New Today

I have listed two hundred acres of land on Antelope creek that is offered at a price which should interest many. There are forty acres of fine thick fir timber, and one hundred sixty acres of land that is good for all purposes. It is of good soil and the grass on it is fine, and much of it could be plowed up and farmed. There is no better orchard land. Call and look over the proposition. $2750 takes the piece. A very neat and handy six room house on the west side, all modern. Fine large lot, and very highly cultivated. It is worth much more, but it goes at $2250. Eight acres of garden land near Central Point with water right all paid and water available for immediate use. Party will trade for a moderate priced Medford residence. C. D.
