EAGLE POINT EAGLES

After being away from home since April 14, I am once more seated at my stand in my own room and starting to take up the work of reporting the doings of Eagle Point and vicinity. Since I left home there has been several important changes taken place in our town. Among them two new buildings have gone up, although one of them, the new bakery, was started, but when I reached home Tuesday evening I found that Mr. de Witte had the roof on, the partitions in and was nailing on the laths as fast as he could, and from present appearances we will soon have a bakery in full blast in our thriving little town. Another building is H. O. Child's blacksmith shop that has been erected about opposite the new livery barn of S. H. Harash & Son. Another progressive movement is the way S. B. Spiker has improved his little home, he having put rustic and made a square front with a neat door that shows good taste. Another thing that I notice is that Mr. Spiker, the contractor on the Nichol brick, is doing the work right along and expects to have the room ready by the first of May for Heath & Diamond, two of our leading merchants, to move into by the first of May instead of the first of June, as per contract. Mr. Heath has moved into the old William Vander Hellen house now owned by Thomas Farlow. Mr. Sprague has moved into his own house, he has finished since I was away. Mr. Bryant has moved from the old Robinson house into the old Cox house now owned by Mrs. James Owens, and Scott Bruce is moving out of the mountains near Dudley and is going into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Heath, so the reader will see that we are changing around considerably.

And now to cap the climax S. B. Spiker is going to give a dance on the first of May and has prevailed on Mrs. Howlett to give the supper for the dancers, and he says that he intends to make it the grandest ball of the season. The supper will be served at the Sunnyside hotel. The best of music will be secured and a rousing good time is expected. Tickets, including supper, $2.00.—Adv.

Dr. Holt reports the arrival of a nine-pound boy in the family of Mr. Keiso of Durby on the 13th inst.

When I reached home last night (Tuesday) I found the house full, as every bed was occupied. Among them was Mr. Frank A. Griseo, our county surveyor, and H. M. Coos, Mr. Grisey is out plating a tract of land for Mr. Coos, north of our town. Mr. J. E. Hutchinson, who has a homestead on the road from here to the free ferry; M. Y. Estes, who has charge of Mr. Bonny's horse; Scott Bruce and wife, beside several strangers whose names I did not learn. I also found a number of mechanics who are working in town on the different buildings that are in the course of construction.

Revs. Lamar and Holmes of Medford came out Wednesday morning on the car and I understand went to Brownboro to assist in the organization of a Baptist church there. The Baptist association will meet in our town on April 30 to continue four days. It is expected that there will be about thirty delegates and ministers present and they are anticipating a good time.

After leaving Trail on our trip to the hills we turned our course on the Rogue river route and went through the Debeneger Gap. The road supervisor had just dragged the road and that pulverized the stick mud. The rain softened it up just enough to make it stick a little to the wheels, but we succeeded in getting through without much trouble.

This is the first time I have been through the Debeneger Gap for a number of years and I was greatly sur-

EDEN PRECINCT ITEMS

George Morse and family autoed down to North Talent Tuesday. A. M. Helms visited at Mr. and Mrs. Carey's Sunday. Bert Daugherty of Talent was at C. Carey's Tuesday after vegetable plants. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Reaso came over from Hill, Cal., Friday and visited home folks in Talent Sunday. Colver Furry of Phenix was trading in Talent Tuesday. Lem Hughes of Fern Valley was in Talent Monday on business. George James of North Talent was in Medford Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. Malmgren were calling in North Talent Monday afternoon. Miss Lullia Roberts and Roy Coiman were in Medford Monday taking in the circus. Mrs. C. Carey has purchased a large cream separator from A. M. Helms. A. Pridgear of Medford came out with his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Henry, Saturday. Mrs. D. Lenkers of Phoenix was in North Talent Monday. L. A. Rose is able to get about upon his crutches. He now gets in and out of a rig. He rode into Medford once last week with his daughter, Mrs. Joe Rader. We went on to Simsville, where I preached to a good congregation at night, and the next day went to Gold Hill, where Rev. Davis preached for the pastor of the M. E. church at that place and in the afternoon I went on and took dinner with the family of Mr. Volney Stickle, and in the afternoon held a meeting at the Dardwell schoolhouse, and the next morning we took the train for Grants Pass, where I remained for over a week under the care of Dr. M. C. Findley and had my eyes treated. While there I took the train for Three Pines, a little town on the S.P. about fourteen miles north of Grants Pass, and Rev. Davis preached in the forenoon and I preached at night. So while I was gone I saw quite a number of people and had a very pleasant time. Thomas Vestal and L. A. Williams, who are working for the Oregon Improvement company, called for dinner Wednesday and Bobbie Petty, son of Mr. Petty, who is working on the Corbin place is boarding here.

New Today

The five lots in West Medford may still be had for $1000, or the owner will sell one or more of them. This is a beautiful location, and at this price a great bargain. I have a call for a good apartment house on Main street. Party will rent it furnished or otherwise. A fine six-acre home, only half a mile west of the pavement, is offered for sale. Fine road by the place. It comprises a fine six-room bungalow nearly new. A quarter of an acre of choice grapes, a good family orchard, and the balance is garden land. This is really a fine bargain at $2600. Terms on about half of it. Don't wait for an orchard to grow. Here is one in full bearing, only a mile and a half from town, in the Orchard Home district. It contains five acres and all in choice bearing apples, peaches, pears and almonds. Houses and flats for rent. C. D. HOON, Room 12, Jackson County Bank Building
