

SEVEN OAKS ORCHARD SOLD

A sale under way for the past month, was closed today when Dr. L. A. Sallade, the famous surgeon of Philadelphia, became the owner of 57 acres of the Seven Oaks orchard two miles north of Central Point. The orchard consists of three year old apple and pear trees, and the price paid was $500 an acre. Colonel George P. Mims, who planted the orchard, retains 35 acres, part of which is in orchard, and will plant the balance, erect a bungalow and make it his home.

Dr. Sallade will spend the greater part of the year upon the orchard. He contemplates erecting a handsome orchard home and will reside therein with his family. He first came to the valley a year ago, and was so pleased with it, that he returned again this winter.

Colonel Mims is one of the few orchardists who believes in overseeing every detail of his business. He planted the trees himself and has personally done the plowing, cultivating, spraying and pruning. Formerly a miner and banker, the out-of-door life of the orchard appealed to him, and he has toiled industriously, even doing his own cooking. The sale was made by J. D. Barkdull.

BARTLETTS OUT IN A FEW DAYS

Bartlett pears will be out in full bloom within a few days and then the frost season will be at hand. Owing to the mild weather this month it is believed that the crop will safely pass through the frost season.

No smudging has been done as yet although full preparations have been made. At Grants Pass peaches were smudged on two nights with splendid success.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.)

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Von der Hellen in commemoration of the birthdays of their two children Joyce and Hugo, aged five and six, gave a party Sunday. There were invitations sent out and between forty and forty-five responded to the call. Light refreshments were served and the most of the afternoon was spent in having a good time all around, and it will be a long time before the little tots of Eagle Point forget the fun they had on March 24, 1912.

Mrs. David Cineade had a party family reunion last Sunday to commemorate the birthday of her husband David Cineade and an old time friend Mr. James W. Pew. Mr. Cineade being sixty-seven on the 24th and Mr. Pew sixty-seven on the 25th of March. There were only the members of the family invited except Rev. La Mar, your Eagle Point correspondent and wife. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cineade and son Thomas, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cineade, Ed Cineade, our marshal, Rev. La Mar and A. C. Howlett. Mrs. Howlett fully expected to be on hand but just as she thought that she was about ready to start the company began to come in, among whom were Attorney Briggs and family from Ashland. They take a run up from Ashland two or three times every summer. Mrs. J. F. Brown and Miss Morris, one of our teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Knighton, Mr. H. L. Heath and family. Mr. Heath is one of our merchants. Mr. O. N. Nelson and wife of Jacksonville, besides quite a number of strangers. Mr. Nelson is manager of the Silas J. Day Abstract company of Jacksonville, and he remained while his wife drove back to their home in Jacksonville. After partaking of an excellent dinner, Rev. La Mar started for his appointment in Brownboro and the remainder spent the afternoon in a good old-fashioned social visit and about 4 p. m. we bade the good people adieu and went to our homes feeling that we had not spent the day in vain. In conclusion will say that for the past twenty years David Cineade and Mr. Pew have celebrated their birthdays together with the exception of one year and that year Mr. Pew was away on business and could not be with the Cineade family. Mr. Pew is a bachelor.

Mrs. Van Vactor of Ashland came up Friday evening to visit her husband who is night watchman for the P. & E. locomotive here and has a room at the Sunny Side, returning Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Stinson and son Willie and Miss Bertha Daily were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Daily of the Model Variety store Sunday. AUCTION SALE.

I will sell at public auction on Saturday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock a cow and calf, on the commons just west of Nash hotel, W. W. Friatote.

FLETCHER SAYS HE'S NOT HOOKED

The Mail Tribune is in receipt of the following telegram from Fletcher T. Fish, from Red Bluff, Cal., in which he denies that he is about to desert the ranks of Medford's young bachelors as was published a few days ago.

RED BLUFF, Cal., March 28.—Editor Medford Mail Tribune: Have just received a copy of the Mail Tribune, in fact, several copies, containing an article which does me a gross injustice. The report that I am about to join the ranks of the Benedictines is absurd and is the work of some base conspirators who seek for obvious reasons to discredit me that they may further their own causes. I am sorry that they have secured the cognizance of the press but hope that for the sake of the friendship which I bear you, you will set me right and expose the ulterior motives beneath the plot. In concluding let me repeat that there is not an atom of truth in the report, alas! Hoping that right will triumph, I remain yours sincerely, FLETCHER T. FISH.

SANTA ANA, Cal., March 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Samson Edwards, who celebrated the sixtieth wedding anniversary last week, are dead today from injuries received when Edwards drove his automobile into a Santa Fe train. Edwards was 81 years of age and his wife 79.

CHILDREN ARE VERY BUSY NOW

Already a number of vacant lots in the city have been plowed and are now undergoing treatment at the hands of the school children taking part in the garden growing competition arranged by the Greater Medford club. Rakes and Hoes are being used extensively and planting will follow as soon as the soil is properly prepared.

The members of the fire department having given the station a thorough cleaning out have turned their attention to beautifying the vacant lot adjoining the fire hall. A lawn is to be planted as well as roses and shrubbery. This will prove a splendid improvement as the lot has heretofore been a scene of wild confusion, tin cans, wood and debris of all descriptions being piled about.

THURSDAY

THURSDAY—You're noted for one great day. When the President proclaimeth the turkeys' last fray, But when he has signed this great proclamation, Mr. Turkey, a stomach, will be your destination.

THURSDAY—Some people don't think of you right. They get too much aboard and end with a fight. While a fight is a fight and a "scrap" is a "scrap." Know you're right and then fight, and don't give a rap.

THURSDAY—We're fighters and WE know we are right. We are working for you from morning till night. And the principle here is the whole of the thing. Don't be ruled, don't be fooled, by the "Medical ring."

THURSDAY—The PEOPLE in you all do trust. And if you'd quit now, you'd OUR calendar bust, Unless, like China New Years, you'd quit the game here, And make yourself FIRST in a brand NEW YEAR.

THURSDAY—This tooting of your own bazoo, Is the very best way to make folks think of you, Then it's up to YOU, to do as YOU say, By preaching and teaching NEW METHODS today.

THURSDAY—There's much more that might be said, But if folks think of US when this they have read, With our progressive ideas and NEW METHODS we teach, And we're practicing all the time just what we preach.

THURSDAY—Wake up—stretch out your old bones, Those who live in glass houses must never throw stones, But when you're sincere, and your mind is real firm, Wake 'em up, shake 'em up, and then watch 'em squirm.

Too many people are passing the day by without giving due respect to what it might have in store for them—they travel in the same old ruts that their forefathers trod and then wonder what is the matter with their system. WE are not afraid to give the PUBLIC that which is the BEST, and then to tell them through the ordinary commercial channels what we are doing. There is no one organization, society or trust that can govern our prices or OUR METHODS. OURS—are the—NEW IDEAS and the NEW METHODS and the BEST. CONSULTATION always FREE. OUR WORK always the BEST.
