

SOCIETY

A large attendance of ladies were present at the monthly home-coming of the six circles of the Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church, which met on Wednesday afternoon. A most enjoyable program was rendered, and the society desires to thank all who assisted particularly Miss Aitkin who charmed all with her exquisite music on the violin, and also to Miss Borer for assistance rendered on the piano. After the regular business, it was decided to give a public reception at the next home coming in May, to which all the new circle members, all the ladies of the congregation, friends and strangers are most cordially invited. It will be the principal event of the season for the Ladies' Aid society. A committee was appointed to take charge of arrangements, of which Mrs. Ed Steep is chairman assisted by Mrs. Kinleyside, Mrs. Lawton, Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. Wiley and Mrs. Townsend. The society then adjourned for the social hour in the basement, refreshments of tea and wafers were served by Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Hildebrand. The society is increasing both in members and sociability and all seem pleased with the division into circles and trust that more and lasting good will be accomplished than ever before.
