Jr. tried to preach, but a donkey engine near by made so much noise the congregation could not hear him. The church adjourned so as not to disturb the contractors. PORTLAND, Ore.—Mrs. R. E. Tait decided to reform the "great unwashed." While she was appealing to them personally to live better lives one of them relished her of 440.
