STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL ROSEBURG THIS WEEK

ROSEBURG, Ore., May 14 .- Thi week-from early Monday morning until late Saturday night-wiwll b one of the busiest the citizens of Roseburg have experienced. Monda will find every one decorating an polishing for the remaining days o the week, when the state grange an the Southern Oregon Medical asso ciation will meet in Roseburg, and Roseburg's third annual strawberry carnival will be held.

The main feature this week will be the strawberry carnival. The present ideal weather promises to continue, and everything is progressing finely toward a most successful carnival.

STRANGE ANIMALS WITH SELLS-FLOTO SHOW

Visitors to the menagerie of the Sells-Floto circus in Medford, May 23, this season will be privileged to see, among other things, two very strange animals. These are "Barney" and "Estelle," the orang-outangs, which were imported from Borneo last summer, and which are so nearly human in all their actions that it almost makes the spectato subscribe to the Darwinian theor, concerning the descent of man.

But the strangest thing abou these simeons lies in the fact tha they are still alive, hearty and a well today as when they landed fron their native wilds. This is the firs time recorded that an orang-outans has lived longer than six months af ter having been deported from Hor-

All the scientific authorities and ail the students of natural history have asserted and given it as a concensus of their individual and col- Belford and Shea. lective opinions that the limit of life Portland for an orang-outang is 180 days from the time he is taken aboard ship.

Up to the present time the savants have been boastful of the argu- ris. ment, because no case was recorded where one of these animals lived longer than the stated period. But now cometh "Barney" and "Estelle" as living witnesses to the fact that science, upon occasion, may be all wrong. Next June they will be exactly one year in this country.

Heretofore it has been alleged that most of the orang-outangs imported Ellis, a local physician, interested Laren's Mustard Cerate. that now these animals are apparent- for. ly in as good health as any of their companions in the menagerie.

So it is that evidently the scientists of the last century have diagnosed the case of the orang-outang without really getting to the root of the besetting evil.

They will be seen in the menagerie without extra charge when the Sells-Floto circus arrives here.

BE SUMMER RESORT

"A Home for Tired Business Men' s one of the names which is to designate the beautiful Pelican lodge, built a few years ago for the late E. H. Harriman, wigard of the great railroad system. The lodge has been purchased from Mrs. Harriman by the Klamath Development company, wiwth the expressed stipulation that the lodge is to be left just as it has been and is to become a refuge to which tired business and professional men can escape to rest their nerves. Mrs. Harriman refused to consider any other proposition. The lodge consists of more than a dozen log buildings and 1200 acres. It has a frontage of eight miles on the Upper Klamath lake. To reach it a gasoline boat takes one the length of the lake and Mount Shasta is in full view during the entire trip. Mount Pitt, one of the best hunting grounds of the state, overlooks the lodge and Crater lake is but 30 miles away. An automobile line is to be established to Crater lake.

The lodge has been placed in the charge of William D. Morse, a son of the telegraph inventor and an ardent sportsman.
