HIGHER AVERAGES FOR LIVESTOCK

PORTLAND, May 27.—Receipts for the week have been: Cattle 956, calves 107, hogs 2536, sheep 3732, horses 109. Very few choice cattle were received, which applied both to the steer and cow divisions. One car of extra fine baby beef, 23 head in all, averaging 906 pounds, brought $7.25, which we understand is the top of the steer market at the present time. Fair to medium beef brought $6.60 to $6.90, owing to quality. Good to fat cubs were scarce, the few readily bringing $6.00 to $6.25, with plenty of bidders. The veal market went up a notch, best light calves selling for $7.75, an advance of a quarter over last week's quotations. Bulls and stags were steady at former prices. The hog market steadied up somewhat after reaching the level of 8 cents, best finished swine being firm at this figure, fair to medium selling all the way from $7.75 to $7.90. The market was well supplied with all classes, light feeders brought from $6.50 to $7.50, owing to size and conditions, good heavy hogs sold around $7.00. Although receipts of sheep were not nearly so heavy as for the past two weeks, the market showed no signs of recuperating and former quotations prevail. Owing to the rapid approach of the grass season sheep are likely to be more plentiful in the near future and prices will no doubt fluctuate accordingly.
