Eighty young people (all married) of the Baptist church were present at a banquet given by the feminine side of the gathering, in the large tent just east of the Baptist church Wednesday evening. All accounts declare the affair a grand success and one goes so far as to state that the guests were as happy as before they married.

The occasion was made possible by the young married women's class of the Baptist Sunday school, who desired to get their husbands to a get-together meeting or gathering of a strictly social nature.

Following the banquet, a musical program interspersed with some impromptu speeches was given in the church.

In honor of the birthday of Mrs. Florence McCoy, a number of young people of the city gathered at the McCoy residence on Grape street Monday evening at the invitation of Miss Alfretha Garretson.
