A few of the gardeners and truck growers about Medford have but recently made the discovery that cauliflower could be grown successfully and with profit during the fall and winter months in this locality. Just why this discovery has been so long delayed is not given out, but the fact remains that not until this spring has there been locally grown cauliflower on the market. G. O. Timothy, who owns a small garden spot in West Medford, has positively proven the excellency of this article of food as grown here. Late last summer or early fall he sowed the seed, the brocole variety, and this spring he has supplied some of the city markets with a most delicious, fully matured table delicacy of this variety.

Many Medford people have a habit when they take a trip on the Southern Pacific of tendering a personal check at the ticket window in payment for transportation. That sort of thing is all right of course if Agent Rosenbaum happens to be there and knows the person presenting the check, but oftentimes there is a new ticket clerk at the window who does not happen to have a personal acquaintance with the applicant for tickets and he is compelled for that reason to refuse to accept a perfectly good check in exchange for the desired tickets. His refusal to accept checks might work a hardship, and to do away with the possibility of this kind of a condition coming about Mr. Rosenbaum has suggested that only cash be tendered for tickets. It was only a few weeks ago that a ticket clerk had to make good a bogus $49 check received in this manner.

BOB CONFIDENT OF RESULT HERE

ROSEBURG, Ore., April 17.—"I am confident that I will carry this state by a large majority," said Senator La Follette here today in discussing his campaign for the republican nomination following a speech to 10,000 people at Portland.

"The reception received in eastern Oregon and throughout the Willamette was beyond my greatest expectation. I find former Wisconsin men in every community upon their toes working not only for me but for the things I work for. I have met five men who helped me stump Wisconsin for congress in the cities plugging away for me here.

"All the people want is a knowledge of conditions. I find an instant response everywhere."

SCULPTOR ARTHUR PUTNAM CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

N. R. Holness, an art dealer of San Francisco, spent Wednesday in Medford en route to Portland. He states that Arthur Putnam, the California sculptor, who was twice operated upon last winter for brain tumor, is rapidly recovering, having resumed work in his studio. He is gradually recovering the use of his left side, which was paralyzed, and the prospects are that the sculptor will eventually regain the use of his left arm, which he could not move two months ago. He is now making several large pumas ordered for park adornments, the heavy work being done by assistants, the designs and finishing work by Putnam.

PORTLAND, April 16.—"I think the people of Oregon will manifest by a tremendous plurality over all other candidates their confidence in Theodore Roosevelt for President."

VOTERS FAVOR T. R. ALL OVER COUNTRY

PEOPLE OF OREGON ARE FOR "TEDDY" BELIEF OF FORMER SENATOR.

Disciple of "Square Deal" Wins Many Friends and Followers and Whole State Manifests in His Favor.

PORTLAND, April 16.—"I think the people of Oregon will manifest by a tremendous plurality over all other candidates their confidence in Theodore Roosevelt for President."

This was the comment of Fred W. Mulkey, Roosevelt National committeeman for Oregon.

"The reason is, Senator Mulkey continued, 'that no one doubts that Roosevelt is honest, no one questions his integrity; not even his enemies have ever suggested that he violated the 'square deal' to any man—or any woman for that matter."

"Roosevelt is the biggest man this country has. He is the man this country intends to honor by making him President."

Wave Sweeps Country.—"All over the country the wave of Roosevelt sentiment has sprung. Rising in a night, it has staggered the Taft people, who were confident that with Presidential patronage and the Taft machine they could hammer the delegates into line."

"But they forgot the primaries. Illinois goes overwhelmingly for Roosevelt. One state after another, even where the Taft machine is working its hardest, notches a cross in favor of 'Teddy.'"

"It will be just the same in Oregon. Spending a tremendous amount of money the Taft machine, lined up with the old Assembly crowd is working tooth and nail to nominate Taft."

The newspapers are urged into the fight by their advertisers. Big Business enters the list for Taft.

"But I believe that when the average voter goes to the polls he will register in favor of Teddy; he will pass over Taft when he thinks of the years that Taft has spent at the White House doing nothing."

"And he will cast his vote for Theodore Roosevelt for President."

"I think the Taft followers are guilty of outrageous practices in their endeavor to toast Mr. Taft upon the people."

"No one would blame Mr. Taft. Undoubtedly he means well."

Right Man Wanted.—"But in the view of the American people today, we want a man who more than means well, a man who is going to DO THE THING THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY DEMAND."

"That is the Roosevelt kind of a man."

"That is the kind of man the people will nominate here Friday."

The Roosevelt forces are waging a vigorous campaign. They feel that victory is already in their grasp and they are confident that Colonel Roosevelt will not only be the Republican nominee in Oregon but the Republican candidate in the whole country. They go further. They say they know he will be the next President of the United States.

Taft Makes Excuses.—"This is the situation. Taft is making a fresh batch of excuses every day," said L. M. Lepper, Roosevelt campaign manager in Oregon.

"Roosevelt may make mistakes but it is certain he has not made them every day, seven days a week, 52 weeks a year, like Taft. And he never whined for sympathy."

"If Taft is licked he is licked. There is no need for him to cry about it. But with his 'square deal' and the love for him that everyone has, we all know 'Teddy' will be elected by an overwhelming majority."

Which about expresses the general opinion everywhere in the State.

FRED L. COLVIG Asks for Second Term for County Recorder

Mr. Colvig has lived in Jackson county thirteen years and is well known throughout the county. He graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college and has been active in the business circles of the county until elected county recorder two years ago. He is an able, efficient officer and is pleasant and accommodating at all times. It is an unwritten law that an official who does his duty and has given satisfaction is entitled to a second term, and Mr. Colvig feels that he should be renominated next Friday.

An expert accountant has just finished experting the books in Mr. Colvig's office and says it is the best kept set of books he has had any experience with in recorders' offices in Oregon, and he has experted several counties. It is not possible to give figures now, because the expert's report has not been filed, but the books are O. K., which is an other evidence of Mr. Colvig's efficiency. (Paid Advt.)

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."
