GREEKS OBJECT TO BEING MOVED OUT OF RAYMOND

SEATTLE, Wash., April 2.—Suits aggregating probably over a quarter of a million dollars' damage will be started by the 200 striking Greek millworkers who were shipped out of Raymond, Wash., by "strong-arm" methods last Saturday against that city.

ADVERTISING TALKS—No. 1

How can a firm of physicians advertise in a perfectly ethical way? If such a firm discovers the way will it bring results? These two questions have been answered in Medford by Drs. Saunders & Green. They have discovered a way that is being copied by other physicians all over the state. They know that it pays.

In their first month's campaign the advertising brought this firm enough extra business to more than pay for the advertising. The next month's business, before it was half through had eclipsed the first month. Each month has been away ahead of the one before and now the firm will move into new offices, corner location on second floor of the large Garnett-Corey building.

Does live advertising pay? Ask Drs. Saunders & Green.
