

HONOR MEN AT PEYTON REVIVALS

That the honor men at Westville have been much interested in revival meetings held at Peyton and have walked the four miles nightly to participate in them is the assertion of the evangelist, Rev. J. T. Little. Mr. Little comments as follows on the honor camp:

"While out in the mountains at Peyton, two weeks ago, holding a special meeting, I had the privilege of visiting Westville, the honor camp, saw the work being done by these men, talked with them. A great number of them, sometimes as high as 15, would walk four miles to attend my meeting, and some of them seemed to be concerned about their soul's salvation, one man making a profession. "The neighbors think well of the boys and everyone in that neighborhood desires the boys to remain. They are invited into their home, partake of their meals and are made to feel welcome, and it is working like a charm. The boys are encouraged and all that is noble is bestirring itself and they are determined to make good and be loyal citizens. "Some are in for minor offenses and are being paroled right along. Nine were given their liberty while I was there and they left with a determination to never get back into the pen. I wish to say that I heartily approve of Governor West's honor system and I do pray God's blessing upon him and the boys.

"Jackson county should have a hand in this noble work. I have been pleased to learn that the camp is to be continued. I am sure it is a good investment also in a financial way. I have had a great deal of experience in grading work and it is not a rough guess with me. I saw the work done and was told of its cost and I will admit that it sometimes surprised me at first, but then when I saw things as they were I understood better. They have had no show at all to make good. They cannot work the material at all when it is wet, and it has been wet a great deal of the time since the camp was established. The two weeks that I was there it rained nearly all of the time. "The cost of the camp is nearly as much when they are idle as when they are at work. If I have things right, it costs about $750 per month whether they work or not, and about $1,000 per month if they work all the time, so I feel that they will make a great showing for the money invested in a good weather. The above estimate is not exactly correct, but is a rough estimate when the camp consists of 35 men, an overseer drawing $100 per month, and two teams which I understand are paid $4 per day. The boys get their board and 25 cents per day. So the only additional cost the working day has over the idle day is the 25 cents per man. "Besides all this, Jackson county should be one of the foremost counties in lending a helping hand to Governor West in this noble venture, which we hope will soon find encouragement in every state in the union. Come on, Jackson county, don't lose this opportunity of showing to the world what manner of men we are."

FROM $1 CAPITAL TO $3000 IN ONE YEAR

Model Bakery Began Business Year Ago Today With Only Pluck, Energy and $3 Cash and in Dull Times Builds Up Large Business.

One year ago today the Model Bakery began business on Tenth street with only enterprise, energy, hope and $3 cash as capital. It was hard sledding at first, but good bread and pastry was turned out and one by one the customers grew. Once a customer, always a customer, was the motto of the establishment, and that the public knew a good thing when they saw it, or rather tasted it, is proved by the growth of the establishment.

Despite hard times and financial depression the business rapidly outgrew its facilities, and two months ago new quarters were secured at 606 East Main street, a block east of the bridge, which only goes to prove that hard times are times when good men make good and the inefficient fall by the wayside.

From $3 cash capital the business has grown to $3000 cash capital and an ever increasing business is done. Fresh hot bread is served daily at 5 o'clock to the home going crowd of city and suburban residents, a delicatessen supplies table delicacies superior to any in the city and an immense brick oven is in progress of construction to still further increase the capacity of the plant.

All of which goes to show what can be accomplished by a wide-awake, plucky youth without capital in dull times in Medford. Where can you beat it?

In the interests of the highest forms of the drama and the best influences of the theatre we record our appreciation of the success attained in the production of the play "The Man from Home" which tonight observes its run of three hundred consecutive performances in Chicago.

In sustaining this production the people have shown their willingness to endorse a good, pure and wholesome play when well presented by an able company in a skillful and entertaining manner.

The high dramatic ability and charming personality of William Hodge delightfully manifested in the leading character have won the greatest admiration from all who have seen him in the play and drawn to him a large circle of kind and sympathetic friends.

S.S.S. MAKES A LASTING CURE

Not only its proven ability to cure, but its absolute safety as a remedy, has made S. S. S. the most extensively used of all medicines in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison. Unlike the strong mineral mixtures, which temporarily remove the outward symptoms and shut the disease up in the system, there to carry on its destructive work on the delicate and vital organs, S. S. S. strikes directly at the root, and by purifying the blood of every trace of the virus, completely and permanently cures the trouble. S. S. S. is Nature's blood purifier, harmless in its action and certain in its good results. It is made from a combination of roots and herbs, each of which has a definite and specific action in purifying the blood. Years were spent in selecting and proportioning the different ingredients, but when S. S. S. was perfected it soon demonstrated its superiority over all other blood medicines, and now, after 40 years, it is still the one and only certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. While driving out the poison from the circulation S. S. S. builds up and strengthens the system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. is your most certain reliance, and because of its freedom from mercury, potash or any other mineral, it is absolutely safe for every one.
