

What Good Is a Strike-Breaker if There Is No Strike?

EAGLE POINT EAGLES.
(By A. C. Howlett.)
There seems to be but little going on in our little town since the ground has got dry enough for farmers to plow and plant corn, and still there is considerable travel on the road, judging by the number of transients stopping with us.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.
J. F. Hopkins returned from a trip to Portland Tuesday morning.
H. A. Perkins of Wolf Creek spent the first of this week with his brother George Perkins near this city.
T. J. O'Hara and E. L. Farra spent Tuesday in Rogue River.
Louis J. Gay of Seattle spent first of the week with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gay, here.
K. S. Miller, Fred Balch and C. M. Gregory of Medford spent Tuesday here.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Webb, Miss Ruth Manning, Miss Huttler and Earl Keller were passengers from here Tuesday afternoon to Medford.
Married, by Rev. W. Austin Crane, in this city, Monday, May 20, 1912, H. Price and Mrs. C. Lesmeister. George Farnum left for Miles City, Mont., the first of the week to spend the summer.

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS.
A fire is usually a loss to individuals but a benefit to the town of Butte Falls is no exception. A new and handsome concrete building with a cement sidewalk is soon to take the place of the frame building destroyed by fire recently.
The wood saw has been busy sawing up the wood from the mill company's property and the brush and logs are being burned off by John Winningham.
Butte Falls can boast of considerable musical talent. A concert was given on Friday evening by the Musical club and orchestra which was highly appreciated by an audience that filled the room. Last week the juniors similarly entertained their friends.
Not much doing yet but Butte Falls is on the map and won't come off. Excursions have commenced for the season, bringing the citizens of Medford to this lovely mountain town for their health and pleasure.
The school closes this week. The teachers are to be congratulated on the success of the school while the parents are to be congratulated on the success of the teachers. Dr. Buchanan has been engaged for another year.

New Today

I have listed a 160 acre ranch, in a very desirable location on the Applegate that is waiting for a man of pluck and energy to make his fortune. It is very close to store, school and postoffice, and can be made, in a short time, into a very good ranch. Only seven miles from a good town, and on roads that are always good. Price on terms $3200.
Who wants this 40 acre relinquishment in the Sams valley? A new three room house, barn, chicken house, good garden fenced in, horse, cow and calf, 150 chickens, wagon, buggy, harness, plow and the house fully furnished with new furniture. The place is good free soil, well watered, and one spring could be piped to irrigate the whole place. Price if taken soon $800.
A four room house in southwest Medford, well located, with woodshed, chicken house and pen, and lot 50x120 feet, well fenced. Water in house and yard, and lot nicely cultivated in garden, and small fruit. Is offered at the very low price of $1000 and will take half of this in a good lot. This is a snap.
