EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

John Simon, who has been stopping during the winter with his sister, Mrs. C. W. Daley, has gone to Central Point for a short stay.

In a former letter I stated that W. L. Childreth was so badly crippled up with sciatic rheumatism that he had given up work in his blacksmith shop but in a day or two I was at his shop and found him hammering away as though nothing was the matter, and I am glad to be able to state that he is still at work.

Miss Lillian C. Mullen of Medford came out Tuesday and spent a part of the day with us at the Sunnyside. She was canvassing for the George W. Glover Co., of Philadelphia.

John Forester of San Francisco came out Tuesday to put up the machinery for Nichols & Nichols ice plant they are putting up in the new Nichols brick.

W. W. Willets of Persist and Frank Therton were guests at the Sunnyside Tuesday night.

We had quite an exciting time in our quiet little village Tuesday afternoon.

Ray Harnish was handling a load of lumber from Sprague & Co.'s lumber yard and just as he was passing Henry Childreth's blacksmithshop the horses took fright and both jumped at once, breaking the whiffletree and jerking the driver off of the wagon. For a moment they kept the wagon going by the neekyoke hanging to the end of the tongue and Ray saw that he was in danger of being run over by the wagon, so turned the horses loose, each one having a single tree hanging to him. They started to run in an easterly direction when they soon ran into a barbed wire fence, once horse falling and here they parted by breaking the lines and one ring off of the neekyoke and one horse ran across the railroad track and the other across the creek, heading for the desert between here and Medford, but fortunately he turned into a lane between the Knight place—the old Page place—and Joe Riley place—and was captured by some of the men on the ranch. The horses were both cut considerably but not seriously and Ray complained that night of his head being sore, but not so sore but he was able to go to the dance that night.

PALACE OF SWEETS The Place to Get the Best

Speaking about the dance, it was a special entertainment and dance given for the benefit of the Catholic church, at which time they had lunch served in the hall. The dance was given in Brown's hall over George Brown & Sons' store, and those present reported that they had a fine time. Quite a number of people from the country were in attendance, among whom were Mike Kidley and his two sisters, Misses Julia and Helen, Wort Pool and wife, Mr. Herrin and wife, Timmie Dugan and his sister-in-law, Miss Maggie Sidley and others whose names I did not learn.

Henry Taun of Lake Creek was in town Tuesday and when he went home he rode in a new Spaulding hack that he bought from a traveling agent that has been canvassing this part of the country.

Heath & Diamond have had a neat new sign placed over their new store door. They are taking time by the forelock and have a car load of stove wood bought from the Butte Falls country.

A young man by the name of J. H. Aten of Gold Hill came in Tuesday evening on the train, took supper with us and went on over to the Corbin orchard—the old Bradshaw—to work in the fruit. I understand that they will require a number of hands to thin the fruit this year for the crop is very immense. Mr. Corbin passed through our town Thursday morning on his way to his farm and Mr. Frank Poyser of Medford brought out a load of groceries, etc., for him from Medford.

Roy Willets, the mail contractor for the Eagle Point-Prospect route, came out Monday with the mail and is having his rigs fixed up by Henry Childreth for the summer's run.
