

FROST SEASON HAS OPENED

The frost season opened Thursday night in the valley, the mercury dropping to about generally 30, a few spots showing 28 for a short time. A few pots were lighted which were not necessary but more to try the new oil out. They worked satisfactorily, raising the temperature several degrees.

Tonight, however, the temperature will range slightly below last night and firing may not be necessary excepting in the very low spots.

Absolutely no damage was done last night.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Mr. Reed of Auburn creek, who had his household goods stored in the Sunnyside warehouse, had them taken to his home last week by Drake Walsh of Wellton.

S. B. Spiker has bought a lot of Wm. Urick on North Main street and had his residence moved from back of his opera house to said lot.

Art Alder and Wm. Beverage, two young men who are attending school in Medford, took advantage of the spring vacation and came out, they said, to do some grubbing and tree planting on Mr. Alder's place, just below town, but they were always on hand in time for supper at the Sunnyside. When they left Saturday afternoon they said they had had a fine time, and they surely enjoyed the vacation.

The select dancing club had a dance last Friday night and there seemed to be rather an overplus of ladies, for one of the young men came out and invited the above named young men to take part in the pleasures of the evening.

Almost everybody seems to be busy gardening and getting ready to do garden work.

The Nichols brick building is being rushed to completion so far as the brick work is concerned, for by the time this article is in print the masons will have their part of the work done, and Mr. Spiker, the contractor, is pushing the rest of the work along as fast as he can.

Mrs. Daisy Evans, who has been here visiting her mother, Mrs. G. W. Allen, started for Ashland Sunday afternoon.

August Eadler was among the callers Monday. He came out to register as a voter before our justice of the peace, Judge Watkins.

George Phillips has put a neat wire fence around the lot he purchased from J. J. Foyer and is planting it to garden. He expects to build on it this summer.

Prof. C. E. Johnson and Miss Mary Good, of Durby, came in Saturday evening and Sunday morning he procured a rig and took her to Wellton, where she is engaged to teach school this summer.

Miss Mamie Wright, who is teaching school on Elk creek, came out last week to visit her mother and brother. Speaking about Elk creek, Rev. Mark E. Davis and your Eagle Point correspondent expect to commence a protracted meeting in what is known as the Pence school house on Elk creek on the evening of April 8, to continue over the next Sunday, at which time there will be a picnic dinner and in the afternoon the ordinance of baptism will be administered.

Last Saturday night some of the young folk of our live little town met at the residence of Mrs. Sarah Coy and had a candy pulling party, and in addition to that the mischievous ones did not forget that the first day of April was close at hand. They had lots of fun.

Messrs. Wood and Murphy, photographers of Medford, were callers Sunday about noon. They had been to Brownsboro and had done some work and brought their pay to Eagle Point to dispose of it, which consisted of chickens and eggs. Mrs. Howlett secured the chickens and one of our merchants received the eggs. Anything to keep up business.

Rev. Paddock, D. D., of Portland, state superintendent of the work of the Congregational church of Oregon, came out to visit your Eagle Point correspondent last Sunday, and preached in the Baptist church by special invitation of Rev. Lee. Rev. Lee preached in the evening, and Rev. Paddock took the train for Medford the same day.

F. Salter has had a neat sidewalk put down along the side of his store so that people can get into the new harness shop just opened by George Wehman.

Miss Abbie Watson, recently from Michigan, came in Sunday evening on the Pacific & Eastern and after spending the night with us started Monday morning for Astoria, where she is engaged to teach school.

Mrs. Lear of Medford spent the night Sunday with us and took the 7:45 a. m. train Monday morning.

Lee Stearns, of Portland, a nephew of R. R. Minter by marriage, came down and is looking over our coun-

MEN AS HOUSEKEEPERS ON UNCLE SAM'S DREADNOUGHTS

SCRUBBING MESS TABLES WITH SAND AND CANVASS.

As men are the only housekeepers allowed on Uncle Sam's war ships, each and every housekeeper has troubles of his own. The housekeeper is the paymaster of the ship and he is either the most popular or the most unpopular man in the whole crew, for the old saying, "Get at the heart of a man by way of his stomach," is as true out on the briny deep as it is on shore.

The popularity or unpopularity of the housekeeper is shown up at the various minstrel shows given aboard ship whenever two or more naval craft are together in port.

No matter how high the cost of living rises the paymaster must furnish the food required by law. As a matter of fact, the cost is a little above thirty cents a day, but the government would furnish it if it cost $1 a day.

The old days of plum duff and salt horse, with a lot of grog thrown in to force the appetite, are buried with the past. The sailor man of to-day wants good food and gets it.

try with a view to locating among us, for he likes our climate.

Elmer Spencer of Butte Falls came out the evening of the 25th on his way to Medford, returning Tuesday on the P. & E.

Our school closed on Tuesday, the 26th, owing to the death of a niece of the principal, P. H. Dally, who was drowned in Bear creek.

William Beverage and Art Alder are stopping at the Sunnyside while they are grubbing out some land belonging to the latter's father, known as the Pat Ryan place, west of here.

Bert Scanton of Medford spent the night with us the night of the 25th on his way to Trail.

The Ladies' Aid society of Eagle Point is having a good solid stone foundation put under the Baptist church of this place.

Mr. Hutchason, living near the county road from here to the free ferry, was a pleasant caller Tuesday last. He is one of the old veterans of the civil war and said he had to come out to see what changes had taken place in Eagle Point.

Aaron Smith and family were out from their home last week on a trading expedition with our merchants.

Chris Wooley was in our town last week exhibiting a fine young colt.

Sam Harnish & Son have had a shed put up in addition to their livery stable and an enclosure arranged for the use of our town marshal to be used as a town pound. The marshal was gathering up the town cows this Friday morning, but only succeeded in locking one up as the owners were on the lookout and took possession before they were locked up.

Miss Hattie Weiser, a sister of Mrs. M. L. Dally, came over to assist in the Model variety store and telephone office while Mr. and Mrs. Dally attended the funeral of their niece in Medford.

F. M. Stewart, our town treasurer, was in Jacksonville on Tuesday of last week on business with the sheriff's office.

SENATE REJECTS METAL TARIFF

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—Characterizing the measure as "ill-advised and unfortunate," the republican majority of the senate finance committee reported today adversely on the democratic metal revision bill. The report said:

"The bill will reduce the measure of protection below the margin of safety, tending to destroy one of the most important industries and opening the domestic markets to foreign steel and iron products.

"The measure is not only unprotective, but it falls as a revenue measure as it would result in a deficit for which no provision has been made. It is not based on open hearings or on an investigation of manufacturing conditions, the cost of labor or other facts necessary to be shown."

The report also declared that the bill makes an average reduction of 30 per cent.

WILSON 21, CLARK 4 ONE IS UNINSTRUCTED

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 5.—Complete unofficial returns of the recent primary election in Wisconsin today give Woodrow Wilson 21 delegates to the national democratic convention and Speaker Champ Clark four, with one delegate uninstructed.

JURY DISAGREES COFFMAN CASE

The jury considering the case of the state vs. Coffman for cattle stealing in the Butte Falls district, reported today after an all night session that they were unable to agree. They were dismissed. It is reported that they stood 10 to 2 for an acquittal.

OFFERS CHANCE TO BOOM TAFT

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5.—That Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's resolution calling on President Taft to furnish all available information regarding reports that Japan had reached an agreement with Mexico for the establishment of a Japanese colony near Magdalena Bay, is an administration measure and designed solely to give President Taft an opportunity to voice a diplomatic warning to Japan to keep hands off of Central and South America, is the statement made here in congressional circles today by politicians.

President Taft's reply, it is reported, will be read to the senate in executive session, and the importance of the naval scare will be clearly indicated to the senate attaches. Later, senators here believe, President Taft plans to publish the reply.

RECEIVES NEWS OF HIS MOTHER'S DEATH

The very sad news has been received from London, England, by Fred Carritt, residing in this city and employed in the job press room at the Mail Tribune of the very sudden death of his dear mother, Monday, March 18, 1912, in her 71st year. Although having been in failing health for the past few months her passing away was very unexpected, but very peaceful as friends and relatives could hardly realize that she was gone, just faded away gently without a murmur. She leaves behind besides a sorrowing husband and father two sons and two daughters, all grown up, who survive her. She was indeed a good mother.

CLOAK SUIT OWNER MURDERS AND SUICIDES

CHICAGO, April 5.—In the presence of a number of clerks and customers Morris Fischman, owner of a cloak store here, shot and seriously wounded his brother-in-law, Alexander Stricker and then committed suicide, following a quarrel over financial affairs.

Mrs. Frances Guther, a customer, was wounded in the leg by a stray bullet.

Comparative Coffee Values

A pound of coffee will make about 50 cups. This figure is not exact, as you do not all use the same size cups or make coffee the same strength, but we will use the multiple of 50 cups to the pound to arrive at the cost per cup.

10 cups of 25c coffee cost without sugar or cream 5c
10 cups of 30c coffee cost without sugar or cream 6c
10 cups of 35c coffee cost without sugar or cream 7c
10 cups of 40c coffee cost without sugar or cream 8c

The difference in cost per cup between the good, medium and best is slight indeed. Our 25c value is as good as you pay 30c for elsewhere, our 30c coffee is as good or better than other stores 35c grade, and this is true of any of these big four values.

Packed in 1-pound sanitary parchment lined bags, unground, guaranteed to run absolutely uniform in quality, tomorrow, next week or any time you buy, always the same, protected from dirt and dust from roaster until received by you. These bags have all of the merit of a tin without the cost of from 3 to 5 cents per pound being added for the tin, depending on how fancy a tin the manufacturer thinks will be necessary to attract your eye. This all adds to the cost, but absolutely nothing to the value or cup quality. Try any of our big four values, use half or all of it, if you don't think it worth the money tell us, we will refund purchase price.

The 1-pound Yellow bag sells for 25 cents.
The 1-pound Blue bag sells for 30 cents.
The 1-pound Red bag sells for 35 cents.
The 1-pound White bag sells for 40 cents.
