

SOCIETY

This week has been a busy one for those interested in the Equal Suffrage movement and an organization has been formed here.

Several meetings were held the early part of the week by Mrs. Sarah Colby, who has had great experience in the work, and the ladies were fortunate enough to have Miss Kate O'Connor at one meeting. Several social affairs of an informal nature have been given and many ladies have signified their willingness to work.

The biennial convention of the National Federation of Woman's Clubs is to be held in San Francisco in June, and some of the speakers on equal suffrage who attend will stop here on the return trip, if so desired.

Saturday, May 11, has been set aside as "clean up" day for Medford and on that day the city will have collected all the rubbish which has been piled on the curb stones. The cooperation of every one is asked, so that the city can be thoroughly cleaned up. Every one is asked to put everything of a combustible nature in a separate pile so a municipal bonfire can be held on that evening.

Miss Kate P. O'Connor of Rockford, Ill., spent a couple of days in Medford and while here addressed a number of women on the subject of equal suffrage at the Medford hotel. Miss O'Connor is one of the leading clubwomen and suffragists of the middle west, and has been associated with Jane Addams of Hull House, Julia Lathrop, recently appointed as head of the Child Labor commission, and others.

Miss O'Connor is a remarkably brilliant woman and made a most interesting talk on general topics of the day, as well as equal suffrage.

A very pretty luncheon was given at the Holland Saturday at 1 o'clock when the members of the Bridge Luncheon club having the highest score for the season were entertained by those having the lowest score.

The affair was given as a surprise to Mrs. William Budge, who leaves soon on an extended visit. The decorations, which were most artistic, were pink carnations. The hostesses were Mesdames Root, Purdin, English and Daniels and the guests were Mesdames Budge, Carey, Hutchison and J. B. Andrews.

The guests included Mesdames Albert Nimmo and George Cornittus, Miss Ethel Cox, Miss Hazel Cox, and Miss Helen Dahl.

The pupils of the Roosevelt school gave a thoroughly enjoyable May festival Thursday evening in the high school auditorium, for the fund which is being raised to improve the grounds at that school.

"A Bad Boy's Dream," depicting scenes from Mother Goose, went off splendidly, the principals doing their parts wonderfully well. The entertainment closed with the crowning of the May Queen, with the birds, bees, butterflies and flowers for her court, and the winding of the May pole. Several recitations and songs were most pleasingly rendered and the singing of the pupils was particularly good.

The entire performance was a great credit to teachers and pupils, and won continued applause through the evening. The fancy costumes worn were made by the Parent-Teachers' association of the Roosevelt school and were very cleverly gotten up. Following is the program:

May song, school; recitations by Grace Brainard, Flora Eastman, Reginald Daddysman, and Kathryn Ulrich; Japanese song, Grace Brainard and Ilese Schneckoeh; swimming song, Florence Trowbridge, Frances Medley, Rachel Robinson, Marjorie Coleman, Elma Rosebury, Dorothy Palmer, Virgie Meadows, Freda Davis, Margaret Bateman; Flag song by first, second and third grades.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Medford people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Medford reader of the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

C. C. Kribs, 33 North Grove St., Medford, Oregon, says: "From personal experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, I feel justified in recommending them. I suffered from a dull ache in the small of my back for months. The kidney secretions were also unnatural and at times a retention existed. Upon learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I obtained a supply and began their use. The contents of two or three boxes entirely rid me of the trouble and improved my health. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills can be relied upon to give relief if taken as directed."
