

$1000 IN GOLD SIX PAILS ORE

A second shipment of bullion from the recently discovered vein of high grade ore on the Victor mining property on Galice creek was made Monday, the present shipment being of 56 ounces 11 pennyweights of the precious metal, this amount representing the hand mortaring of six pails full of the decomposed quartz, each pail holding but two gallons.

As this bullion brings about $18 per ounce, the present shipment, the product of twelve gallons of dirt, will return at least $1,000.

This vein, which was uncovered only a few weeks ago, is on the surface of the Victor mining property, owned by Norberg brothers, the discovery having been made by John Carlson, Geo. Colvin and Oscar Shattuck, Galice prospectors. The vein of high grade ore is from four to five inches wide, and has been traced a distance of one hundred feet on the surface, when a better idea of the magnitude of the find can be obtained. The gold so far taken out has come practically from the surface, and while that mortared has come from the narrow vein, at least four feet of the rock from each side of this seam will pay good values for hand roasting.

The Miracle Baby--Biggest Child Ever Born in America

The Sells-Floto circus is in Medford today, with the usual glitter and scenery, the countless attractions and wonder-exciting marvels. Combined with curiosities of the animal world are the marvelous feats of the performers which justify the owners' claims of being the best circus in the world for the money. The program -- an extended one, full of flourish in interest, and well calculated to entertain and amuse.

The greatest attraction with the show is the baby elephant, the only one ever born in captivity in America. Its birth on April 25, is thus described by T. T. Tammen of the Denver Post, one of the owners of the circus:

In 1895 Sells-Floto circus purchased a female elephant from Thompson & Dundee of Luna park. The elephant was then about 6-1-2 or 7 feet tall. She was known by the name of Alice. In 1908 we purchased two elephants from Hagenbeck, one a male which was named Jumbo the Second.

Jumbo the Second got loose, so the story goes, some twenty-two months ago, and the impression is -- because we have no other way of figuring it out -- that he is the sire of the baby elephant born to Alice on April 25, 1912, about 5:30 in the afternoon, at Salinas, Cal.

About 1 o'clock April 25, Alice became restless, tore up stakes and the other elephants began to bellow. Frederick Allspaw, chief animal man with the show, bound her to stakes, front and hind leg. Along about 2 o'clock she began pulling up the stakes, although they were driven in a hard ground -- six-foot stakes -- to a depth of five feet. Then they chained her to four stakes and alternately she hind stakes would be pulled, the animal making a head stand, and no sooner would they fasten them up again than she would do the same thing by standing erect and pulling up the front. Under the direction of Allspaw and William Curtis and a band of stake drivers, the stakes were driven and pulled until along about 5 o'clock, when birth was given to a little elephant, who came to life in a round ball like a big head of cabbage.

The mother still continued to raise Cain. The baby was laid on a piece of canvas in sight of the mother, showing apparently no life at all until after about a half hour of rubbing and fumbling, when it slowly stretched out, and in the course of an hour it had taken a little bit of brandy, mixed with water, and stood unsteadily.

About 8 o'clock we took the baby elephant and put it in a box car, after heating the car with hot stones and oil stoves, and with one of the big elephants led Alice to the car with the baby, put her in and chained her, but she was no sooner chained and the other elephants taken away, than she raised such a fuss that the car was in danger of being destroyed, so we brought the baby elephant back, led him into the car, got them both out and took Alice to the regular elephant car, and no sooner was she in and chained than she flopped on her side and in five minutes was sound asleep. The probabilities are that the reason the animal went to sleep was that she was utterly exhausted.

The next day Alice got on the lot at Monterey, Cal. She was milked and gave a quart and a pint of milk that day. This milk was immediately poured into a bottle and put in a bucket of hot water at a temperature of about 70 degrees, and taken to the car where the baby was and offered to it, and the baby took to it as if its life depended upon the getting of it. The next day a smaller quantity of milk was taken from the mother, and so on until the third day, and then she went dry. Since that time, and up to this writing -- May 8 -- the baby has been fed on Bartlett Springs water, mixed with Borden's condensed milk, burnt flour and strained rice water, and telegrams just now received say that the baby elephant is fine and healthy.

At Santa Cruz, where we played on April 27, the navel string was tied, and on April 29 the baby was put in a padded crate and taken to the manager's tent at Oakland, Cal., and from there into a big cage with some straw in it and given a big rubber ball, and it immediately began to play with the ball and has been on exhibition ever since.

The estimated weight of the baby when born was 180 pounds. It was three feet long and two feet high. Elephant's milk looks like diluted honey water and tastes sweet, having a honey taste. Immediately after the baby showed signs of life Frederick Allspaw dipped his finger in brandy water and put it in the baby's mouth and it began to suck, and after absorbing the water for a few minutes began to stretch out.

The baby elephant has been christened "Little Hutch" after Frederick Bailey Hutchinson, who is the manager of the Sells-Floto circus back with the show, and who is a son of Mr. Hutchinson, formerly of Barnum, Bailey & Hutchinson.

MANY LADIES AT SUFFRAGE TEA

Over 50 ladies were present at a suffrage tea given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. George L. Davis at her home on West Tenth street. Many interesting addresses were made. Clarence L. Reames, who opposes C. E. Whisler, avowed for of equal suffrage, for the legislature addressed the ladies, who previously endorsed Mr. Reames' candidacy.

King Opens Big Flower Show
LONDON, May 23.--The king officiated today at the opening of the International horticultural exhibition on the grounds of the royal hospital at Chelsea. The exhibition is said to be the largest of its kind ever held. The display of plants and blossoms occupies nearly twenty-five acres of ground, about seven acres of which have been placed under canvas.

Illinois G. A. R. Encampment
PEORIA, Ill., May 23.--The forty-sixth annual encampment of the G. A. R., department of Illinois, with the meetings of the several affiliated organizations, began in this city today under auspicious conditions. The business streets are hung with flags and elaborate patriotic decorations in honor of the veterans and their friends.

ADDITIONAL GAME TOURNAMENT PLAYED

One additional game was played in the "31" tournament now holding the center of the stage at the University club. R. W. Ruhl and T. Slater Johnson, who substituted for Jack Morrill defeated Addison Brown Schuster and Phil Hamill by a zero-hazard score. The game was close throughout, the losers breaking at the last moment while Ruhl played a difficult hazard and won.

Teachers to Meet
The teachers of the Roosevelt school will meet Friday, May 24 at 3 p. m. The following program has been arranged: Song and drill by pupils; report of officers; chalk talk by Miss Mary Moore; a round table discussion of the year's work; election of officers; refreshments.

Pennsylvania I. O. O. F.
READING, Pa., May 23.--Hundreds of members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows are here from every part of the state for the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania grand lodge. Beginning with the formal opening today, the sessions will continue until Thursday. Grand Master W. Oscar Miller of this city is presiding.

GOOD BALL GAME NEXT SUNDAY

The first real baseball game of the season will be played Sunday on the local grounds, when Grants Pass and Medford will cross bats. The two preliminary games were for practice, generally and Sunday's game should be a good one.

The rivalry between the two clubs is as ancient and rock rubbed as the mountain ranges which separate them. Each game is a battle royal and will be hard fought.

BRYAN TELLS METHODISTS HE WILL RUN NO MORE

MINNEAPOLIS, May 23.--Naphthalia Lucecock of Kansas City, Mo., is the fourth bishop of the eight to be selected at the present session of the general conference of the Methodist church here. This was the decision of the delegates on the fifteenth ballot announced today, Dr. Lucecock receiving 548 votes, or 34 more than necessary. Another ballot was taken later, but the result was not announced. Dr. Andrew Gilles of Minneapolis withdrew from the race after the fifteenth ballot.

William Jennings Bryan, in a speech before the conference took occasion to reiterate his statement he was a candidate for no office and did not expect to be. "I don't want you to expect or believe I am or even expect to be a candidate," Colonel Bryan in speaking urged all church members to get into politics for the public novelty and good government.

"My Feet Were Just Aching For TIZ"

Let Your Poor, Tired, Chafed, Tender Feet "Spread Out" Gloriously in a Bath of TIZ!

"O. O. glory, what a feelin'! Wonderful what TIZ will do for your feet!"

Just take your shoes off, and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, achy, corn-plastered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a TIZ bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy. They'll look up at you and almost talk, and then they'll take another dive in that TIZ bath! Yes, TIZ is life to feet!

The man or woman who says there's anything like, or as good as, TIZ never had a foot in a TIZ bath.

When your feet ache, get tired, swollen, tender or sore, just try TIZ. Your feet will just feel fine; also your corns, bunions and callouses will disappear. You'll be able to wear smaller shoes, too; your feet will keep cozy; they'll never be frost bitten, never chilblained.

TIZ operates under a new principle, drawing out all the poisonous exudations that make feet sore, corny and tired. There's nothing else like TIZ, so refuse any imitation.

TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Luthers & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all drug stores, department and general stores.
