NEWS FORECAST OF THE WEEK

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 22.—The coming week will afford something of a breathing spell in the hard-fought contests for the presidential nominations. The conventions and primaries to be held will be neither so numerous nor so important as those that have marked the week just closed.

The interest of the republican politicians will be confined largely to Missouri and Iowa, where state conventions are to be held for the selection of delegates to the national convention at Chicago. The Roosevelt claims appear to be the stronger so far as Missouri is concerned, though the Taft managers are not ready to concede that they have lost the state. In Iowa, the Taft people have strong hopes of winning as a result of the progressive vote being divided between Roosevelt and Cummins.

The republican state and district conventions in Rhode Island will be held Wednesday. The Taft people are in control of the regular party organization and expect to win out in the convention. A different situation exists in New Hampshire, where Tuesday's primaries are expected to determine the complexion of the republican state convention. Governor Bass and a strong progressive following in the Granite state are working hard in the Roosevelt interests. Encouragement has been lent to their efforts by the recent Roosevelt victory in the neighboring state of Maine.

In pursuance of a movement initiated by President Taft, representatives of business organizations throughout the country are to meet in Washington Tuesday to discuss plans for the formation of a "national board of trade," which shall have for its object the bringing of business men into touch with the government for advice and counsel in the administration of laws, the enactment of new statutes and the development of commerce.

Among other large and important gatherings of the week will be the annual convention of the National Retail Grocers' association, at Oklahoma City; the annual meeting of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, in New York; and the annual convention of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' association, in Montgomery.

Of interest in church and educational circles will be the unveiling of a statue of Bishop Carroll at Georgetown university. Bishop Carroll was the founder of the university and the first Catholic bishop and archbishop in the United States.

The anniversary of the birth of General Grant will be made the occasion for the customary memorial exercises and banquets in various parts of the country next Saturday. President Taft is to speak at the Union League club banquet in Philadelphia and Vice President Sherman will be heard at a similar function to be given under the auspices of the American club at Pittsburgh. Archbishop Ireland has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual oration at the memorial exercises in Galena, Ill., the old home of General Grant.

Notice is hereby given that the mercantile business heretofore conducted by the undersigned, F. W. Gray and H. N. Moe, under the firm name and style of Gray & Moe, has by mutual agreement been dissolved. F. W. Gray retiring. All persons owing the said Gray & Moe are hereby directed to pay said account to the firm of H. N. Moe & Company, the said accounts having been assigned unto said firm.

CHANGE TO GET NEW FACTORIES

Two industries are promised to Medford if this city will make appropriations to the same. One is the Case & Son Cutlery company, who propose to establish a factory for the manufacturing of pocket knives and razors, which will employ fifty men at high wages, and the other is the establishment of an alfalfa production plant for the manufacture of such products as flour, syrups, cereals, gums, etc.

At a meeting of the business men Saturday afternoon A. P. Crapsdell, representative of the Case & Son Cutlery company, presented his plan before the meeting. Mr. Crapsdell asked that the city of Medford subscribe for $15,000 worth of stock in the concern and to give a bonus of $10,000. To this amount the company agrees to place $50,000 additional for the erection of a modern plant and the continuation of the business. Mr. Crapsdell stated that the company would employ fifty workmen at the start, who would draw large wages. Later the amount would be increased. He does not ask that the money be given in advance and stated that he would be satisfied if the deed was put in escrow and the money for the bonus subscribed. He would also accept the site as part payment of the bonus.

Wednesday evening the Commercial club will meet and further consider the matter. The feasibility of an alfalfa plant for the manufacture of foodstuffs has been proven a scientific possibility. A number of factories are to be established on the coast. Three will be in the vicinity of Los Angeles, three in Oregon and some in Washington. W. H. O'Gara, who was in Medford, brother of here some time ago, stated at that time there was a possibility that Medford might secure a factory if they could raise the alfalfa and offer inducements to the manufacturers. In a letter to Professor O'Gara Saturday he stated that Mark Rich and Mr. Ross, heads of the concern, would consider any propositions that the city might make.

New Today

We are opening a real estate business in room 12, Jackson County Bank building, and are listing city and country property for sale or rent. In connection with the land business we are establishing eastern connections and will soon be able to consider loans on both city and ranch property.

Watch this column daily, and you will be interested in the things offered.

We have a party who is wanting a hundred dollar lot in Medford. Who has such a lot?

We have for sale a brand new four room house on the east side, on three good lots, with good well water. This place is a bargain at $800 and terms may be had on the greater part of it.

Have just listed five fine lots in West Medford that are a snap at a thousand dollars. They lie in one body, and are within a block of Main street paving. They are surrounded by fine homes.

Will be glad to list other property, which will have careful attention. C. Hoop, Room 12 Jackson County Bank Building. P. O. Box 231. Medford, Ore., April 20, 1912.
