One of the most enjoyable events in the history of Chrysanthemum circle, Women of Woodcraft, was the celebration of their fifteenth anniversary Tuesday evening with members from the Grants Pass, Phoenix and Ashland circles present to join in the evening's pleasure. During the business session much merriment was caused by Neighbor John Bellinger presenting a bill to the amount of $23 for "hauling other men's wives around," etc., etc., while Mr. McBride objected to its being allowed—that is, the bill. It was finally decided to lay it under the table indefinitely. After lodge was adjourned a short musical program and a few recitations were given. The address of welcome by Mrs. Port was responded to by a song in German by three visiting neighbors from Grants Pass, instrumental music by the Misses Mott and Miss Shultz was much appreciated and also the melody rendered by the committee, Miss Jones playing very low and Mrs. Shearer, Mrs. Chester Parker, Mr. McBride and Mrs. Schoutz singing "Home Sweet Home," "Old Oaken Bucket," "Suwanee River" and other pathetic ballads in several different keys. The listeners regretted that the quartet used a roll of cotton in their ears for all agreed it was a shame to miss such melody and sweetness. At 11:30 a splendid banquet consisting of chicken pie and other good things was served to the 109 members and visitors present and all went home glad they were Women of Woodcraft.

Twelve Reasons For Buying a Chalmers Car

9—CHALMERS CARS ARE SOLD AT A FAIR PRICE—ONE PRICE TO ALL

Chalmers cars are not high priced. Yet they have always sold primarily on their quality rather than on their price. And we believe no other cars offer quite so much value for the same price or lower. You will find it hard to buy more quality at any price—impossible, we believe, to buy equal quality at the same price.

VALLEY AUTO CO.
