Mayor W. H. Canon is confined to his home with a very severe cold which has settled in his chest. He is said to be threatened today with pneumonia.

Mrs. W. G. Alden has returned from a visit with friends at Ashland. See R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man, over Jackson County bank.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McPherson have returned from a visit at San Diego. They were charmed with the southern California resort, but still believe that there is no place like the Rogue river valley.

Our Correspondents

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

D. W. Stone of Sacramento spent Tuesday night here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stone.

Mrs. Don Drake of Upland, Cal., and P. D. Blackden of Ashland spent Wednesday here. St. Marks Junior Guild of Medford will present the "Valley Farm" to our people at the Central Point opera house tonight (Thursday).

There will be an entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. building given by local talent Friday evening, May 10. Col. Tou Velle spent a few hours here Wednesday afternoon.

The city council met in regular May session Monday evening with Mayor Cowley, City Recorder Jacobs and all councilmen except H. W. Lindsay in attendance. April bills were allowed. A street sweeper was ordered and matters of a night watch was discussed, but no decision arrived at. Council adjourned till tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 o'clock.

S. A. Pattison of the Herald has returned from a trip to Portland. Rex Lampman of the Gold Hill News spent Tuesday afternoon here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Usher, F. E. Jalow, Fred Balch, K. S. Miller, Jeffries and Williamson of Medford were Tuesday visitors here.

A. B. Cornell of Grants Pass spent Tuesday afternoon here. Rev. Wm. R. Wimsas preached last Sunday at Roosevelt and the Reese creek school houses and organized a Sunday school in each place.

Rev. Campbell of Wyoming preached here last Sunday both morning and evening, and at Brownsboro in the afternoon. The Catholic chapel car arrived last Saturday and they conducted services in the car Saturday night and Sunday, and will remain for the week.

Your correspondent went to Antioch and there met Rev. M. C. Davis and held a meeting there and at Agate, but he was called on urgent business to go north so had to call in his appointment for Table Rock. During my rounds I noticed that the prospect was fine for an abundant crop of everything in the crop line and that the farmers were cheerful over their prospect.

Mrs. E. C. Piper joined her husband here last Sunday evening, from Portland, and on Monday they moved to their home on Eagle Heights. Scott Bruce is pushing to completion the rooms in the Nichols building for the ice plant, and men are digging the well to furnish water. By this time next week Contractor S. B. Spiker will be ready to turn the building over to the owners, all completed. Heath & Diamond have already moved their stock of goods into the space designed for their store and are stocking up with a full line of general merchandise.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

(By A. C. Howlett.) I unintentionally omitted to mention the names of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. DeArmon, Mrs. J. Loder, Miss Emma Wallace, Ossomesley Berch Daily, Miss Elget Boatney, Earl Kiser and Maud Reed. These names were written in a little book by one of the party and the rest of the names I had transcribed from the minutes of the association. The above named persons came out in a rig from Medford to take part in the program on Friday afternoon and Lewis Bennett led the young people's exercises during the afternoon session of the association.

O. S. Nelson, the Jacksonville insurance man, came out Sunday and has been a guest at the Sunnyside up to the present time, Tuesday afternoon. He has come in contact with poison oak and the result was he has been unable to attend properly to business.

Rev. Wm. R. Wimsas preached last Sunday at Roosevelt and the Reese creek school houses and organized a Sunday school in each place. Rev. Campbell of Wyoming preached here last Sunday both morning and evening, and at Brownsboro in the afternoon.

Heath & Diamond have already moved their stock of goods into the space designed for their store and are stocking up with a full line of general merchandise.

The bakery building is so far completed that George Riley, formerly of Medford, has taken possession and Monday turned out his first batch of bread. He tells me that he intends to keep a full line of goods in his class.

William Von der Hellen's two children were playing together Monday and the little girl was holding a nail for her little brother to drive into a small board. Just as he was ready to strike the nail slipped so as to penetrate her finger and he drove the nail through her finger fast to the board. It was necessary to get a claw hammer and her uncle Carl had some difficulty drawing it out of the board.

George W. Owings, proprietor of the Eagle hotel, has gone to Klamath county to look at a farm he is talking of trading for. W. A. Clark spent the night with us Monday. He is traveling for Fairbanks & Co. of San Francisco, selling Cottolene.

Robbie Jonas, of Wallola, came in Saturday evening to visit his mother and brother Jake. Mr. Buster, while working in an orchard on Antelope, had his leg broken Monday. Dr. Holt was called and set the bone. Everett Culbertson of Lake creek has organized a farmers' telephone company and is putting up a line from Eagle Point to McAllister's saw mill on the north fork of Little Butte.

Baby's Voice. Every woman's heart responds to the charm and sweetness of a baby's voice, because nature intended her for motherhood. But even the loving nature of a mother shrinks from the ordeal of suffering and danger.

At least that's the way it feels to the sufferer—soon gets relief when the victim reaches our hands. We are patients at painless extraction, also at filling teeth and saving them when worth saving. Suppose you give us a trial on your next Dental Job? You will find us so gentle in our operations—and charges—that you will surely return.

SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Star Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Marshall, to Donald L. Colvig, son of Judge Wm. Colvig, was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents on South Onkalde avenue, May 8th, at sunset.

Just as the last rays of the setting sun streamed across their path, the bridal procession entered the room led by the two small ribbon bearers in white suits, Jack Marshall and Windsor Gale.

Following them came little Rowen Gale bearing the ring, and Miss Hope Marshall, the only attendant of the bride. These were dressed in white lingerie dresses, over yellow slips. After these came the bride. She was dressed in white hand embroidered liberty satin, veiled in silk marquise and wearing orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The procession was met by the groom and the Rev. Mr. Boyle of the Christian church under an immense floral arch of vines and white lilies, and here in an enclosure of blossoms was pronounced the beautiful and impressive ceremony that united the young pair for life.

Prof. Tallendier played Lohengrin's wedding march at the entrance of the bridal party and several beautiful selections afterwards. The guests were: Judge Wm. M. Colvig, Prof. Tallendier, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Reames, Mrs. Helen Gale, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hansen, A. S. Rosenbaum, Miss Jennie Hansen, Miss Florence Marshall, Miss Lois Fancier, Wilson Waite, Vance Colvig, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Marshall and the immediate family of the bride.
